OPPOSE GASOLINE PERMIT

Chestnut Hill Residents Make Strong Remonstrance Before the Board of Aldermen

The hearings before the board of aldermen last Monday night took over an hour's time, the principal matter of interest being the petition of Robert J. Burns for a permit for 500 gallons of gasoline on Manet road, Chestnut Hill. That district sent down a large delegation and vigorously protested against the permit being granted. Mr. Burns and his father, Mr. John T. Burns were the only persons to favor the project and Messrs. W. A. Mosman, Frank A. Schirmer, George J. Martin, Chas. L. Ayling and Dr. C. A. Riley objected. President Harriman called for a rising vote from the spectators on the matter, the vote standing 19 against and 2 in favor.

The hearing on the proposed rounding of the corners of Walnut and Beacon street also took some time as Alderman Blake complicated the subject by bringing in a pending petition of the Jenney Mfg. Co. to locate a gasoline filling station at one of these corners. Mr. F. E. Banfield, Jr., president of the Newton Centre Improvement Association spoke in favor of the rounding and also favored the filling station as a means of keeping the corner from being built up with other structures. Mr. Banfield called this place the most dangerous corner in the city. Messrs. J. T. O'Connor, N. F. Pratt and J. P. Roche also spoke in favor and Mr. Cohen for the Wingersky estate entered an objection unless the whole of that estate was taken for the improvement.

The proposed laying out of Warwick road also brought both sides, Messrs. C. L. Dutton, L. C. Percy and E. P. Hay being in favor and Messrs. J. J. Gill and T. Reagan objecting. Here too, a rising vote was taken resulting in 18 favoring and 2 opposing the project.

GOLDEN JUBILEE

Woman's American Baptist Missionary Society Celebrates at Newton Centre

On Wednesday afternoon, April 27, the delegates to the Golden Jubilee of the Women's American Baptist Missionary Society made a pilgrimage to Newton Centre. The Baptist Church in Newton Centre is historic in that the Society was first organized in this church under the leadership of Mrs. Colby and Mrs. Alvah Hovey. At 2:15 an historic meeting was held in the church. The special feature of this meeting was the re-enacting of the first meeting in the year 1871 by the descendants of those early leaders. The costumes of 50 years ago were worn, and the whole meeting was as exact a reproduction of the first one as possible. There were over 700 in attendance at this session of the Jubilee.

After four o'clock many of the guests were taken in automobiles around Newton Centre to visit the Seminary, Hasseltine House, the Mis-

NEW MASONIC LODGE

Norumbega Lodge Constituted at Newtonville by Officers of Grand Lodge

A most interesting and important event in Masonic circles took place Monday evening in Masonic Temple, Newtonville, when M. W. Arthur D. Prince, Grand Master of Masons in Massachusetts, and Grand Officers constituted a new Lodge of Masons, naming it Norumbega.

At 5 P. M., the Grand Master and Grand Lodge Officers arrived at Masonic Temple where an informal reception to the Grand Master and Officers was held. There were many distinguished Masons among those present to welcome the Grand Master; among others were Joseph A. Bryant 33 degree past Grand Commander of the Massachusetts Consistory. The brethren spent a most delightful hour shaking hands with the Grand Master, a most gracious and delightful personality, who has won the love and esteem of the craft throughout the state.

Promptly at 6 P. M. a very fine chick-

MT. HOLYOKE ALUMNI

Endowment Fund Given Big Boost at Dinner at Newton Club

About one hundred alumnae and friends of Mt. Holyoke College dined at the Newton Club last Tuesday evening, this dinner being one of three held in the immediate vicinity and simultaneously with many others through the length and breadth of the land as the opening of the intensive campaign to complete the college's $3,000,000 Endowment Fund.

Miss Margaret McGill, chairman for all-Newton presided, from time to time between courses reading messages of greeting received from the other alumnae groups. Blue candles and blue balloons suspended from the ceiling suggested the college color and added to the festive appearance of the room. A reproduction of the clock tower of Mary Lyon chapel with the hands set at three o'clock to represent the three million dollars graced the center of the head table.

After a few introductory words from the chairman of the evening, Miss Eleanor Leete sang several songs and as the hour approached nine all rose and sang Alma Mater in accordance with the request from headquarters.

In presenting the first speaker of the evening, Miss Bertha Haven Putnam, head of the department of history, Miss McGill quoted President Woolley as saying, "that the history department at Mt. Holyoke is known not only in the United States, but in England and abroad. Miss Putnam in opening her address said that never has there been a greater need for educated men and women than today, and never in history have the privately endowed colleges found themselves in so pitiful a plight as now. All are struggling for existence. The only alternative, should their campaigns for funds fail, is state aid in one or two forms, either through becoming state universities or through grants of funds. Cambridge and Oxford have recently been obliged for the first time to accept grants. In a democratic country there is the fear that politics would control, and the tax payers would look for too quick returns from their taxes, which would result in a lowering of standards and a tendency toward the utilitarian in education.

Each student today costs the college $827, while the highest sum paid by any one is $750, there being many forms of rebates through scholarships and various loan funds and opportunities for remunerative work. To raise the tuition sufficiently to avoid deficit would mean making a college education possible only to rich girls.

NEW PRESIDENT CHOSEN

Mr. Frederic D. Fuller Will Head the Newton Y. M. C. A. the Ensuing Year

The forty-fourth annual meeting of the Newton Young Men's Christian Association was held in the hall on Monday, May 2nd. More than a hundred men sat down to the banquet at 6:30. Others came in afterwards to hear the reports and the addresses.

Music was furnished by an orchestra composed of F. E. Doubleday, S. A. Carling, Raymond Van Buskirk, Philip Horne, and Donald Cunningham. Walter Macdonald and Gordon Kenison put on a Dutch Dance which was very much enjoyed. Miss Florence Walsh was the accompanist. During the banquet there was some very fine singing led by Mr. W. S. Bruton.

President Kepner called the meeting to order and after a few well-chosen opening remarks asked for the report of the nominating committee. Mr. F. D. Fuller read the report giving the names of the retiring directors, which were Wm. E. Litchfield, L. D. Towle, James A. Stafford, A. W. Fuller, S. T. Emery, and J. W. Blaisdell. He then nominated to serve for three years, Loren D. Towle, James A. Stafford, S. T. Emery, J. W. Blaisdell, H. T. Dougherty, Walter H. Barker, Grosvenor Calkins, and Charles W. Bond. The report was accepted and the eight directors nominated were elected to serve for three years. C. V. Moore was re-elected as Clerk, and W. E. Harding as Treasurer.

The General Secretary was then called on to give a report of the year's work. He called attention to the fact that this was the 44th anniversary of the organization, and the 10th year in the new building. The present membership is 650 men and 332 boys, a total of 982. He said that 34 rooms on the 3rd floor and 4 on the second floor had been continually occupied as dormitories and that there is a waiting list which would enable us to fill another story easily. He also emphasized the work of the employment department which Mr. Bruton is so successfully conducting. Employment for 95 men and boys in the past six months has been secured, this being worth hundreds of dollars to these men, many of whom have families.

Bowling has been a very popular game at the Y. M. C. A. during the past year. There have been 50 men in the house tournament which is held the first three days of the week. The last three days of the week have been given over to general bowling and to groups of people from churches, business firms and other organizations. Our representative bowling team has won all its matches but one.

on the proposed laying out of Mason road brought forth an objection from Francis M. Wilson, while the project was favored by Mr. Garrity.

No one appeared on petitions of the Edison Co. for poles on Davis street and on petition of Otis S. Phillips to keep 250 gallons of gasoline at 50 Beacon street, Chestnut Hill, both petitions being subsequently granted.

No one opposed the petition of Edward Hines to keep and sell gasoline at 9 Needham street.

Mayor Childs' recommendation for $5265 for laying water mains was approved. He also recommended $79.65 additional for plans for proposed new fire station at Auburndale, $625 additional for observance of Memorial Day, submitted an offer from Orrin Bagley to rent land of city at Norumbega, and recommended the approval of Hammond street for underground conduits by the Edison Co.

Petitions of A. Dudley Dowd for an auctioneer license, of the Auburndale Club for pool tables and bowling alleys of the Telephone Co. for attachments on Dalby street of the Edison Co. for attachments on Cherry street and for removal of pole on Elliot street and for permits for private garages from F. J. Croft, School street, H. A. Davis, Wilbur street, E. M. Boyd, Shorncliffe road, Lucy C. Ross, Pulsifer street, George H. Brown, Mill street, George Kellar, Groveland street, G. W. Auryan, Watertown street, Byron L. Sikes, Auburndale avenue, A. H. Brown, Ridge road, and C. Peter Clark, Tyler terrace were granted.

Other petitions were received from Giovanni Geraci, Hartford street for pool room, Nicholas Toci, Oak street, pool room, Peter Durant, Bridge street, pool room, C. W. Keefe, taxicab license, Tito Passarino, for common victualler license at 1005 Chestnut street, for sidewalk on Brookside avenue, from Andrew Farrell and Giuseppe Porto for Soldiers' Relief, for various druggists for third class liquor licenses, from Ernest Nixon, Trowbridge avenue, J. B. Watt, Winchester street, Bernard J. McDonald, Pelham street and Madeline C. Borges, Nottingham street for private garages, and from O. T. Rice and others for prevention of gunning within the city limits.

A large number of common victualler licenses and licenses as lodging house keepers were also granted.

There was a long discussion over the status of a permit to keep and sell gasoline at the corner of Washington street and Commonwealth avenue originally granted to William A. Sweett and transferred by him to John Atkinson. Mr. Atkinson proposed to move the filling station some 300 feet from the corner and use it in connection with a new building he is now erecting. While no action was taken in regard to the gasoline the board subsequently refused to lay a sewer to this new building at an expense of $980.

Street sprinkling was ordered on Fredena road and ordered omitted on Webster park and Waban Hill road.

Hearings were ordered on proposed curbing on Chapel street and sidewalks on Brookside avenue.

Betterment assessments levied on account of the construction of Charlesbank road were abated one third.

Leave to withdraw was granted on claims of Delia A. Jenkins for land damages and Mrs. Dennis Foley on account of personal injuries and on petitions for licenses of Bernard L. Gallagher, for a public garage on River street, A. Mazzone Iacona & Picarello, John De Aharon, and Ernest Saras for common victualler licenses and on petition H. D. McGraw for 19 unit garage rear of the Newton Olympia Theatre.

The claim of Charles Scipione was settled for $50, sewers ordered laid in Dexter road and Bullough park, $100,000 in sewer bonds and $100,000 in Street Improvement bonds authorized, various sums approved for certain 1920 deficits, the Security Mills granted permit to enter sewer in Munroe street at grade, and $1000 appropriated for branch library equipment at Waban.

There was a long discussion over the majority report of the License committee opposing granting a common victualler license to P. Colomella at Newtonville. Alderman Morse stated that it was unfair to allow this fruit dealer to keep open on Sunday while his competitors were unable to do so. The place was not needed for a waiting room as the Street Railway Co. had a building for that purpose across the street. The applicant was not a citizen. Alderman Blake said this man had run this place for 17 years and had applied for his citizen's papers. The place should be kept open to enable citizens to purchase fruit on Sunday.

Alderman Madden said the place was used as a waiting room as the street railway room was unsanitary and not kept in order. Similar conditions existed at Newton Corner and he favored granting the license. Aldermen Cook, Lloyd, Rogers, Ross, Saltonstall and Jewell also spoke and the committee report was turned down and the license granted.

The majority report favoring granting D. F. Bardo a permit for a 5-unit garage on Washington street, West Newton met with better fate as it was unanimously approved. C. S. Decker was granted a permit for a 7-unit garage on Elmwood street, Newton.

The matter of granting a common victualler license to Peter Durant on Bridge street was recommended to the License committee.

The Finance committee reported in expedient on an item of $143.43 additional for architects' plans for proposed fire station at Auburndale.

There was some debate over an order limiting the speed of automobiles on Waban Hill road, Chestnut Hill, which residents complained was being used for testing out engines of automobile dealers. The limit was fixed at 15 miles by vote of 10 to 8 and the order adopted.

The board adjourned at 10.25.

sonary Home, the Homes of the Founders, and the Smith Estate on Centre Street. Supper was served at Bray Hall and Hasseltine House.

In the evening there was given a Pageant called "The Call and the Answer," directed by the Rev. Charles N. Arbuckle, D. D., pastor of the Newton Centre Baptist Church. The Pageant was written by Mrs. Helen B. Montgomery, president of the W. A. B. F. M. S. At the beginning of the Pageant, Heathen women passed across the stage, groping for light in the darkness. Mrs. Goodman, the Spirit of the Society, answered the call and the five Decades recounted the work done in the past 50 years. Then followed a forward look, the messengers from the different fields of missionary activity made pleas for future help among their own people. These young people, who were in their native costumes, are the special guests of the Society for the Jubilee Meetings, which are to be held all over this country. These guests are from Burma, South India, Bengal, Orissa, China, Japan, and Czechoslovakia.

The Young Ladies Choir from the Newton Centre Church furnished music, and the girls representing the World Wide Guild were the Church W. W. G. girls. The Junior Crusaders of the Church in simple regalia offered their help here at home, and the Volunteers, young ladies from Hasseltine House and surrounding colleges and hospitals, presented themselves for Foreign Service. Two tableaux, posed by Mrs. Hodges, added to the impressiveness of the Pageant. Over 1,000 people witnessed the presentation of this dramatic representation of the work of the American Baptist Women for the Women of the World.

SENIOR PLAY

Tomorrow evening in the school assembly hall at eight o'clock, the annual senior play and another play will be given by members of the senior class. This year's play, "The Rubber Key" was written by Miss Priscilla Aurelio, who is also a member of the cast. The other play, "Make Yourself at Home" was written by Miss Ruth Ayres, of the class of 1920. The plays, although rather short, will provide a very enjoyable evening. Mrs. Mills and Miss Richardson, have been busy during the past month coaching and directing the rehearsals. The final dress rehearsal will be held in the school hall tonight. Norman Foss, the manager of these plays, has engaged Mr. Carl Pawlowski and his orchestra to play for the performances, and also to the dance which is to be held in the gym immediately after the plays. Mr. Pawlowski is an excellent pianist and will give several selections during the intermission between the first and the second acts. Under the capable direction of Foss the advertising end of these plays has been carefully attended to. As is the custom, the posters made by the pupils of the school in order to advertise these plays, will be auctioned off on the night of the performances.

for boys about once a month during the winter with good attendance. The Boys' Bible Class for employed boys has been meeting on Friday evenings. A Fellowship Club for men with an average of 25 in attendance has been meeting on Monday evenings. Speakers have been drawn from all walks of life. The aim is to promote friendliness and Christian Fellowship. Mr. Bascom also called attention to the series of religious meetings conducted by Louis E. Smith during the winter months.

Social work has been in charge of Mr. D. W. Anders and attention was called to several social events which were well attended, especially the New Year's Reception. The Women's Auxiliary was praised for its co-operation during the year and for its gifts of money for boys' work in the building and the county work of Massachusetts.

In the Physical Department the attendance in the gymnasium classes has been unusually large this season. A total of 30,760 attended all the physical department activities. 175 were taught to swim, and 6 were taught life saving. Representative teams have been conducted in baseball, tennis, indoor and outdoor athletics, and in swimming. A basket ball league for the members was also very successful. The Annual Demonstration drew the usual large attendance. Attention was called to the fine leadership which Mr. Carling and his assistants, Walter Macdonald and Ray Van Buskirk had given in the class work and games.

Last Fall Mr. Doubleday was given charge of the Boys' Department and the success which has come to the boys' work has justified the appointment. The membership has jumped from 219 to 325. Educational trips have been taken to States Prison, Bunker Hill, Samoset Chocolates Co., Franklin Park, and other places of interest. A successful Debating Club of twenty boys has been meeting on Saturday evenings, a Bible Class for employed boys on Friday evenings. Parents' nights have been well attended. Game tournaments at home and with other Associations have been held. Forty boys from Boston have been entertained each week during the summer months. Good delegations of our older boys have been sent to the State Boys' Conference. A large part of the boys' work is done in conjunction with the physical department. There has been the best of co-operation, and good results have been accomplished. Ninety-eight boys attended the Frank A. Day Camp last summer. Provision has been made for additional equipment so that 80 boys can be accommodated at one time during the coming year.

During the past year the building has been used by many organizations for special events. Red Cross nursing classes, Boy Scout Athletic and Swimming Meets, Sunday School Classes, have been given the privilege of using the equipment at the building. The bowling alleys have been used by groups of young people from churches and other organizations. The Newton Constabulary Band and the Newton Community Chorus have rehearsed here each week. The Building is rapidly becoming a Community Centre. The Association's officers are glad that this is so and will welcome any group which is working for the welfare of the Community.

Both the General Secretary and the President of the Association spoke of the success of the year's work being in no small measure due to the raising of money for current expenses and improvements by a group of business men who gave so generously their time and means last October. No one connected with the Association will want to go back to the old method of raising money.

Mr. A. T. Leary, the Community Secretary, gave a very interesting report of his work on the south side of the City. This work is conducted largely in the churches and agencies already established. Gymnasium classes for boys and girls have been conducted. Skating carnivals, socials, father and son affairs, have been promoted. Perhaps most important of all is the training of boys and girls for leadership. An Older Boys' Council, 16 strong, are assisting Mr. Leary in this work.

Dr. A. G. Noehren, Physical Director for all India, was introduced and spoke for a few minutes upon conditions in India. Mr. Franklin W. Ganse was then asked to introduce the speaker of the evening, Rev. Ashley Day Leavitt of the Harvard Church, Brookline. Dr. Leavitt gave a most inspiring address which was heartily applauded by those present.

At the Directors' meeting directly following the Annual Meeting, Mr. Frederick D. Fuller was elected President of the Association and Mr. J. W. Blaisdell re-elected Vice President.

Mr. C. D. Kepner, the retiring President, has held office for the past seven years. The Community Work, the Boys' Camp, and the Annual Canvass for funds and members, are features which have developed under his leadership. He will remain on the Board of Directors at the head of the financial committee.

Mr. Kepner has won the esteem and confidence of all the members and directors while he has been in office, and they are grateful for his inspiring leadership.

On Saturday afternoon, May 7th, a tournament in pool, ping pong, and checkers between boys from the Cambridge "Y" and the Newton "Y" will take place at Newton.

Cambridge has the boy wonder of New England in pool, a young lad by the name of William Boudreau. He has cleaned up by a safe margin all competitors in Greater Boston Tournaments held lately. It will be a real treat for some of Newton's old-timers in pocket pool to watch this youngster perform.

The tournament is scheduled to start about 3 o'clock at the Newton Y. M. C. A. Boys' Division game room.

HISCOE-CRESTO

Miss Beatrice B. Cresto of Somerville and Mr. DeMerritte Allen Hiscoe of Grove street, Lower Falls, were married last Saturday at the home of the bride in Somerville, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. William H. Dyas, of that city.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with a veil caught with orange blossoms. Her twin sister, Miss Blanche B. Cresto, acted as bridesmaid. Her gown was of orchid and silver tulle. The bride carried a bouquet of bridal roses, and the bridesmaid, a bouquet of sweet peas of orchid color.

The best man was Mr. Charles Barnes of Warren, a classmate of the groom at the Normal Art School in Boston, and the ushers were Messrs. Edward A. Hart of Everett, and Frederick D. McCarthy of Roxbury, a cousin of the bride.

After a wedding trip South Mr. and Mrs. Hiscoe will live at Rockland, Mass.

BOY SCOUTS, TROOP 6

The members of Troop 6, B. S. A., are busily engaged in plans for their entertainment to be given in Stearns School Hall on Wednesday evening, May 13.

A special program is being arranged and will include as a feature a new play entitled "On the Ohio." This play deals with the humorous adventures of a Scout Troop in the famous "Ohio Region" out on the edge of Dover, Mass., where our troop is planning the erection of a Scout Cabin on the acre of land recently allotted them by the New England Council.

During the play various Scout demonstrations will be given of fire-making without matches, camp cooking, first aid emergency work, signaling, and other work.

Dancing will follow the entertainment, and the music for it will be furnished by Onthank's Orchestra of five pieces, including the Balala Ma band. This is the only musical instrument of its kind in New England and is its third appearance in public.

Dancing fans will be well satisfied with it, we are sure. The proceeds of the entertainment and dance will be devoted to the interests of Troop 6, Boy Scouts of America.

BOY SCOUTS, TROOP 7

The scouts of Troop 7, ushered at the reception in honor of their Scout Master, Mr. Harlan D. Crowell and Mrs. Crowell at the Second Church entertainment room at their last meeting.

Scout Master Smith called the Troop together and the boys were presented in a body to Mr. and Mrs. Crowell. The parents of the boys and the friends of Mr. Crowell in the Church were then presented to Rev. and Mrs. J. Edgar Park and Mr. and Mrs. Crowell. Mr. Park, after an extremely humorous speech, presented Mr. Crowell with a handsome purse of gold, after which refreshments were served.

Mr. Ernest Dow tonight accepts the position as Assistant Scout Master in our Troop. The troop is exceptionally fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Dow as he is extremely interested in boys and will devote some time to out of door work and is particularly desirous of holding the troop together in the summer time. Troop 7 hopes to have a Court of Honor next Friday evening.

ANNUAL CONVENTION

The Annual Convention of the Norwedge District Sunday School Association will be held in the First Baptist Church of Waltham, Wednesday afternoon and evening, May 11th, starting at 4.45 P. M.

There will be a number of new features to the Convention this year. One of these will be one-half minute reports from each of the Superintendents in the District, telling of the most interesting phases of the work of their own school during the past year. Another will be the reading of all people residing in the District, who have at any time attended the Summer Schools at Northfield.

The evening session will be presided over by Hon. Thomas Weston, Jr. and the address given by Dr. Herbert W. Gates.

RED CROSS WORKERS

The American Red Cross is calling upon the women of this Country, particularly the hundreds of thousands who served in its Chapter and Branch workrooms during the days of the World War, to mobilize again in a nation-wide sewing circle for the greatest production campaign since before the Armistice.

The purpose of the campaign is to provide garments and layettes for as many of the hundreds of thousands of helpless children and babies in Central Europe as possible, many of them now clad in meagre rags and even newspapers.

Mr. Hoover is feeding them; the Red Cross, through its Child Welfare units, must clothe them. We have authentic information that the need is appalling.

Newton Women: Will You Help? Newton's quota is 2500 garments, 500 layettes.

The need is for various kinds of garments: For children one to five years old, dresses, petticoats, undershirts, nightgowns. From girls five to fourteen years old, dresses, chemises, petticoats, bloomers, nightgowns. For boys five to fourteen years old, blouse suits, undershirts, winter undershirts, nightshirts.

Garments may be made from used wearing apparel, of every description, remnant and odds and ends, bed clothing, portieres, curtains—anything that ingenuity can convert into a garment.

Layettes also may be made from used materials.

Newton's plan will be announced in next week's Graphic.

NEWTON CLUB

An annual meeting of the Newton Club was held Saturday evening at the Clubhouse. The treasurer's report showed a very gratifying financial condition. Reports were submitted by the chairmen of the house bowling, entertainment, athletic, dinner, and membership committees, following which the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Henry J. Nichols; Vice-Presidents, Fred E. Mann, Charles E. Riley, Wm. J. Follett, A. P. Carter, C. W. Ryder; Secretary, H. S. Allen; Treasurer, F. M. Grant; Directors, R. C. Thompson, L. B. Hunter, H. R. Bankart, F. W. Woodcock, R. D. Hunting, H. R. Nash, G. A. Savage, R. V. Collins, D. M. Rust, F. C. Bassett, G. B. Woodcock, F. S. Arend and G. W. Tyler.

After the annual meeting the executive committee met and made the following appointments for the year: House Committee, R. C. Thompson, chairman, L. B. Hunter and H. R. Bankart. The following were elected chairmen of the different committees: Bowling, F. W. Woodcock; Entertainment, R. D. Hunting; Cards, H. R. Nash; Billiards, G. A. Savage; Athletics, R. V. Collins; Dinner, C. H. Simonds; Auditing, F. C. Bassett; Publicity, G. B. Woodcock; Membership, F. S. Arend; Reception, C. W. Tyler; Finance, C. W. Ryder; Legal, A. P. Carter.

MR. WEBBER KILLED

Mr. Frank W. Webber, a well known resident of Hunnewell hill, was struck by an automobile while in Danbury, Conn., last Monday night and instantly killed. The motorist drove away after striking Mr. Webber and is unknown.

Mr. Webber has been away from home for a few months travelling the South and more recently hunting in the Catskills and it is supposed that he had gone to Danbury for trout fishing.

Mr. Webber was born in Beverly in 1851 and was a graduate of the High School there. For a number of years he was connected with the Whiting-Adams Company, brush manufacturers, retiring some ten years ago. He was a member of the Country Society, the 20th Century and Hunnewell Clubs, and the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanic Association.

He is survived by his widow, two sons, John W. and Wallis W. Webber, and one daughter, Mrs. Frank P. Schofield.

Funeral services are being held today from his late home, 11 Washington street, Newton.

EASTERN STAR

A very pretty party was held last week at Temple Hall, Newtonville, under the auspices of the Eastern Star, Mrs. Harry B. Ross, Chairman.

Mrs. Isabelle Wilson, Worthy Matron, and Mr. Alfred Allen, Worthy Patron, led the grand march. The costumes were of such exceptional merit that it was very difficult for the judges to decide among them.

Prizes were awarded to Miss Minnie Gorse, Columbia, Mrs. Charlotte Mansfield as Fashion, Mr. Myron Carson as George Washington, Mr. Alfred Allen as a Dutch Boy. Honorable mention should also be made of Mr. Gerald Vedren as a Cow Boy, Mr. Harry Twig as a Colonial Dame, Mrs. Edna Cunningham as a Little Girl, Miss Grace Paul as a Little Girl, and Mrs. Isabelle Wilson as a Dutch Maiden.

Haffenehl's orchestra furnished the music. During the evening light refreshments were served. About one hundred were present.

HOTEL WESTMINSTER

That public approval has been so thoroughly stamped on the Hotel Westminster in all of its departments is evidenced by the steadily increasing patronage of not only the younger element but heads of families who go to the Westminster with noticeable regularity and are accompanied by their sons and daughters.

Mr. Coulon, the proprietor, has achieved the success he deserves in this well-conducted hotel. At all times the entertainment provided here is refined and pleasing, while the well-earned reputation of the product of the hotel's kitchen is such as to make those who know how to dine well reserve their tables in advance. Either in the Winter Garden, Rotisserie Grill or main dining rooms, the food and service are of a superior order and are not excelled anywhere.

THE NEWTON CIRCLE

The Newton Circle, Inc., held its Annual Meeting, Friday, April 29, at the home of Miss Helen F. Hull, 29 Ivanhoe street, with 60 members present.

Mr. Herbert G. Parsons, Deputy Probation Officer for Massachusetts talked of the benefits of Probation over the old system of arrest and imprisonment and of the value of women probation officers, and spoke of Newton as a pioneer city in installing a woman in that office. Other speakers were Mr. Eugene of the Newton Court, and Mrs. Celia Wellman, assistant probation officer and social worker for the Newton Circle. Mrs. Wellman stated that the courtroom is similar in nature to a hospital, only instead of dealing with broken limbs it deals with broken lives and broken hearts, and said that many mothers have been able to reclaim their children through the probation system that extension of which she urged.

The Newton Circle will conduct five open air concerts at various community centres during the summer in addition to its other activities.

After the meeting a light lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed.

The following officers were elected: president, Mr. John T. Lodge; honorary vice-president, Mrs. Geo. S. Harwood, Mrs. E. B. Haskell; vice-presidents, Mrs. C. Peter Clark, Miss Helen F. Hull; recording secretary, Mrs. Geo. M. Angier; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Harry N. Milliken; treasurer, Mrs. Wm. J. Champion; assistant treasurer, Mrs. D. Morley Lodge; directors, Mrs. Frank A. Day, Mrs. Sydney Harwood, Mrs. Geo. B. King, Mrs. Marcus Morton, Mrs. Herbert G. Pratt, Mrs. J. P. R. Sherman, Mrs. J. C. Taber, Mrs. John McKee, social worker, Mrs. Celia Wellman.

D. A. R. MEETING

Mrs. S. F. Emery of Randolph road Newton Highlands, was the hostess for the meeting of the Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapter of the D. A. R. held on Friday last.

The regent, Miss Annie S. Head, had just returned from Washington, D. C., and she gave a very glowing account of the wonderful meetings that she had attended.

A most interesting paper was read by Miss Anna S. Thompson entitled "Aristocratic Dames of Colonial Times," it was written by Mrs. Harry Deacon of Somerville and gave very fascinating accounts of Madams Royal, Vassall and Hancock as well as Katharine Schuyler, Martha Custis and Lady Wentworth. The account of the love affairs of the last two dames caused much amusement and it was voted to send a letter of thanks to the writer for her entertaining as well as patriotic paper.

A sum was voted to the West Newton Music School "to aid the school to take advantage of its opportunity for service that will help raise the standard of citizenship in this community."

This surely is in accord with the aim of our Chapter to carry on in all lines of patriotic work.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the sixteenth day of May, A. D. 1921, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twentieth day of April in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

Entered at the Post-office at Boston, Mass., as second-class matter, May 1, 1910. Single Copies, 7 Cents.

The debate in the board of aldermen Monday night over the granting of a common victualler license to enable a fruit dealer to legally keep open his place of business on Sunday, on the pretence that the store is used as a waiting room for street railway passengers, ought to convince any fair minded man that there is something wrong somewhere. The common victualler subterfuge to enable persons to do their regular business on Sunday has continued long enough and ought to be stopped. There is plenty of law on the statute books to have this convenience to the travelling public continued in a proper manner, but to attempt to say that a fruit dealer is a "common victualler" when it is well known that common victualler licenses are, or should be limited to restaurants, and lunch rooms is childish.

UNDER THE GILDED DOME

The bill to repeal the excise tax on street railways which was defeated last week, was subsequently reconsidered and a new bill relieving the railway companies from this tax for a period of two years was acted upon favorably.

Representative Rice of this city was in the limelight for a brief period on Monday when he made a statement before the El investigating committee virtually attacking former governor Coolidge and former Speaker Warner for their attitude on the purchase of the Cambridge subway. It was the general impression about the State House that the attitude taken by Mr. Rice was unwise to say the least.

Middlesex County members had an interesting conference on Monday with Dr. Arthur W. Gilbert, the commissioner of Agriculture for the state. Dr. Gilbert gave some astonishing facts about the food conditions in Massachusetts. Few people realize how near the "starvation line" we are. Our supply of hogs will last us about a week. Beef for one or two weeks. Eggs and poultry, two or three weeks. Potatoes three weeks and other staples accordingly. In the event of a nation wide tieup of our transportation facilities, Massachusetts would be in a very bad way. Dr. Gilbert criticized the market facilities in Boston as crude and expensive and called attention to the added cost on the consumer for every unnecessary handling of food products. He gave but little hope for lessened costs in food products as the West is now losing its original fertility of soil and must now use fertilizers thus adding to the cost of production. Western farmers, are also he said, now in co-operative associations to regulate the supply and price of farm produce, and these factors, together with the greatly added cost of transportation will keep up the price to the consumer for a long time in the future. He urged legislation which would induce a return to the farm here in Massachusetts.

Newton residents who are interested in the censorship of moving pictures will rejoice over the action of the House on Thursday in passing the bill to a third reading by a vote of 150 to 50. It will be recalled, however, that a similar measure passed both branches last year and was vetoed by Gov. Coolidge.

An interesting situation has arisen regarding the sale of intoxicating liquors by druggists on certificate or prescription of physicians. Through some confusion in the minds of the Recess committee of last year regarding the certificates issued by the State Board of Pharmacy, one certificate formerly issued by that board has become ineffective, and as a result, it will be necessary for the local druggists to obtain a third-class liquor license from the city authorities in order to allow them to dispense liquors on prescription.

NEW MASONIC LODGE

en dinner was served in the banquet hall where a most delightful hour was spent. The Constellation String Quartette furnished appropriate music during the dinner hour that was much enjoyed by those present.

At seven, Worshipful Master Fred M. Blanchard and members of Norumbega Lodge, U. D., held a short business session prior to the Constitution Ceremonies. At 8 P. M. Wor. F. M. Blanchard, accompanied by Wor. W. S. Osborne, S. W., and Wor. W. L. McCammon, J. W., visited the Grand Master and officers in an adjoining apartment and announced that the New Lodge was ready to be constituted.

After a very short time the M. W. Grand Master and officers were announced and the interesting ceremony was on. The Constitution of a Lodge very interesting and most impressive, the ceremony being superbly conducted by the Grand Master and Grand Lodge Officers, while appropriate musical selections at the proper time were rendered by the Apollo Quartet.

After the Constitution the Grand Master assisted by the Grand Lodge Officers installed the officers of the new lodge as follows:

Wor. Fred M. Blanchard, W. M. Wor. William S. Osborne, S. W. Wor. Walter L. McCammon, J. W. Christian Peterson, Treasurer, Bancroft L. Goodwin, Secretary, Rev. Mellyar H. Lichter, Chaplain, Luther G. Eastman, Marshal, Gerald F. Zedren, S. D., Alfred N. Miner, Jr., J. D., John M. Knudsen, S. S., Robert Douglas, J. S., Raymond Beal Tompkins, I. S., Kenneth Shaw Usher, Organist, Elwyn E. Snyder, Tyler.

The Grand Master gave a very interesting and helpful talk on Brotherhood that was most enthusiastically received. The Grand Master then introduced Rev. Bro. Lichter, who expressed to Worshipful Master Blanchard the deep appreciation of the members of Norumbega Lodge for the splendid way in which he guided the new lodge through its year of preparation, winning for it the charter and good will and wishes of the Grand Lodge.

The new Lodge was then presented a piece of marble taken from the quarries near Jerusalem where the stones for King Solomon's Temple were taken. A short musical program rounded out a very interesting and important occasion in the history of Norumbega Lodge.

THOMAS-PETERS

Miss Victoria Esabell Peters of Beacon street, Newton Centre, was married last week Thursday to Mr. John S. Thomas of Boston. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward T. Sullivan at Trinity Church.

The bride wore a gown of white georgette trimmed with silver beads, with a head dress trimmed with orange blossoms and pearl beads, and a veil trimmed with silver. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. The maid of honor, Miss Beatrice Myers, and the bridesmaid, Miss Cassie Myers, wore gowns of pink silk trimmed with silver and carried bouquets of pink carnations.

The best man was Mr. John B. Samuda, and the usher, Mr. Albert Samuda. The Misses Doris and Almira Samuda were flower girls and Mr. Lucius Baker was the ring bearer.

A reception at the home of Miss A. A. Richards of Centre street followed the ceremony at the church. The house was tastefully decorated with white and pink ribbons and flowers.

After a wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will live in West Newton.

OLD RESIDENT DEAD

Mr. Richard J. Murphy, a resident of this city for the past fifty years, died last week Friday at his home on Thornton street, Newton, following an illness of ten days.

Mr. Murphy was 70 years of age and has been engaged in business as an expressman in this city for many years. Earlier in life he was in the Ordnance Dept. of the U. S. Army and was stationed at the Watertown Arsenal. Mr. Murphy was a widower without children.

Funeral services were held last Monday morning at the Church of Our Lady, at Newton, and there were many floral tributes including one sent by the business men of Newton. The burial was at Holyhood Cemetery. Mr. Murphy made many friends during his long service in this community and he will be greatly missed.

W. C. T. U.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Roger Wolcott School

The Roger Wolcott School baseball team defeated Troop 7, Boy Scouts, in their first of the two-out-of-three series on last Tuesday afternoon, by a large score at the Wolcott playground. Harry Thayer pitched his first game for the Roger Wolcott School, Malcolm Hill, the Captain, being saved for the next League game.

In the College game series held during recess period, Williams has won first place, West Point second, Harvard third, and Princeton fourth. A new series begins this week.

A Field Day is to be held on May 14th, in which the boys and girls of the school, together with their fathers and mothers will participate. The field events will be run by Mr. Haasler Capron, our playground instructor, while a committee of girls from the upper grades will take charge of the tables and a committee of boys is taking care of the entries in the different events. A father and son ball game will be one of the special features of the day.

Horace Mann School

On May fourth the upper grades of the Horace Mann School held exercises in the hall to commemorate the birth of the great educator in whose honor the school was named. The chief events of his life as a statesman, lawyer, and public benefactor were given in brief summaries. Other parts of the program consisted of selections from his writings. Those taking part in the program were Philip Ahearn, Harold Green, William Blakeney, Mae Horrigan, Katherine Kiley, John Mullen, Emily Dunleavy, Herbert Dell, Constance Harrington, Erling Bearisto, Norman Dow, Anna Deagle and Warren Barry.

Mason School

On Friday the eighth grade had a social time in the Mason hall, planned for by some of the mothers. For over an hour the boys and girls had a good time dancing, and then ice cream and cake were served.

Monday afternoon the children of the third grade, room one, gave the play "The White Mice," to the rest of the building.

It was greatly enjoyed by all. The Mason baseball team and the sophomores of the Newton High played on Tuesday. While the Sophs won in the tenth inning, the game was not a bad one for the Masons, the score being 10-9. Last Thursday the High School freshmen won from the Masons, 14-7. But these are not league games.

The first league game, played last week, with the Bigelows was won by the Masons 13-11. The next game in the series comes Tuesday, May 10, with the Stearns.

Stearns School

The Stearns baseball team decisively defeated the nine representing the Horace Mann School in a practice game played on Cabot Park, Tuesday afternoon by the score of 11-2. Pass pitched exceptionally well for Stearns but also received brilliant support from his infield, J. Lyman and Butler on numerous occasions preventing runs being scored. Lo Chialto, of Stearns in centre field, made the most exciting and spectacular play of the game when he grabbed a liner from the bat of Gilligan while running at full speed. It was a sensational catch. Stearns is looking forward to a victory over Bigelow School next Thursday.

An attractive program was given at a musical for the Mothers' Club on Monday evening, May 2nd. Piano solos were rendered by Haddon White; a series of songs given by Edna Louise Banks, and violin selections were given by Katherine Stone. Miss Gertrude Perry gave readings from Kipling and Hobart. After the program, the club discussed further plans for the rummage sale to be held at Stearns School on Saturday, May 14th, at 2 P. M.

The monthly business meeting of the Girls' Club was held on Tuesday evening, May 3rd. The President, Anna Morrison, conducted the meeting, presenting plans for initiation on May 17th and for the organization of a baseball team for spring practice. The club was addressed by Miss Tetlow of Boston, who spoke on business possibilities for salaried women.

Lasell

A large number of girls went on the annual trip to Plymouth last Monday. Sight seeing cars conveyed the party. It was an altogether delightful outing, every moment filled with historic interest.

On Wednesday evening a pupils' recital was given before an audience which filled the gymnasium to its capacity. There was an unusually fine program rendered consisting of selections for organ, piano, voice and violin. It was the last regular pupils' recital with the exception of the Commencement Concert which will take place on the evening of June 1st.

With a Bohemian party and dance in Gardner gymnasium the senior class is entertaining the juniors this evening. The affair is in charge of Miss Dorothy Shove, the senior president.

Miss Riddle, superintendent of nurses at the Newton Hospital, is to be the speaker at the Saturday lecture hour on Saturday morning.

There is a large number of entries for field day which takes place on Wednesday evening at the Riverside Athletic grounds.

There will be competition in 100 yard dash, standing broad jump, javelin and ball throwing, hurdle race, and individual there is strong class competition.

Mrs. Irving Palmer, whose illness prevented her from coming two weeks ago, is to give her lecture for the hope chest at the Episcopal Church Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. The Lasell students have been invited to meet Mrs. Palmer and this will take the place of the usual Sunday vespers.

Miss Nell Woodward, a member of the faculty, is to chaperon a party of Lasell girls abroad this summer. They will sail June 18 from Montreal on the S. S. Cassandra and will be gone until the first of September.

Newton Classical High

Last Friday evening at the Brookline High School our debating team defeated Brookline, and on the same night here at our hall our debaters defeated Brookline's other team. Both decisions were unanimous for Newton. The officers for the occasion at Newton were as follows: Presiding Officer, J. Weston Allen, Esq., Attorney General of Massachusetts; Board of Judges, Dr. Francis K. Ball, Dr. A. H. Keyes, and Alexander W. Murray, Esq. As a reward for their victories Newton has been awarded a shield. At the close of the debate a dance was held in the gym and it proved to be one of the best dances of the year.

With the exception of one man, Newton will have the same teams next year. It is hardly necessary to say any more.

The monthly meeting of the senior class was held last Monday in the lecture hall. President Blodgett announced that the senior dance is to be held in Bray Hall on the night of May 14. This dance is open to the public. He also told the class that the senior party which is to take place on the night of graduation, June 18, will be held at the Stimpson's estate at Chestnut Hill and that the party will be for seniors only. Before the close of the meeting the members of the class voted to put a full page ad in this year's "Newtonian."

Monday, at Medford, Newton completely swamped their opponents by the score of 23 to 2. "Emie" Murphy is again back in the box and pitched the whole of this game. On Wednesday at Clafin Field, Newton again defeated Rindge with the score of 9 to 2. Tomorrow at Everett, another victory will be added to Newton's list because if you remember, Everett was completely overwhelmed by Newton on the 19th of April.

Mr. Underwood, the head of the English Department, has been ill during the past two weeks and at present is in Jaffrey, N. H., recovering from his illness.

Burr School

The Burr team played the Weston Grammar School Team on Tuesday and won, score 11-4.

The 8th grades are considering a trip to Boston next week to see "The Merchant of Venice" at the Copley Theatre. They are studying the play in the 8th grade.

One of the 8th grades have won a wager which gives them a whole day's program of fun. The wager was won by every member, having his required home work done in the prescribed way, and at the prescribed time.

On the sale of the April Echo the graduating class raised almost $25 for their class party.

MT. HOLYOKE ALUMNAE DINE

After reviewing what other colleges have been able to accomplish through their campaigns and also the various needs of Mt. Holyoke, Miss Putnam mentioned different things which have impressed her as a graduate from another institution, at Mt. Holyoke, a certain evenness of development of all its departments; the large proportion of faculty to the number of students, so that faculty have time for productive work of their own. She is proud of the scholarship which Mt. Holyoke graduates have maintained when studying later at other institutions. In summing up, Miss Putnam said that Mary Lyon gave America the idea of the endowed institution for girls and it is unthinkable that we alone of all the colleges should fail.

The next speaker, Dr. William E. Strong of Newtonville, reviewed the work of some of the Mount Holyoke graduates he has known, and expressed the opinion that the institution, whose characteristic spirit is that of service, deserves to be helped, because it has gone out to help.

Mrs. Philip Warren of Waban, an alumna, told of what she herself and what she considers other girls get out of college. The doors which are opened in the four years, never are quite shut 'n after life. "Wherever Mt. Holyoke women are today, there the spirit of Mt. Holyoke lives and shall live forever."

Mr. Charles A. Andrews of Waban, the closing speaker, urged upon the alumnae that they are doing a much bigger task than merely making things convenient at South Hadley. It is not a different one from that of Mary Lyon and it will meet with success if the alumnae put into it some small friction of the spirit which she showed. "Your task of getting the remaining $200,000 does not begin to compare with the $27,000 which Mary Lyon raised. She was weak and poor, she gave of herself that others might become strong and in turn contribute to the needs of their times."

The quota of the various districts was reported, the total for the whole city approximating $25,000. Miss McGill reported that already seven alumnae had pledged themselves to "give-or-lose" their respective $305, and two others present added their pledges. The chairmen in the local communities are: Anburndale, Mrs. Wilbur D. Gilpatrick; Newton, Miss Grace M. Furt; Newtonville, Miss McGill; West Newton, Mrs. Henry B. Day; Newton Centre, Mrs. W. H. Timble; Newton Highlands, Miss Elizabeth Welker; Waban, Mrs. Herbert S. Kimball.

Among those present were: Mrs. Orlando Mason, Judge and Mrs. Robert F. Raymond, Mr. Henry B. Day, Mr. and Mrs. G. Norman Bankart, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Timble, Dr. and Mrs. Edward S. Niles, Jr. and Mrs. Charles W. Henderson.

BRAE BURN CLUB

At the ladies' tournament held at the Brae Burn Club this week between Brae-Burn and the County Club Brae-Burn won with a score of 7 to 0. In the W. G. A. team series Brae-Burn now stands second with a score of 6 games won and 1 lost.

The match at Brae-Burn on May 23 between Brae-Burn and Providence may settle the race in this series of games.

MILK LOWER

Dr. N. C. Davis of H. P. Hood & Sons, said last Sunday night:

"Beginning tomorrow morning, the price of H. P. Hood & Sons' milk to the consumer will be 15¢ cents a quart, and this price will obtain throughout May and June. This reduction in price is the fifth we have made since the first of this year and is three cents less than the peak price that prevailed on January 1. Owing to a lessening in the cost of feed for their cattle, our farmers have been able to reduce the price of milk to us one-quarter of a cent a quart, and we are gladly giving our customers the benefit of even this slight concession. Our other expenses have not decreased and the largest of these, Labor, is still at the highest point in the history of our business. Any further concessions made to us we will gladly pass along to our customers, and they will receive also such further reductions as our lessened expenses enable us to make from time to time."

REAL ESTATE

Edmonds & Byfield report the sale of the property 26-28 Oakland street, Newton, for Lealia A. Collins of Sharon, Mass., to Roland F. Gammons, and Charles J. A. Wilson, Trustees of the Newton Estates Trust. The new owners purchase for investment. Property consists of two-family dwelling, and 3000 sq. ft. of land, all valued at $5000. The same property was sold for a lot of land containing 5500 sq. ft. on Waverley avenue, Newton, for Charles F. Jones of Newton, Mass., to Edith D. Strohmeier, also of Newton. The new owner intends to erect a dwelling for her own occupancy.

The same brokers also report the sale of a tract of land on Shorncliffe road, Newton, for the Parlow Hill Land Trust, to Ernest M. Boyd of Newton Centre. This tract contains nearly one acre of land, and is valued at $10,000. Mr. Boyd intends to improve this property with high-grade single dwellings.

CLASS REUNION

Despite the inclement weather on Saturday night, the first reunion of the class of 1919, Burr School, was held in the school hall with practically the entire class present. This is the first time that any class at the school has held a reunion and for this reason more than usual interest was attached to the affair.

Principal Leighton and his wife, with the Misses Daly and Kingman, teachers, were invited guests of the evening, and the early part of the evening was spent in renewing friendships between faculty and former pupils. Mrs. Ralph Fox, Mrs. Timothy Fowler and Mrs. Obermeyer were patronesses of the evening.

Mr. Leighton spoke to the class and expressed his pleasure at having them come back to the school once again. He said that many other classes had spoken to him of having reunions, but that the class of 1919 was the first to really hold such an affair. President Raphael Fox of the class also made a brief address in which he revived the history of the class and told of the pleasure of the graduates of coming together once again. Singing the class commencement songs was one of the features of the evening. Dancing followed, lasting until eleven o'clock.

Success in a Nutshell.

IT WILL HELP NEWTON AND NEWTON PEOPLE

Mortgage money is very scarce and hard to find. There is a strong, active demand for it by people who want to buy or build in Newton. This bank is helping to the full extent its resources permit. It could do more if more Newton people would deposit their savings here. There is a lot of savings account money, owned by Newton people, but deposited in out of town banks. Some of it is caught in closed banks. We urge you to keep your savings here where they will be safe, ready when wanted and helping Newton people:

LEAVES FOR THE WEST INDIES

Last evening, Mr. S. A. Colpitts, Vice President of the Colpitts-Boeckman Tourist Co., Boston, Mass., accompanied by his wife and party of friends, left Boston on the midnight train for New York from where they will leave via the palatial steamer "Pastores" of the United Fruit Co. for a comprehensive tour of the West Indies and Central America, stopping en route at Havana, Cuba, and Colon, C. Z., and Port Limon, Costa Rica. From Port Limon, the party will make a trip into the interior through the Mountains to San Jose, Capital of Costa Rica.

Mr. Colpitts is interested in arranging summer cruises by the United Fruit Co. to the West Indies so the trip will be an educational one as well as a vacation.

Before boarding the train Mr. Colpitts made known the fact that the United Fruit Co. is embarking upon an advertising campaign to bring before the American traveling public the fact that cruises through the West Indies to the quaint Central American republics are just as delightful during the summer months as the winter ones. Owing to weather conditions being uniform throughout the year travelers need not be afraid of taking one of these enjoyable Caribbean sea trips during the summer season.

The party expect to return about May 22nd.

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE

Ninety-five per cent of the community who are inconvenienced by housing conditions are themselves responsible because they lack the ambition to protect themselves in time. They have an idea that others must provide for them. The same condition is true of those individuals who find themselves wanting in case of accident and old age. They fail to provide themselves with a Monthly Income Insurance Policy. Please call or phone for particulars.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

Newton club women will be interested to know that the New England Conference of the State Federations of the six New England states will meet, by invitation of the Vermont Federation of Women's Clubs, at Middlebury on the 7th and 8th of September, just following Labor Day. While this may seem a long time off and be almost too suggestive of saddling on the club responsibilities just as they are gladly laying them down, it is none too early to begin thinking about it and considering, if it may not be possible to be there. Everyone who attended the one held at the Profile House, N. H., last September felt sure that good could readily be accomplished by making more of this conference. Why not boom this meeting in Vermont as a bit of a post-vacation and the first club appointment of the next season? Few if any from this city will attend the Council meeting at Salt Lake and the next Biennial does not come until the end of another season, so why not take this little trip in 1921? No one will regret it.

State Federation

Plymouth is calling Federation enthusiasts for May 24, 25 and 26. Everyone will want to go to Plymouth sometime during this Ter-centenary period, why not make the Federation the time? The meeting will open on Tuesday evening, May 24, proceeding immediately to business with the usual reports of officers and special committees. Wednesday will be given up to department reports, the election, and other business. There will be a get-together luncheon at noon. A speaker of reputation is being secured to bring the inspirational message on Wednesday evening, and there will be the usual social reception tendered by the hostess club. Thursday forenoon will close up the business and reports, and the delegates will move homeward early in the afternoon.

Presidents' Club

Newton members of the Presidents' Club of Boston, will attend in good numbers the annual luncheon of the club next Thursday afternoon at Hotel Vendome, for their own Mrs. Irving O. Palmer will be co-mistress. An interesting feature of the occasion will be the presence of the presidents of the six New England state federations and the officers of the New England Conference, the chairman of which, Mrs. Herbert J. Gurney, is also the president of the Presidents' Club. Tickets must be secured by applying to Mrs. A. W. Toppan, 6 Lakeview road, Winchester, not later than May 9th. Seats will be reserved in the order of application.

The Newton Hospital Aid Association and the Newton Hospital Social Service League will hold their annual meeting at the New Church Parlor, Highland avenue, Newtonville, Tuesday, May 10th, 1921, at 10:00 A. M. to hear reports and to elect officers, and to transact any other business. At 11:30, address by Dr. W. R. MacCausland. Subject, "Posture and Its Relation to Health." A buffet lunch will follow.

Local Happenings

At the annual meeting of the Newton Highlands Shakespeare Club held on April 30, the following officers were elected for 1921-1922: President, Mrs. H. W. Drew; vice-president, Mrs. W. J. Bicknell; secretary, Mrs. F. S. Keith; treasurer, Mrs. F. H. Stratton; auditor, Miss Alberta J. Crombie; executive committee, Miss Edith McCann, Mrs. F. S. Keith, Miss Marian White.

The annual meeting of the Newton Community Club opened with a song by the club's chorus, "Come Sweet Morn." After the records of the previous meeting and a few announcements, Miss Katherine L. Stone rendered several violin selections, with Mrs. M. L. Madden at the piano. The annual reports of the officers, which followed, showed the club to be in fine condition with $600 in the membership roll and $1218.17 as a balance in the treasury.

Mrs. Ralph C. Henry, chairman of the Conservation stated that through her department the club had joined the Massachusetts Forestry Association, that it has been following legislation and endorsed the amendment to the national water-power act and two state bills relative to coal. The study class has met through the winter and studied "Water as the Basis of Life." She also presented for action a resolution requesting the Legislative departments of both State and General Federation, to include in their legislative program next year the Snell bill now before the Congress, which looks to the reforestation of waste land. The resolution was unanimously adopted. The Home Economics committee through its chairman Mrs. Sidney Peterson, reported work jointly with the Civics and Education committees towards securing adequate medical inspection in the public schools. Members of her department under supervision of the Massachusetts Consumers' League have made an inspection of local bakeries. Mrs. Frank P. Scofield reported the present status of the various legislative matters, which the club has endorsed.

At the annual meeting one year ago the club voted $240 for various philanthropic objects. This year the following appropriations were passed: Welfare Bureau, $25; Newton Hospital, $25; Pomroy Home, $25; West Newton Home, $25; Newton Y. M. C. A., $25; Stone Institute, $20; Stearns School Centre, $20; Newton District Nursing Association, $20; Newton Circle, $15; Francis Jewett Repertory Theatre Club, $25; Chinese Famine Fund, $25; Near East, $25; Madame Curie, $25; Endowment Fund of the State Federation, $50; a total of $550.

Several selections by the chorus were interspersed among the reports, which relieved the tension and added greatly to the pleasure of the afternoon.

The following list of officers was unanimously elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Sidney Peterson; vice-presidents, Mrs. W. H. Mitchell, Miss Sally A. Cutler, Mrs. Royal Corbett Warring; recording secretary, Mrs. Aldrich Taylor; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William W. Colton; treasurer, Miss Emma E. Walker; auditor, Miss Margaret Aubin; directors for two years, Mrs. Loren D. Towle, Mrs. Howard M. Fletcher.

Miss Jessie M. Fisher presented on behalf of the club a bouquet of beautiful roses to Mrs. Franklin E. Smith, as a token of the appreciation of her tactful and efficient launching of the club, and to the incoming president, Mrs. Peterson, a bunch of sweet peas as a welcome to her new office.

At the close the members adjourned to the room below for a social hour, where refreshments were served under the direction of Miss Sally Cutler of the Social Committee. Mrs. Ralph C. Henry, Mrs. Frank P. Scofield, Miss Edith Jamieson and Miss Grace M. Burt presided over the tea table.

Newton Federation

There is nothing like the annual meeting of the Newton Federation to give a stranger in our midst an all-around idea of what club work is being done throughout the city, for here is brought together a survey of all that has gone on through the year. Under the direction of Mrs. S. Hardy Mitchell, the president, on Tuesday, the business was put through with dispatch and the reports kept down to time limit, as is proper, no matter how much the delegates might have desired to hear more from the various reports. A new feature added the past year is committee on the Conservation of Natural Resources and the Federation was exceedingly fortunate to secure for its leader, Mrs. Fred H. Tucker, an expert in all phases of the subject. Several new local committees have been formed in the clubs through the influence of this department, and a considerable interest has been aroused in this vital subject through the study class to which delegates from any Newton club were eligible. Besides trying to become informed upon the vital points through this study class, the committee has followed legislation, the most recent action being the endorsement of the Snell bill.

The Civics and Social Service committee through its acting chairman, Mrs. H. V. Jones, reported the removal of the Dental Clinic to the corner of Washington and Walnut streets and that it will hereafter be open daily from 9:30 to 4. Attention of the committee has been focussed upon the Bureau of Household Occupations. Financially it has been about half self-supporting and would have been much more so had it not been so hard to collect from the employers. Mrs. Jones expressed high appreciation of the work of the secretary, Mrs. Seaver.

Of the activities of the Education committee that of the prize essays on "The Pilgrims" offered to high school students, may be mentioned as the central thing, but the committee has also assisted in planning the training class for the Bureau of Household Occupations. Mrs. Abbott reported the review of the department, endorsed and watched by her department, and told of their present status. Once more the reports sent in from the individual clubs which make up the Federation were summarized by Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden, than whom no one could be found who would better preserve the spirit of their work and at the same time make it spicy and entertaining.

The reports from the affiliated organizations were as always full of interest. The District Nursing Association, the Hospital Aid, the Social Service League, the Welfare Bureau, the W. C. T. U., the Women's Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A., and the Mothers' Rest.

A delicious luncheon was served under the direction of the Social Committee, Mrs. Willard Sampson, chairman.

The afternoon session songs by Miss Florence Hale, of Newton Centre, charmed all who heard her and in the address on "Community Consciousness" by Rev. M. H. Lichter, the delegates found much food for reflection, much of encouragement and great stimulation. A community consciousness, he defined, as the ability to look at one's life steadily and its shadows; to the phrase "My country right or wrong," he would add, "May she be always right." That this may be so, one must be willing to admit defects, be ready to be told what they are and to try to have them corrected. A liberal outlook is necessary in order to achieve this community consciousness, and to be a liberal one must be able to project one's self sympathetically into others' points of view and into the various agencies working in the community. We must particularly in this city learn to think in terms of all-Newton. The person who has succeeded in sinking his personality in the good of the whole, that person has achieved "community consciousness."

These officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. S. Hardy Mitchell; Newton Centre Woman's Club; vice-presidents, Mrs. Frank L. Miller, Waban Woman's Club, Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden, Newtonville Woman's Club, Mrs. Samuel N. Braham, Social Service Club of Newton; recording secretary, Mrs. H. H. Longfellow, Auburndale Woman's Club; corresponding secretary, Mrs. August H. Deatur, Community Service Club of West Newton; treasurer, Mrs. Herbert E. Child, Woman's Club of Newton Upper Falls; auditor, Mrs. Fred Gilbert Sanford, Woman's Club of Newton Highlands; nominating committee, Miss Helen Hull, chairman, Newton, Mrs. A. D. Salinger, Newtonville, Mrs. Bernard Early, West Newton, Miss Margaret Haskell, Auburndale, Mrs. J. S. White, Waban, Mrs. Walter Goddard, Newton Highlands, Mrs. Albert Fowler, Newton Centre, Mrs. H. F. Rogers, Newton Upper Falls.

The Woman's Club of Newton Highlands has elected these officers for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Grosvenor D'W. Marcy; vice-presidents Mrs. Charles H. Keeler, Mrs. W. H. Goddard; recording secretary, Mrs. H. A. Miller; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. D. Miller; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Gilbert Sanford; auditor, Mrs. Albert H. Elder; directors, Mrs. H. J. Maynard, Mrs. F. W. Ross, Mrs. L. F. Fletcher, Mrs. E. F. Gibbs.

RECEPTION

The Parish House of the Second Church, West Newton was well filled last Friday evening with the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan D. Crowell. The reception was tendered to them by the Second Church of whose school Mr. Crowell has been superintendent for a number of years. Mr. Crowell is also Scout master of Troop 7 which meets in the church. His friends took the opportunity of his recent marriage to express to him their hearty good feeling.

After the reception which was attended by many of the leading citizens of West Newton, Mrs. H. W. Birgfeld sang a group of songs, and a number of young people under the leadership of Miss Helen Hartel gave some amusing dramatic episodes from the life of a prominent character.

Rev. J. Edgar Park then made a speech of congratulation to Mr. Crowell at the close of which he presented on behalf of friends in West Newton to Mr. Crowell a well-filled purse of gold. At the close of Mr. Crowell's felicitous reply refreshments were served by a committee in charge of Mrs. James A. Hutchinson. The decorations of palms, carnations and apple blossoms were presented by Mrs. C. W. Norby, and the music was arranged by Mr. Fred Edmunds.

DEATH OF MISS WENTWORTH

Miss Ethel May Wentworth, daughter of James H. and Flora E. Wentworth of Lincoln street, Newton Highlands, died at her home on Tuesday after an illness which followed an operation last October.

Miss Wentworth was born in Newton, and was a graduate of the Newton High School. She received a special musical education, and was many years, a teacher of music, and an accompanist for the Lotus Male Quartet of Boston. Later, she entered business and was for some time with the Babson Statistical Organization. At the time of her illness she was with the "Congregationalist" where she was circulation manager.

In the death of Miss Wentworth her friends have lost one who was known for her loyalty, devotion to duty, and constant thought of others. Professor Holmes of Harvard University writes of her, "Her life was such as in its nature to share something of immortal lustre; regret that it is ended is somehow overborne by the sense of what it was."

Services were held at her late residence on Tuesday, Rev. George T. Smart officiating, and the burial was in Newton Cemetery.

CHURCH NOTICE

Monday the Newton Mothers' Club had a very delightful time at its annual meeting held at the home of the president, Mrs. Joseph N. Lovell. A delicious luncheon was served to forty-five members, after which came the reports and usual business of the annual meeting and the election of officers, which resulted as follows: President, Mrs. J. N. Lovell; vice-president, Mrs. F. S. Hoyt; secretary, Mrs. N. W. Emerson; treasurer, Mrs. Pitt F. Drew; chairman of Program committee, Mrs. J. Edgar Park; Charities committee, Mrs. Andrew Woods. The club has had a most successful and satisfactory year, with increased interest and much enthusiasm. Nearly $300 was raised at a single luncheon-bridge party, which has been used for the regular philanthropies of the club.

The Christian Era Study Club held a business and social meeting on Monday afternoon when committee and officers' reports were given and these officers elected for the next season: President, Miss Ella B. Smith; vice-president, Mrs. George Hyde; secretary, Mrs. Arthur Desoe; treasurer, Mrs. Edward E. Savory. Mrs. N. G. Grant will be the delegate to the Federation. Mrs. Samuel Selloy is chairman of the Social committee and Mrs. Ernest F. Drew was made chairman of a new committee on Civics and Economics. A social hour and a general good time followed the business.

The Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. closed a more than ordinarily successful year on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Clark. The president has the record of having been present at every meeting. Since the coming year is the 60th anniversary of the death of Dante, in common with other organizations, the club will devote a part of its next year's program to the study of the poet.

The following named officers were elected: President, Miss Adelaide R. Webster; vice-president, Miss Harriet Ward; secretary, Mrs. E. G. Swift; assistant secretary, Mrs. G. H. Fernald; treasurer, Miss Mary E. Hyde.

On Monday evening the Woman's Club of Newton Upper Falls met in the Auditorium for the business part of the annual meeting and then adjourned to the library for its social hour where ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Howland, of the W. C. T. U., spoke informally of her experiences during a year spent in Scotland and England in the interest of her work, making an appeal to the women for their support of all that is highest in life. The officers for the next year include: President, Mrs. Ernest Cobb; first vice-president, Mrs. Robert F. Sawyer; recording secretary, Mrs. Francis B. Parsons; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Frank L. Hunting; treasurer, Mrs. Warren H. Hoey; auditor, Mrs. Herbert S. Rogers; directors for two years, Mrs. Charles A. Chadwick, Miss Mary J. Leary.

Resolution Upon the Snell Bill

Passed by Newton Federation of Women's Clubs

WHEREAS, one in twenty (1 in 20) of the people of this country depends for a living upon the forests and their products and more people are employed in lumbering and in wood using factories than in any other industry except agriculture, and

WHEREAS, it is a fact that nothing which we eat or use or wear can be produced, transported, or consumed without the help of the forest, and that no need of body or mind can be met, no moment of our lives can be passed in comfort and well being without something which only the forests supply, and

WHEREAS, three-fifths in quantity and far more than three-fifths in quality of the original timber supply of the United States has been cut over, wasted, or burned, and one-half of our remaining timber lies in three Pacific states and 61 per cent is west of the Great Plains, while four-fifths of the population live east of the Rocky Mountains, thus causing the expensive transportation of wood supplies to add enormously to the cost and difficulties of living for the great majority of our people, and yet we are still throughout the country, annually cutting and burning four or five times our annual growth of timber, which growth, with small exception, is of inferior quality, and

WHEREAS, destructive lumbering without reforestation, together with the fires which inevitably follow bad forestry methods, not only deprive us of wood but also destroy our soil and our water resources, and

WHEREAS, three million acres, or three-fifths of the land area of Massachusetts is not fitted for agriculture but is of supreme value for wood production, and out of this potential forest land more than one million acres is now idle or waste land, not only unprofitable but a burden to the community, and moreover only a small portion of the two million acres of forested land is properly managed for the maximum production of successive timber crops required to supply the large wood using of the other states now and are most of them soon will be in the same plight as Massachusetts, while no state in the Union has any adequate fire protection and meanwhile there are no sources of more than temporary and insignificant wood supply outside the United States, so that therefore the only remedy is a far-reaching constructive National Forest Policy in co-operation with the states, and

WHEREAS, such a policy of forest management and fire prevention has been formulated by the United States Forest Service and introduced into Congress as the Snell Bill known to the 66th Congress as H. R. 15327, and introduced into the 67th Congress as H. R. 129, be it therefore

RESOLVED that the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, numbering seventeen clubs and 10,000 members, hereby heartily endorses the Snell Bill, H. R. 129, and urges its endorsement and vigorous support by the Legislative Department of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, and be it also

MINSTREL SHOW

The "Notwen Minstrels" were given by the members of the Newton Grade Teachers' Club, in the Technical High School on Thursday night before a crowded house.

In the opening number (A Comedy in One Act) while all the cast was good, Miss Ethel Weeks, Miss Leni Nix, and Miss Grace McCray were particularly effective.

The Tennyson Drill was received with great enthusiasm.

The solo numbers demonstrated the fact that Newton has an unusual number of vocalists among her teachers. The chorus work, too, was of a high order.

Where the entire program was so successful it is not easy to single out individual performers. The End Quartet "When Honey Sings an Old-Time Song," was especially melodious and well done, and Miss Virginia Mason made a hit with "The Argentinies, the Portuguese and the Greeks."

Great credit is due Miss Mabel K. Chase the Director, and all those who so generously gave their time and talents to the preparation of this program. One of the most enjoyable which the Teachers Club has given.

The cast included: Interlocutor, Jessie E. West; Ends, Virginia A. Mason, Ethel R. Weeks, Mabel K. Chase and Julia M. Tobin.

Chorus: Frances G. Chater, Pauline Trask, Annabelle Keyes, Ruth Scully, Ruth L. Bond, Lena L. Nixon, Marion Pratt, Grace M. McCray, Grace M. Langhin, Georgia M. Winslow, Marie Daiger, Florence Nichols, Frances Welch, Edith R. Sanders, Helen Stevens. Director: Mabel K. Chase; Accompanist: Helen E. Newell.

CITY HALL

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1921.

TERMS, $3.00 A YEAR

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR NURSES

Suggested at Joint Meeting of Social Service League and Hospital Aid Association

The ninth annual meeting of the Newton Hospital Social Service League was held in conjunction with that of the Hospital Aid Association on May 10th in the New Church parlors, Mrs. Talbot presiding. The Secretary's and Treasurer's reports of the Aid Association were read and accepted, followed by the report of the nominating committee. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Geo. H. Talbot; Vice Presidents, Mrs. Joseph N. Lovell, Mrs. Wm. M. Flanders, Mrs. Geo. W. St. Amant; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Frank S. Anderson; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Marguerite Flanders; Treasurer, Miss Rose Loring.

Mrs. Tower of the Newton District Nursing Association gave an interesting account of the work accomplished the past year. During the month of April, 102 patients were visited, some paying the minimum fee of 75 cents and others unable to pay at all.

Mrs. Stewart then explained briefly the idea of the Central Council—which will be the combining of all charities. She spoke clearly of the purpose of such an organization, and pointed out on a chart how the different associations would be cared for; some coming through the hospital and others being taken up directly by the Central Council. The chart was then passed around the room, so that all would get the correct impression.

Mrs. Talbot then spoke on a few vital questions, among the first being the still urgent need of the work heretofore done by the Aid Association; even if the association is absorbed by the Central Council. The linen and garments previously made by the ladies would still be needed and even more work has been mapped out for them the coming year.

Mrs. Talbot mentioned a scholarship for nurses, such a suggestion having been previously submitted to Miss Riddle.

A letter from Miss Riddle was read, approving of such a plan, and saying that she considered a scholarship of $50 to $75—one for each year of training—would be a great incentive to the nurses.

Said scholarships would be for: Excellence, practice, scholarship and fitness (by fitness, meaning courtesy and thoughtfulness for their patients). Awards might be made this year, but there, of course, would be no chance for competition until next year.

The meeting was then turned over to the Social Service League, Mrs. Sherman presiding.

The Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were read and accepted, the Treasurer stating a balance of $1166.70 with an additional $325 which was received after the books were made up.

The Secretary's report gave an accurate idea of the work which has been done the past year, and of the struggle which the League has had to keep in existence financially.

The following names for officers were suggested by the nominating committee, and it was voted that the Secretary cast a single ballot:

President, Mrs. Harold B. Sherman; Vice President, Miss Marguerite Flanders; Secretary, Mrs. Chas. B. Jones; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. J. Merwin Allen; Treasurer, Mrs. F. W. Webster, Jr.; Assistant Treasurer, Miss Mary L. Rolfe.

GIRLS SCOUTS

Officers Elected at Annual Meeting. News From Different Troops

The second meeting of the Newton Girl Scout Officers was held on Wednesday evening, May 11, at the Unitarian Church in West Newton, with twenty officers present.

After the supper Capt. Ordway presided and the following officers were elected:

Chairman, Mrs. W. S. Redfield; vice-chairman, Miss (Bertha) Holmes; secretary, Miss Catharine Gates; treasurer, Miss Mary Sprague; Program Committee, chairman, Miss Priscilla Cogsway; Miss Beatrice Eddy, Miss Ethel Freeman; Entertainment Committee, Miss Katherine Howard, Miss Catherine Richardson, Miss Dorothy Gourley, Miss Margaret Bail, Miss Catharine Gates, Miss Helen Potter, Miss Madeleine Everett, Miss Eleanor Smith.

Capt. Freeman reported that the passing mark for tests had been raised from 70 per cent to 80 per cent.

It was decided to meet at Norumbega Park at 4.00 P. M. on Friday, May 20th, to hike to Nonesuch Pond, if the weather man foresees a pleasant day, if not the hike will be on May 27th.

After the business meeting Miss Quimby gave a most interesting talk on "How to form a Brownie Pack."

Troop 3—On Saturday, May 7, Captain Ordway of Troop 3 took the Scouts of that Troop who are working for the Bird Hunter Merit Badge for a bird walk through the Newton Centre woods. This was an instructive as well as a very pleasant interruption of the weekly rehearsals which the girls are having for their play. This play "The Pied Piper of Hamelin" is to be given by the Troop on Thursday afternoon, June 21. The Scouts are working diligently on it and it promises to be a most successful affair. It will be the winding up of the regular activities of the Newton Centre Troop for this summer as Miss Ordway is leaving for Europe early in June.

KNOW YOUR CITY

Interesting Meeting Held Under Auspices of Knights of Pythias

On Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows' Hall, Newtonville, a meeting was held under the auspices of Newton Lodge 110, K. of P. Mr. William C. Eddy, Past Councillor, presiding. The object of the meeting was to acquaint the citizens of Newton with the different functions which go to make up the civic life of the city.

The first speaker was Mr. U. G. Wheeler, Supt. of Schools, who explained the election and function of the school committee and of the Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent and the 350 principals and teachers of the city. He told in detail of the work of the three High Schools, the Classical, Technical and Vocational. The first, he said, contained approximately 550 pupils, the second 700 and the third 400. Newton is peculiar in that more pupils enter the high schools of the city than graduate from the grammar schools. This is explained by the fact that many people come here to live when their children become of high school age with the purpose of sending them to the Newton high schools. He concluded by showing the crying need for new buildings, especially in connection with the high schools.

The second speaker was Mr. Oswald J. McCourt of the Board of Charities of the city. He told of the work of the Overseer of the Poor, and of his relation to the hospitals, and Home of the Aged, etc.

The third speaker, Assessor Henry Bailey, gave an exceedingly clear account of why taxes were raised and of the expenses and revenues of the city. He proved conclusively that the "pursuit of happiness" guaranteed by the constitution would be impossible without government, and that government would be impossible without taxes. He also explained the city, state and county budget, and the reason for the contribution of Newton to the metropolitan system.

25TH ANNIVERSARY

Celebrated by Newton Council K. of C. at Newton Catholic Club

The 25th anniversary banquet of the Newton Council, No. 147, K. of C., was held at the Newton Catholic Club Hall, West Newton, on Monday night.

Grand Knight Thomas P. Hession presided and briefly reviewed the history of the organization—which now numbers over 600 members, has a beautiful home of its own, and is recognized as one of the most active and progressive councils in the State. Past Grand Knight M. John Barry, Postmaster at Newton Centre, made a most acceptable toastmaster.

The hall was filled to capacity, seats of honor being reserved for the 21 surviving charter members, each of whom was presented with a set of gold cuff links emblematic of the order. The presentation was made by Toastmaster Barry. In behalf of the members of the council, District Deputy Gallagher, in a eulogistic speech, recounted the splendid services to the council of Past Grand Knight John J. Hickey, and presented him with a purse of gold amounting to over $200. Letters of congratulation were read from Hon. B. Loring Young, Speaker of the House, who was unable to attend owing to his wife's illness, and from Rev. John F. Keleher of St. Bernard's Parish.

Other addresses were made by Hon. Edwin O. Childs, Rev. Lawrence J. Slattery, Rev. David B. Waters, Hon. Daniel J. Gallagher, Louis Watson, Past State Deputy, James P. Gallagher, District Deputy, and William H. Maguire, Past Grand Knight.

The orchestra was under the direction of Brother "Eddie" Hanlon—while Brother Louis Talbaldi directed the community singing, in which everyone heartily joined. Vocal numbers were contributed by Brothers Barwise, Antonelli and Merrill.

Knighthood—patriotism—religion—education and unselfish service were the themes of the various speakers, and these, interspersed with witty references and flavored with fragrant reminiscences, kept the gathering at a high pitch of enthusiasm and interest. It was the general opinion that it was one of the happiest and most enjoyable occasions ever held by the council.

FEDERATED GLEE CLUBS

Give a Highly Successful and Noteworthy Concert at Newton Centre

The Federated Glee Clubs of Greater Boston made their third and most successful appearance in Newton Centre Monday night before a large, appreciative audience, included in which were twelve delegates from the Men's Singing Club of Sanford, Maine.

The amalgamation of these representative and old singing societies of Greater Boston has outdistanced the fondest expectations of those who have fostered the splendid idea, and bids fair to accomplish the full purpose which its founder, Mr. H. J. Gurney, intended.

Of the individual numbers, Brahms' "Lullaby" by the Schubert Club of Malden was the most effective of any number during the evening, as the tone quality, balance of parts and shading reflected a lot of care and good work on the part of the director.

The program was opened by the Highland Glee Club of Newton with "Rise, Sleep no More," by Stewart. While it was well done, it is too bad that such a rousing and appropriate number could not have been done by one of the clubs with a larger personnel.

"Nature's Lullaby" was splendidly done by the Newton organization, and stands as the type of worth-while composition which is available for male singing, composed and dedicated to the Mendelssohn Glee Club of New York City by one of its members, Mr. C. B. Hawley. The division of the various parts, especially the final measures where the first tenors sing a high "D" flat, was a fine bit of work.

A real professional atmosphere invaded the hall with the entrance of the Men's Singing Club of Beverly. They rendered their part of the program with precision and effectiveness, singing as a male chorus should sing, unaccompanied and without music.

The excellent rendition of two negro spirituals by the Wollaston Glee Club, arranged by its conductor, Mr. John A. Crowley, lent just enough humor to what otherwise would have been rather a serious combination of male part songs.

Of the concerted singing by the four organizations, "The Bedouin's Song," by Foote, was the best. In this number the possibilities of a large body of men under skillful direction was exemplified. The attack, tempo and shading will long be remembered by the audience, and the federation would do well to repeat this number next year for its Boston audience.

The remaining number of the ensemble were done effectively, and while the personality of the individual conductors was in evidence, a word of commendation is likewise due the clubs for their flexibility under the baton of four conductors.

At times the audience was restless, and while a soloist would have been appropriate, it would have been a mistake to present other than an artist of the first ranks.

In some respects the arrangement of the program was unfortunate, and did not reflect sufficient care and discrimination as to numbers. The appearance of the individual clubs in lengthy selections detracted rather than added to the program, as the real treat was in listening to the ensemble singing.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Newton Classical High School

Tomorrow night in Bray Hall, Newton Centre, the annual senior dance will be held. Those on the dance committee are: Anne Bruner, Beatrice Lane, Frederick Blodgett, Arthur Smith, and Shattuck Osborne. The matrons are:
Mrs. Frederick Blodgett, Mrs. William
Crosby, Mrs. Arthur Dunmore, Mrs.
James Hodder, Mrs. John Eaton, and Mrs. Albert Carter. Walter Johnson's orchestra will supply the music. The ushers are: Clement Coady, John Norton, Robert Garrity, Alfred Stafford, Clark Hodder, Warren Hill, Arthur
Smith, and Homer Tilton. The dance is open to the public.

Mr. Underwood is again with us after having spent a week in New Hampshire recovering from a very serious illness.

The Boys' Debating Club has decided to accept a shield instead of a cup as a token of their victories over Brookline. The next meeting of the members will be the last and at this meeting the officers for the coming year will be nominated and voted upon. The secretary will read the names of those who are to receive school credit for the year's work.

In order that the June issue of the "Review" may contain 32 pages there will be a "Review" dance in the gym next Friday.

Mr. Homer K. Underwood will be one of the speakers at the annual meeting of the New England Modern Language Association to be held on Saturday in the Jacob Sleeper Hall of Boston University. Mr. Underwood's topic will be "Results of language teaching without grammar."

The chances of the ball team for the championship went up early this week when Keahy pitched a no hit-no run game at Everett, Newton winning by the score of 7 to 0. But what ever chance the team did have went a glimmering on Wednesday when Cambridge Latin won its game at Cambridge by the score of 4 to 0.

In the assembly hall last Saturday evening, before an audience of almost a thousand people, the two Senior plays were presented. Both plays were a decided success. The first play, written by Ruth Ayers, "20," was a brisk, snappy, comedy. Marion Juthe, as "Babs," a young dancer scored a hit by her Gypsy dance. Josephine Hopkins made a very pretty heroine, her acting being smooth and natural.

"Pete" Blodgett and "Click" Hodder had an easy time convincing the audience that they were both actors as well as athletes. Elizabeth Burnham, as "Aunt" Zurno, acted her part to perfection. Others in the cast whose work stood out were: Hughes Wagner, Constance Parker, Homer Tilton, Avery Peabody, John Christie, and Dana Phillips. "The Rubber Key" written by Priscilla Aurelio, "21," although amusing in places, was a little more serious. Sylvia Chapman, as Mrs. Emily Beach, and who to the audience unexpectedly turned out to be the heroine, gave a convincing impression by her acting so naturally.
Florence Morford, as "A spinster interested in the vital questions of the hour" lived up to her reputation as being class actress. "Shad" Osborne as the hero proved to be an effective chemist. Others in the cast were:
Mildred Macleod, David Hall, Eleanor Leighton, Andrews Wyman, Donald Fleming, Frederick McGill, Avery Peabody, and Frederick Blodgett.

Aside from the fact that this year's play was a double production, Norman Foss engaged Mr. Carl Pawlowski, of Belmont, to play for the occasion. Mr.
Pawlowski is a pianist of the highest type. He is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, and during the past five years has been playing at concerts both at home and abroad. Mr. Pawlowski's first selection, Prelude in G Minor (Rachmaninoff), was immediately followed by an encore. His final selection, La Campenella (Liszt), a piece not within the reach of many pianists, was both musically and technically a wonderful piece of music.

Norman Foss was the business manager for both of the plays while Walter Tower and Ezra Stevens acted as the stage managers. The candy was in charge of Janet Eaton and Emily Kent. Congratulations to Mrs. Mills and Miss Richardson, who spent hours in directing and coaching the casts.

Roger Wolcott School

The Roger Wolcott School baseball team easily won its game with the Burr School in the last three innings of play. Up to this time the Burr School team played better ball and had a great lead, but in the closing innings the boys of the Roger Wolcott nine played fast enough ball to win. Our team lost its second game to Troop 7, Boy Scouts, by a one run margin in the tenth inning. Harry Thayer pitched good ball in this game and all the boys on the team played an exceptionally fast game.

The Waban Field Day to be held on the playground tomorrow afternoon will have about 125 of our school children taking part in the various events and games. Mr. Capron and Miss Goodhue, the playground instructors, will be in charge during the entire afternoon. The greatest feature of the fun will be a two generations' ball game between the Roger Wolcott team and the fathers of the boys. The girls of the upper grades have formed a committee to take charge of the cake, candy, ice cream and lemonade tables.

Mr. Crowell is reading as a part of his history course to the seventh and eighth grades, John Drinkwater's great play, "Abraham Lincoln." Some excellent drawing work is to be noticed in Miss Doran's and Miss Brown's classes and about the best gymnastic work in the school may be found in Miss Moore's room. The first grade hand writing with Miss Lincoln is exceptionally fine.

Mr. Angier, our friend and school committee member, is a most interested visitor to both the old and the new school building.

Plans are now being made for the transfer of the old school furniture to the new building, which will be ready for occupancy next Fall.

Bigelow School

Another party from the Bigelow School visited the Art Museum this week.

Tables have been installed in the room used by the cooking classes.
The classes having the highest attendance record for the past four weeks were Miss Dyer's and Miss Coyle's. Both had an average of 96.1 per cent.

Friday afternoon, May 6, the Bigelow Girls' Captain ball team met a team composed of high school freshmen. Both sides played a very strong game, which resulted in a tie. The score was 2 to 2. Another game will be played at an early date.

Bigelow defeated Peirce at baseball
May 10 in a close and interesting game, the score being 2-1. W. Schliephake played well for Bigelow and T. Finn, who scored the first run, got the hit that drove in the winning run.

Bigelow was defeated by Stearns last week in a loosely played game.
Butler for Stearns played a good fielding game.
The social hour Friday, May 6, was much enjoyed by the pupils and parents. The program consisted of the following numbers: "Cello solo, Julian Hutchison, accompanied by Dorothea Stuckbridge; songs by Margaret Pitts, in costume; dramatic recitation, Marjory Marshall; recitations by Mary Marshall, Elizabeth Scofield and Dorothy Barba. A play, "The Old-Time Newton School," by Miss Coyle's fourth grade.

Burr School

The Burr School played the Waltham South Grammar School on Tuesday and won, score 10-9.
Twenty pupils enjoyed the trip to the Copley Theatre on Tuesday, where they saw the performance of the "Merchant of Venice."

A debate was held in the 8th grades on Wednesday afternoon as to the relative advantages of the careers of a banker and a commercial traveler.

The Burr and Emerson Schools held a baseball game on Thursday.
Mrs. Spooner of the Williams School has been absent from school on account of illness.

Cliffin School

The Horace Mann-Cliffin baseball team have been given their suits. The organization of the team is as follows:
Guy Holbrook, pitcher (captain);
Ralph Paterson, catcher; Thomas Gilligan, first base; Robert Andres second base; Thomas Pillion, third base; Neville Fletcher, shortstop; Alfred Purcell, left field; Elmer Blair, center field; Sam Petrillo, right field.

Substitutes: George Eames, George
Daugherty, Richard Finley, Ernest Adams.

No league games have been played yet.

The attendance report for the last four weeks shows Grade IV to have the highest percent of attendance, 98.3 per cent.

Miss Nathalie Moulton of Grade I is absent because of illness, and Mrs.
Blanche Armstrong of Brookline is in charge of the class.

Vocational High School

On Thursday evening, May 26, the Newton Vocational High school will have an open night. All are cordially invited to attend. A more extended notice will be given next week.

COMMONWEALTH COUNTRY CLUB

Mrs. George B. Chapman of Brookline, Mrs. A. C. Fulton of Newton Centre, Mrs. James D. Henderson, of Brookline, Mrs. A. O. McGarrett of Allston, Mrs. Charles E. Nurnan of Brookline, Mrs. C. Franklin Onthank of Chestnut Hill, Mrs. Carroll H. Richards of Waban, Mrs. Charles E. Hussey of Brookline and Mrs. Grace L.
Trott of Chestnut Hill, will be the hostesses at the Matinee Auction Bridge Party to be given at the Commonwealth Country Club, Chestnut Hill, Wednesday afternoon, May 18th, in aid of the Chandler Service Homestead.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Boys' Department

On Saturday afternoon at the "Y," Cambridge cleaned up the Newton boys in pool, ping-pong and checkers, carrying away eight of the nine prizes.
Gordon Kenison being the only point winner for Newton, he winning a third in pool. The Cambridge boys wonder—Wm. Boudreau—failed to live up to his championship reputation in the pool tournament, losing to his teammate, Steadman, for first place.

Y. M. C. A. Baseball

The baseball team representing the Association is rapidly rounding into shape. The team is composed of most of last year's team with several new players who are going to strengthen the team considerably.

To date the following men have come out for practice: Pitchers, Whitney, a former Harvard star twirler; Carter from Waltham, who gives promise of good work. Adams as a catcher is always on the job, also swings a dangerous club. Smith at short is a smooth player, left handed batter and a hard hitter. Trullson, Murray and Holland are infielders of all-around ability. Bills, the old standby at first base, also an emergency twirler, and in the outfield Barnes of Waltham is an all-round player. Barnes can be called upon for infield work or mound duty and do either with finish. He, too, swings a wicked portside bat. Thompson of Brighton covers centre garden and is a steady fielder and hitter, coming through when runs are needed.
Haynes, another all-round player, together with several others are trying for right field.

The schedule is rapidly filling up and games will be played at home and abroad every Saturday and holiday.
Practice every Tuesday and Thursday evening.

The Weston A. A. team will come to Newton Saturday, May 14th, for a game. This will be the first game of the season on the home field, and a good crowd is looked for.

BOY SCOUTS TO HIKE

The Boy Scouts of Norumbega Council will hold a general hike to the Council Camp, Saturday, May 14, leaving Needham station at 10 o'clock.

Several troops have intimated already that they would be out in full force, and some have planned to erect cubans for their immediate use. Both dinner and supper will be had at the camp and towards evening, a good old-fashioned camp fire, around which all will gather, will form the center for stories, songs, etc.

Scouts should bring enough food for both meals.

No. 8195. Commonwealth of Massachusetts. LAND COURT.

To Eugene Sullivan, Alan M. MacIntire, Lewis H. Bacon, Jr., Fred M. Lowe and Mary A. Senter, of Newton, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth; Ernestine Robitschek, of Foxboro, in the County of Norfolk and said Commonwealth; and to all whom it may concern:

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court by Ann H. Bacon, of said Newton, to register and confirm her title in the following described land:

A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situate in said Newton, bounded and described as follows:

Westerly by Circuit Avenue fifty five (55) feet; Northerly by land of Orasmus Bings, one hundred and 4/10 (100.4) feet; Northeasterly by land now or formerly of Eugene Sullivan twenty five (25) feet; Southeasterly by land of said Eugene Sullivan thirty five and 5/100 (35.5) feet; and Southerly by land now or formerly of Fred M. Lowe one hundred fifty nine and 65/100 (159.65) feet.

The above described land is shown on a plan filed with said petition and all boundary lines are claimed to be located on the ground as shown on said plan.

You are hereby cited to appear at the Land Court to be held at Boston, in the County of Suffolk, on the twenty-third day of May, A. D. 1921 at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted. And unless you appear at said Court at the time and place aforesaid your default will be taken as confessed, and you will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any decree entered thereon.

Witness, Charles Thornton Davis, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-first day of April in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-one.

Attest with Seal of said Court.
CLARENCE C. SMITH, Recorder.

CONCERT OF THE FIRST CHURCH ORCHESTRA

Last week Thursday evening in Bray Hall, Newton Centre, a very delightful concert was given by the First Church Orchestra before a large and appreciative audience.

This orchestra, conducted by Mr. D. Ralph Maclean, has been doing splendidly well all the year, and this concert was a fitting climax.

The soloist, Mme. Jeanne Laval, mezzo-soprano, was in fine form, and sang delightfully. Her songs were distinctive and varied, and she completely captivated her audience with her second group, receiving three encores.

The orchestration was very well done throughout the concert. Where the whole program is of such high excellence it is difficult to choose, but the selections from the "Peer Gynt" Suite, and those from Tschalkowsky were particularly well received and were repeated.

This concert marked the close of a successful season. About six hundred people were present.

DEATH OF MRS. TITCOMB

Mrs. Hetta L. Titcomb of Institution avenue, Newton Centre, who died last week Thursday at the Massachusetts Homeopathic Hospital, was the widow of Albert C. Titcomb, and was born at Plaitow, N. H., Sept. 17, 1850. She was the daughter of Amos Carlton and Elizabeth (Hall) Clement. In 1883 she was married to Mr. Titcomb, and they took up their residence in San Francisco, returning to Newton, where she resided until coming to Newton Centre. Mrs. Titcomb is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ruth T. English, wife of Everett W. English of New York, and a son, Albert Clement Titcomb of Boston. Two sisters also survive, Miss Mary A. Clement and Miss Elizabeth A. Clement, both of Boston.

Services were held Sunday at the Baptist Church, Rev. Charles N. Arnold officiating, and the burial was in Newburyport, Mass.

DEATH OF MRS. HURD

Mrs. Sarah Louise (Pope) Hurd, a resident of Newtonville since 1902, died at her home, 508 Walnut street, Friday, at the age of 72. She formerly lived for some years in Dorchester, and in the decade following the Civil War, taught in the Stoughton School at Dorchester Lower Mills.

She was born in Dorchester in 1848, and received her early education in the public schools of that section. In 1872 she married Edward P. Hurd, who survives her.

She is survived also by four children—Mrs. L. T. Sawyer of Milton, Edward L. Hurd of Milton, William R. Hurd of Beverly and Malcolm Hurd of Newton Centre; as well as by a brother, Abbott S. Pope of Dorchester Lower Mills.

Services were held on Sunday at her late residence, the Rev. Julian C. Jaynes of the First Unitarian Church, West Newton, officiating, and the burial was in Forest Hills.

PRIZE DEBATE

The Aquinas Debating Society of Our Lady's High School, Newton, will hold the eleventh annual prize debate in the school hall on Adams street, Wednesday evening, May 18, at a quarter before eight. The question for discussion is: Resolved, That Japanese Immigration to the United States Should be Prohibited. Mr. Charles B. York, A.B., will preside. The debaters are, affirmative: Joseph L. Crandall, '23, Joseph J. Murphy, '22, Thomas V. Geagan, '22; Negative, Lawrence A. Lombardi, '21, Joseph J. Miskella, '21, James A. Murnaghan, '22.

The judges will be: Rev. Lawrence W. Slattery, Rev. Walter Roche and Rev. Conrad Quirbach.

The medal to be awarded the best individual speaker is the gift of an alumnus, Joseph V. Nevins, S. S.

The Society has distinguished itself in the past by the skill with which the youthful debaters have handled their subjects, and it is expected that this year's debaters will not be inferior to those of preceding years.

Two of the former Aquinas prize debaters, James P. Akins and Francis Driscoll, who are in their freshmen year at Boston College, have made places on Marquette Prize Debate of the college.

MUSICAL FESTIVAL

ARNOLD—BAKER

Miss Virginia Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Baker of Crafts road, Chestnut Hill, became the bride last Saturday of Mr. David Bulfinch Arnold of Brookline. The wedding took place at the Church of the Redeemer, the Rev. Lucian W. Rogers officiating.

The attendants of the bride were her sister, Mrs. Warren D. Arnold, Matron of honor, Mrs. Richard S. Emmet of New York, and Mrs. Ellsworth L. Bunker of Yonkers, N. Y., and six bridesmaids, Miss Elizabeth Dean of St. Paul, Miss Frances Hood, Miss Andrea Adie, Miss Susan Lee of Chestnut Hill, Miss Margaret Winslow, and Miss Marjorie Kenard of Boston.

The best man was Mr. Warren D. Arnold, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Messrs. Horace L. Arnold, a brother of the groom, George Perry of Cambridge, Percival Howe, Jr., of West Newton, William Ryle, of New York, Raymond Baldwin of Concord, Morrill Wiggin of Brookline, and Richard Baker and Theodore Storer of Boston.

The bride's gown was of ivory satin, with rare old point lace, and her veil was of tulle. She carried a large bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her attendants were all gowned alike in tangerine blue chiffon, over silk, with girlish of sunset taffeta. Their hats were of the same materials and colorings as their dresses. All carried bouquets formed of various spring flowers.

Immediately after the ceremony, guests followed the bridal party to the home of the bride's parents, in Crafts road, where in honor of the bridal couple a reception was held and a wedding breakfast was served. The house was decorated with many lilies. Mr. Arnold and his bride are to make their home in Sumner road, Brookline.

SIMMONS' GARDEN FETE

UNDER THE GILDED DOME

Mr. Frank A. Goodwin, registrar of motor vehicles, was the speaker this week before the members from Middlesex county and gave some interesting and startling facts regarding the automobile situation in the state.

Over 329,000 machines were registered last year for fees aggregating $3,860,000; 236,000 operators licenses and 124,000 chauffeurs licenses were granted. The number of accidents has increased from 77 killed and 963 injured in 1910 to 4280 killed and 21,000 injured in 1920. The principal causes in order of importance were inexperienced operators, speed, liquor and carelessness on the part of pedestrians, especially children. To remedy this situation the department inaugurated the policy last year of requiring examination before operators' licenses were issued, and first took all applicants who were under 18 years of age, then operators of trucks and since last December, every person operating a motor vehicle. Mr. Goodwin said that already they had noticed a diminution of accidents. In the matter of speed, Mr. Goodwin said that the police of cities did very well in enforcing the law, but the towns were in the opposite class. In addition, he had tried to reach the difficulty by taking away the license. In the trouble caused by use of liquor he had also made a new ruling whereby the offender not only lost his license as an operator, but the registration of his car was also cancelled. He believed that a fine did not mean much in these cases and suggested that the courts would have to deal out jail sentences in order to stop it. In the matter of headlights, the department had been studying the past six months and were about to issue regulations on the matter. He hinted that it would probably take the form of requiring lenses which would "widen" or spread the light.

All three Newton representatives voted in favor of the bill to harmonize the laws of Massachusetts with the national legislation under the 18th amendment to the constitution. With 40 states already co-operating with the national government under the Volstead Act, there can be no question where state like Massachusetts should stand.

TYPHOID EPIDEMIC CAUSED BY RAW MILK

The present epidemic of typhoid fever in Waltham has been traced to a raw milk supply. Immediate action is necessary to prevent the spreading of the epidemic, and Waltham is learning through bitter experience that raw milk is dangerous milk, for young and old.

This epidemic is especially deplorable in view of the fact that it might have been prevented. The community may not realize that raw milk is a real menace, but there is every reason to suppose that the milk dealers understand the dangers so frequently attending its use.

In the absence of compulsory pasteurization ordinances it is incumbent upon the milk dealer to take it upon himself to safeguard the milk supply in this way. The health of the people should be the dealer's first consideration—the cost of such health precautions is secondary.

Periodically we hear of such milk-borne epidemics. Marlborough recently suffered such an epidemic in which there were 33 cases. Some of us remember a milk-borne epidemic in Worcester a few years ago in which 213 cases with 10 deaths were reported. Waltham cannot expect to be immune from such visitations of disease while the people continue to use raw milk. The result is inevitable sooner or later.

Approximately one person in 300 has typhoid fever every year—among dairy people as well as others. Frequently the cases are not identified as typhoid fever until the second or third week of illness. Is it surprising then, that those working about the milk should infect it and spread epidemics? Surely no thoughtful milk dealer would neglect to pasteurize his milk now that it is established that this is an absolute protection against disease.

Dr. Rosenau, Professor of Preventive Medicine at Harvard says, "Pasteurization prevents sickness and saves lives." But to know a fact and to act upon it are two different things, and it is easier and cheaper to sell the milk in its raw state.

We might go on quoting authorities forever. It is the consensus of opinion today among all health officers that pasteurization is the only absolute safeguard against milk-borne diseases. In the light of all this available knowledge how can a milk dealer neglect to adopt this protective measure?

Milk is the most important and the most health-giving food we have for those of all ages. It is as necessary for the children as fresh air and sunshine, but it must be pure and safe through perfect pasteurization.

Our water supply is protected as a public service. The milk dealer who protects his milk supply is performing a voluntary and real public service. And this unfortunate visit of typhoid to Waltham will serve as a lesson to all—a lesson that will cause every family to demand of its milk dealer a milk that is unquestionably pure and safe.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR NURSES

The Secretary's report was necessarily read by Mrs. Cole, as the regular Secretary, Mrs. Jones, was unable to do so.

Mrs. McManamon, the Social Service Worker, spoke of her work in the clinics and wards, and gave a few personal illustrations of how patients were benefited by this work. She also said she wished to correct the mistaken idea that some people had, such idea being that the wards at the hospital are free. They are not free—but there are some free beds, supported by different charities.

Following Mrs. McManamon's talk a short recess was held while Dr. McAuslin arranged his lantern and slides for an exceedingly interesting lecture on "Posture, in Relation to Health." He spoke of how necessary it is to correct faulty posture during youth, as it is the cause of much illness and disease, quite often resulting in tuberculosis.

Dr. McAuslin hopes to start a course in physical education in conjunction with the academic education in schools, where pupils will be rated the same—A, B, C, etc., in that as well as their studies.

Many interesting slides were shown on the screen, picturing defective spines caused by faulty posture and feet disfigured by improper shoes. He also showed some pictures of X-ray pictures of teeth which had been neglected.

Following Dr. McAuslin's enlightening lecture, a most delightful luncheon was served, which was enjoyed by over a hundred ladies.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 5—On Tuesday, May 10 the West Newton Scouts met in the parlors of the Unitarian Church. Mary Palmer of Auburndale was invested as a Tenderfoot Scout. The Treasurer read a report of the proceeds from the Bunny Bazaar held the preceding week. The Troop cleared about $165. Of this it was voted to send $50 to the Hoover Fund, $15 to State Headquarters and the rest of the money will be used for Troop and Camp equipment. The Patrol of girls who have been taking the millinery course under Mrs. John Eaton took their test on Tuesday afternoon and the hats made during the course were on exhibition. There were four visitors at the meeting, Miss Jeanne Kenrick of Newton, chairman of the Newton Local Council Girl Scouts Court of Honor and three members of the Auburndale troop committee.

Prof. James B. Taylor then told in a few words what Newton meant to him. Justice William F. Bacon and Street Commissioner George E. Stuart were unable to be present.

The last speaker was Mayor Edwin O. Childs. Mr. Childs said that the strength of a city lay not in its splendid roads, its churches and its schools, although Newton has reason to be proud of all of these, but, in the character of its citizens. For the sake of the coming generation, we should seek to "know our city" and to make it increasingly better.

Between the speeches Mrs. Helen Pratt Kelly rendered a number of songs which were enthusiastically received.

The meeting concluded with a word from the presiding officer, saying that the Knights of Pythias wished to do their share in making Newton all that it should be.

DALHOUSIE LODGE

The informal dances run by the Dalhousie Lodge F. & A. M., have been so popular that the members have asked the dance committee for just one more.

This will be given in Temple Hall, Newtonville, tomorrow night, and will be in the form of a May party. The Colonial Orchestra will again furnish the music and a good time is assured. Remember the Debt Fund will profit by your attendance.

PROF. WILLIAM LYON PHELPS

Billy Phelps, as Prof. William Lyon Phelps of Yale is known by all, gives each month in the "Yale Alumni Weekly" book reviews which are most interesting. In the March 11 issue the book review column is headed "March Airs", while the April one appears under the heading of "April Showers." In this he gives an idea of the enthusiasm for literature that exists just now among the undergraduates of Yale by his description of John Galsworthy's recent visit to the University. He says:

"Sprague Memorial Hall, which seats 800 good men and true, was jammed to the doors, and over a thousand human beings were vainly clamoring for admission. Accordingly, at three minutes before five, I announced that the lecture would be held in Woolsey Hall. Fortunately for all concerned, Secretary Stokes, who I think eats and sleeps in his office in Woodbridge, was as usual, equal to the emergency. Now Woodbridge is geographically located directly between Sprague and Woolsey. I got word to Stokes at four minutes before five. He leaped from his window, unlocked the portals of Woolsey just in time to avoid being trodden to death in the gate. You should have seen the students! They climbed out of the windows of Sprague, swarmed down the fire escapes, and sprinted madly for Woolsey Hall. It looked, not like a riot, but like a revolution; and this wild scramble was to hear a modern dramatist give a literary lecture called 'Castles in Spain.' Woolsey Hall was inundated by between two and three thousand people in about two minutes and a half. It had not been made ready; there was no time. One aisle was packed full of tables, standing on each other, and reaching fifteen or twenty feet into the air; they were escalated in a victorious rush, and when Mr. Galsworthy began to speak, he saw an immense hall filled with eager auditors, with masses of students perched aloft, on inverted tables. At the close of his remarks, the students charged the stage, each armed with one of the authors books that had been bought, and requested the lecturer to sign his name therein. This he did cordially, although he was kept steadily writing over an hour, the center of a dense pack of humanity. He signed about five hundred books, finishing at 7.15."

The following are a few of his interesting reviews:

In chancery. By John Galsworthy. Don't read this novel until you have first read or reread 'The man of property,' by the same author, published away back in 1906. This is a sequel, and an excellent one, carrying on in fine style. You cannot help becoming interested in the various members of this family, and in their peculiar opinions and fates—their fates in every instance being the result of their opinions.

Character and opinion in the United States. By George Santayana. B-S23 c All those who have acute and cultivated minds—none others need apply—will enjoy this admirable book. Admirable because it is so compact with thought, so flexible in style. I do not think any modern author has a style more perfectly adapted to his purposes than Mr. Santayana. The criticism on undergraduate life in America is brilliant, and strange as the combination may seem, is both ironical and sympathetic. The chapters on his former colleagues at Harvard, James and Royce, will please and enrage the disciples of those two philosophers. A man who looks on at life, as Mr. Santayana does, has a certain advantage over those who are playing the game, but does he really know more about it or not? Sometimes I think those who are supporting families, working hard at their jobs, and paying their bills with difficulty, know more about life than the calm philosophical observer. To a cool, immaculate spectator, all men and women engaged in the heat of the struggle must appear slightly ridiculous—hence the gentle irony of these exquisite pages.

Grey Room. By Eden Philpotts. This is one of the most ingenious murder-mystery stories I have read for some time. I lent it to Director Chittenden, and even he, with all his scientific knowledge and experience, could not guess the solution. It cost him one night's sleep at that. This is a new departure for Eden Philpotts, who has written four or five hundred realistic stories of Devonshire and Cornwall, and, apparently with little effort, averages a thrill to the page.

Early Tudor poetry. By John M. Berdan. ZYP-B45. The Literary Supplement of the London Times in a two column review of this book, called it an "honour to American scholarship." And so it is. I was particularly proud at reading that review, for John is one of my colleagues in our English Department, who combines extraordinary skill in teaching English composition to the undergraduates, with original research.

Captives. By Hugh Walpole. This is a novel in which certain scenes will remind T. B. men of the opening verses of Browning's "Christmas Eve." Religious fanatics in general and Second Adventists in particular are studied with sympathetic but merciless detail. The formidable old woman, who appears in most of Walpole's fictions, is emphatically here. Some fierce old lady must have scared the life out of him in early youth. The story is rather diffuse, but dull spots are infrequent, and the character of the heroine original. I never saw a girl like her, not even in a print dress.

Art of lawn tennis. By William T. Tilden, 3rd. An excellent treatise on tennis, written by the champion of the world. The advice is valuable not merely to experts, but to dubs. It concisely treats of the art from A B C to X Y Z. Mr. Tilden is a player of uncommon skill, but he is also a Personality. His advice and his sketches of contemporary rivals have a peculiar flavor. The pictures are helpful. I will add that the Yale Faculty Team are prepared to take on all comers, provided that our adversaries will promise not to read this book until after their defeat.

Have we a far-eastern policy? By Charles H. Sherrill. F00-S55. As an undergraduate, Charlie was the fastest sprinter in the country. Now, to show his versatility, he produces works of "longue haleine." To contemplate stained glass is so much more agree-

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION OF CENTRAL CHURCH

The last luncheon of the season of the Women's Association of Central Church was held at the church on Wednesday. The tables were decorated with potted plants and every seat was taken.

After the lunch, which was a splendid one, Mr. Bond, a missionary from India gave a talk on India and its needs. He spoke particularly of the conservatism of the women of India, of its poverty and of the virtual slavery of the children, who are often "farmed out" to pay off debts of the parents. He also told of the lepers colony.

Following Mr. Bond, Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden read a very interesting tale called "Miss Pickett's Missionary Box." Boxes representing apples were then distributed for missionary contributions during the summer.

The potted flowers were also sold.

He is Editor-in-Chief of the Literary Review of the New York Evening Post, which you can subscribe to separately if you choose (adv.). Since Henry took hold of this periodical, it has gone forward by leaps and is never out of bounds. Really, it has become one of the chief literary reviews in America and its pages are respectfully quoted everywhere. Several volumes of essays have come from his pen, of which this is a good sample; it is written with spirit and with fairness. The essay "Tanks," although it has nothing to do with prohibition, is decidedly contemporary.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

The Woman's Section, Savings Division, at Washington is sending out a carefully prepared program along Thrift lines, which may well be considered carefully by program committees of the clubs. Thrift along household lines, in food, clothing and the like, is pretty well established in the minds of careful and thoughtful women, but the business side of life is a feature that has not been so well developed in the woman's training as some of the others, yet what one is more important! A college woman once remarked, "If only, when I was a girl, I had been taught that a dollar represented a day's work (it did in those days), what it would have meant to me!" Today, even more than then, children need to learn the value of money not only in terms of what it can buy, but also in terms of what it means to earn it—that it is the equivalent for service rendered. In order to bring these ideas more and more to the front and establish a saving nation comparable to the French, is the aim of all Thrift work. The State Thrift chairman, Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, urges the clubs particularly to take up the financial side of the question and form classes in business and finance, or at least have one Business Day, when some of these things can be presented and considered. She will send speakers if desired.

State Federation

Plans for the annual meeting of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs are practically consummated. Delegates are requested to register immediately upon arrival at the headquarters at Hotel Samoset. Girl Scouts will be ready to escort the guests to their lodgings. The sessions of the convention will be held in the Plymouth Theatre, where the credential committee will be on duty in the lobby upon arrival Tuesday afternoon and again in the early morning of Wednesday.

Tuesday evening in addition to the officers' reports there will be a half-hour of music by Constance and Henry Gideon consisting of American Folk Songs. Sir Paul Dukes, journalist and traveler, has been secured as speaker for Wednesday evening. He served as lieutenant in the World War. While of English origin, he was born in Russia. He sat in the Soviet and acted as spy in Russia for the Allies. It is needless to say he has a thrilling story to tell.

The Hotel Pilgrim will also serve meals and the rates per day, American plan, will be $7.50 per day, two in a room, and $9 for single rooms. Luncheon tickets at $1.00 each should be secured immediately from Mrs. F. J. Heams, 20 Chilton street, Plymouth, for the big luncheon on Wednesday noon.

Newton Federation

Monday, May 16, 10:15 A. M., the executive board of the Newton Federation will hold its regular meeting for appointing committees and inaugurating the work for the coming year.

Newton Centre Woman's Club

At the annual meeting on May 5 the following list of officers were elected for next year: President, Mrs. Francis W. Nathan; vice presidents, Mrs. Howard O. Winslow, Mrs. Charles B. Gordon; recording secretary, Miss Elizabeth P. Bartlett; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ellis Spear, Jr.; treasurer, Mrs. Warner R. Holt; assistant treasurer, Mrs. William B. Neal; auditor, Mrs. Manning A. Williams; directors for 3 years, Mrs. Clarence N. Burghardt, Mrs. Alden H. Speare, Mrs. Lorenz F. Muther; for one year, Mrs. Francis H. Williams, Mrs. Frederick D. Robinson. The club has made these appropriations: to philanthropies: Newton Hospital, $50; Newton Welfare Bureau, $50; Mothers' Rest, $25; District Nursing Association, $25; magazines, $5; Hospital Social Service League, $25; Hospital Aid Association in memory of Mrs. Flagg, $25; West Newton Music School, $50; Twombly House, $15; Social Service committee of club, $50; a total of $320.

The Junior members of the Auburndale Woman's Club will hold a food sale for the benefit of the Social Service League of the Newton Hospital at the Auburndale Men's Club House on Friday, May 20, from 2 to 5 P. M. This is the one opportunity of our village to make its yearly contribution to this cause and a generous response is requested from all.

Anti-Visitation Society

Newton members of the New England Anti-Visitation Society will be glad to avail themselves of the opportunity to meet and hear Dr. Walter Robert Hadwen, of England, who is making a brief visit to this country. He has consented to make addresses in a few of the eastern cities before going to California where he is to help in the campaign against vivisection and other germane evils. Dr. Hadwen is a physician with an extensive practice but he is ardently engaged in many reform movements, chief of which is that against animal experimentation. He is president of the British Union for the Abolition of Vivisection and editor of "The Abolitionist," which is devoted to the interests of this work. He has published many books and pamphlets written in a trenchant, convincing style. He is also well-known as a speaker and is considered one of the most formidable opponents of the vivisectionists who are seldom willing to meet him in debate, and his replies to "hecklers" have won for him recognition as a doughty adversary. He is to be in Boston Friday and Saturday of this week and the New England Anti-Visitation Society is to give a dinner in his honor Friday evening, May 13, at 6 o'clock at Hotel Bellevue, to which have been invited the leaders in humane work in this vicinity. At eight o'clock the same evening there will be a meeting at Pilgrim Hall, directly opposite the hotel, at which Dr. Hadwen will make an address. This meeting will be open to the general public.

Observed Mothers' Day

On Sunday afternoon, Mothers' Day, about 300 girls of Auburndale, including the students at Lasell Seminary, joined in a significant service arranged by the Girls' Club of the Church of the Messiah. Mrs. Irving O. Palmer gave an appropriate and impressive address upon, "Filling the Hope Chest," in which she gave the girls a heart-to-heart talk upon their preparation for life. Each year this club does some one thing for the community and this season it took this very practical and inspiring form.

Mount Holyoke Drive Driving

"Waban over the top" is the cheering news this week from the Mount Holyoke Campaign, each alumna in the district having pledged her personal $305. The committees in the other villages are busily at work and are confident of ultimate success, although returns are as yet a little slow in materializing. The zeal and enthusiasm of the workers is unbounded, as is evidenced by one case in particular. A French girl sent over by her government since the war to study received a scholarship at Mount Holyoke. Although she is about to return in a short time to her native country, she is working vigorously to complete her "3-0-5" before she sails.

One of the chairmen has received this commendation from a local man associated with a number of educational institutions:

"Your efforts to increase the resources of Mount Holyoke College deserve success. Unfortunately, because the race has evolved with men rather than women in control of large financial affairs, the best of our colleges for women have not fared as well as they deserved. Mount Holyoke, in particular, has record of achievement that should make it appeal to men as a sound investment. Indeed, such a college is one of the few investments which really combine safety of principal with exorbitant returns."

RED CROSS APPEAL

Newton Chapter of the Red Cross appeals to its friends and members to assist in securing Newton's quota of 2500 children's garments to clothe the suffering children of Europe. Arrangements are made for a GIVE A GARMENT GIFT WEEK on May 23 to May 28th.

During this week every family should give at least one garment new or old for children from one year to 14 years of age.

Every useful thing a child can wear is needed. Warm clothing is especially desired.

Stockings are wanted, but do not count towards the quota.

Help Newton to make this Give a Garment Gift Week a success by sending all garments possible to the following places in each village:

Auburndale, with Miss Helen Balch, 347 Central street; West Newton, Congregational Church; Newtonville, Temple Hall, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 24th and 25th; Newton, Miss Loring, 115 Thorncliffe road; Newton Centre, Mrs. G. W. Jackson, 34 Ballard court; Newton Highlands, Mrs. L. H. Marshall, 10 Hartford street; Newton Upper Falls, Mrs. J. A. Gould, 1206 Boylston street; Waban, Miss Blood's store.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Stuart, wife of George E. Stuart, Street Commissioner of Newton, took place on Friday morning, May 6th, at 10 o'clock at the Church of Our Lady, where Mrs. Stuart was married 41 years ago. Rev. Lawrence Slattery was celebrant of the solemn requiem mass, Rev. Walter Roche, deacon, and Rev. C. J. Quirbach, sub-deacon. In the sanctuary were Rev. Wm. J. Devlin, S. J., President of Boston College, Rev. Thomas Becker, S. J., and Rev. Fr. Byrne, S. J., of Boston College, Rev. Fr. George, C. P., of Passionist Monastery, Rev. Timothy Curtin and Rev. James Haney of Newton Centre, Rev. Francis Cronin of West Newton, Rev. P. J. Waters of Brighton Seminary, and Rev. Ambrose Gallagher of Dorchester.

At the offertory, Miss Agnes Burke sang "O Salutaris," "Pie Jesus" was rendered by St. Cecilia's Quartet of Boston, and "Lead Kindly Light" chimed the end of the Mass by Joseph Gildea, organist.

The pall bearers were: Hon. Edwin O. Childs, Mayor of Newton, Messrs. P. A. Murray, Frank E. Wing, Joseph M. Quinn, Herbert M. Ford, and Edward Rotchford.

The ushers were Major C. Raymond Cabot, William H. Waterfall, Jr., Richard Baker, Charles J. McCarty, Thomas J. Sullivan, John C. Madden, and James Gallagher.

The body bearers were Cornelius Dorsey, Thomas Matthews, William Murphy, and James Pagan.

Mrs. Stuart leaves her husband, George E. Stuart, for 42 years connected with the street department of this city, four sons, Edward T. Stuart, George A. Stuart, Treasurer and General Manager of Mitchell-Woodbury Co., Boston, Charles P. Stuart, Asst. Supt. of Pumping Stations, Metropolitan District Commission, and Vincent C. Stuart, formerly a member of the 101st Regiment U. S. Field Artillery, and three daughters, Mrs. Edward Fall, wife of Dr. Edward Fall of Newton, Lillian M. Stuart, secretary of the auxiliary, Newton Post No. 48, American Legion, and Veronica A. Stuart.

Interment was at Watertown, Mass.

DEATH OF MR. LINCOLN

George T. Lincoln, a former resident of West Newton, one of the organizers of the City Press Association, for more than 30 years editor of the Banker & Tradesman and owner of the paper until a year ago, died at his home, 134 Pleasant street, Brookline, Sunday, after a long illness.

Mr. Lincoln was 62 years of age. He was a suburban reporter for the Boston Globe in Somerville and Charlestown from 1878 to the fall of 1879. In 1884 he was court reporter for the Globe, and in 1891, with David J. McGrath, he organized the City Press Association, which dissolved in 1897. He then returned to the Globe. In 1896 he bought a controlling interest in the Banker & Tradesman Company of Boston and for a long period served as its treasurer. About a year and one-half ago he retired from active business. For many years he lived in Newton, moving to Brookline a few months ago.

Mr. Lincoln was born in Westboro, June 3, 1858, his family moving to North Brookfield soon after. He was educated in the North Brookfield schools and established the first weekly paper there. He studied law in the office of Charles P. Lincoln, attended the Harvard Law School and was admitted to the Massachusetts bar. He was for a time assistant to the president of the West Shore Railroad in New York.

Mr. Lincoln was a member of the Dalhousie Lodge of Masons of Newton and the Neighborhood Club and Brae-Burn Golf Club of West Newton. He was secretary of the Somerville Board of Overseers of the Poor in 1885.

Mr. Lincoln was twice married. His first wife was Hattie E. Wilson, daughter of ex-Mayor Wilson of Newton. She died. He then married Adelaide Trombley of Montpelier, Vt., who died in January, 1919. He is survived by a son, E. Wilson Lincoln of Allston, and a daughter, Mrs. Lewis B. Winton of Watertown.

Simple funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Julian C. Jaynes of West Newton officiated. Burial was at Newton Cemetery.

No. 8199.
Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
LAND COURT.

To Charles F. Ward, Frederick A. Ward, David A. Waugh, Sophie P. Waugh, Ellen T. Kennedy, Gertrude B. Martin and Annie W. Proctor, of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, and said Commonwealth; Tomasi Dambrosio, of Everett, in said County of Middlesex; Florence A. Proctor, of Aromas, and Caroline E. Wald, of Los Angeles, in the State of California; and to all whom it may concern:

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court by William H. Rice and Irving C. Paul, of said Newton, to register and confirm their title in the following described land:

A certain parcel of land situate in said Newton bounded and described as follows:

Northeasterly by land of Waugh, Dambrosio and John Ward Estate one hundred seventy four and 9/100 (174.90) feet; Southeasterly by land of Annie W. Proctor four hundred fifteen and 76/100 (415.76) feet; Southwest by land of Martin and W. of Kennedy, one hundred fifty three and 64/100 (153.64) feet; and Northwest by Nobscot Road as shown on a plan hereinafter mentioned by two lines eighty seven and 50/100 (87.50) feet and three hundred fifty and 67/100 (350.67) feet.

The above described land is shown on a plan filed with said petition and all boundary lines are claimed to be located on the ground as shown on said plan.

You are hereby cited to appear at the Land Court to be held at Boston, in the County of Suffolk, on the thirtieth day of June A. D. 1921, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted, and unless you appear at said Court at the time and place aforesaid your default will be recorded, and the said petition will be taken as confessed, and you will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any decree entered thereon.

Witness, Charles Thornton Davis, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this seventh day of May in the year nineteen hundred and twenty one.

TROOP 7, BOY SCOUTS

There were over fifty boys at the last troop meeting.

Several boys were prepared for their Court of Honor tests, which they will take tonight with Deputy Commissioner L. R. W. Leland in charge.

The following boys are on the list: Second class tests, Paul Kenyon, Charles Miller, Valiant Kenney and Francis Rogers; tenderfoot tests, Horace Rounds, Roland Patrick, Kenneth Sperl, Ralph Kenyon, John Bond and Clifford Snow.

Captain Phil Hoyt gave the troop a raking-over for not having won the game with the Roger Wolcott School. This proved to be worth while because the second game in this series was won Tuesday afternoon by Troop 7.

SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake
Stearns School

The attendance for April was as follows: Miss Munn's room with the highest per cent, 98.1; Mr. Dacey's second with 97.2, and Miss Lovely's and Miss Swann's rooms, tying for third place with 97.1 per cent.

Miss Welch and Miss Stoddard took their classes, grade seven, on another history trip to Lexington and Concord May 10th. All enjoyed it very much.

Owing to the many different attractions taking place on or about the 18th, the Boy Scout entertainment and dance has been postponed. It is hoped this will be held in the Fall, when school reopens. All those who have purchased tickets will have their money refunded to them by the Scout of whom they got it.

The Stearns baseball team had an easy victory over the boys representing the Mason School, winning by the score of 16-7. The game was played on Victory Field.

The minstrel show to be put on by the members of the eighth grade is gradually taking shape. The rehearsals point to a very good show. Thursday evening, May 26, has been decided upon as the date.

A junior club for girls was organized at Stearns School center on Monday, May 9th. A program for Spring activities was discussed and election of officers followed. Helen Fisher was elected president, Eva Masse vice-president, Emma Boisclair secretary and Doris Porter treasurer. Meetings will be held weekly at Stearns School Center.

Lasell

Gayly colored balloons and the freshman class colors of purple and gold made festive the campus on Wednesday afternoon for the lawn party the freshmen gave in honor of the senior and junior classes. Refreshments were served and an orchestra played for dancing.

Field day on Monday was a great success. It was held at the Riverside recreation grounds, the juniors winning by a few points in the interclass meet, also winning the baseball game, the score being 10-7.

A large number of girls are on the river every afternoon for crew practice under the direction of the coach, Mr. Ordway.

This Saturday the Woodland Park School will go on its annual trip to Plymouth.

On Monday the Lasell girls will take the old Boston and Harvard trip.

Mason School

The Masons played their second league game on Tuesday afternoon with the Stearns team. They were defeated, 16-7.

The record for best attendance during the last month was in room seven, grade five, with a percentage of 95.2.

Great interest in the gaining of weight has been shown again this year in the Bowen School. The work of the clinic of 1920 has been followed up, and there are several children ready to receive diplomas, showing that they have reached the normal weight.

One girl in particular (Nunciata Caruso) has made rapid progress. In September she was ten pounds under weight. On November 25 she had Grades through to seven inclusive are interested in swelling their savings accounts. The room that has the largest amount receives a poster made by A. Hudson, which it keeps until it is won by another room.

Next week room three, grade 4, will have it, having saved $32.96.

Ralph Waldo Emerson School

The baseball team won the second game of the schedule last week from the Hyde at Newton Highlands. The score was 10 to 2.

"Little Mary Redcross," the doll owned by Mrs. Frank Fanning, contributed $5 last week for equipment of the baseball team.

A beautiful nautilus shell, purchased by the late Mrs. Darius Cobb for the school, has been presented to the school by Miss Cora S. Cobb in the name of her mother.

The Civics Committee of the Upper Falls Woman's Club secured for the kindergarten a good piano. The improvement is much appreciated.

LODGES

The Tennyson Rebekah Lodge will hold a May basket party on Tuesday, May 17th, at 8 P. M. in Odd Fellows' Hall. The May baskets are to contain supper for two and are to be auctioned off. Following the supper there will be dancing. Miss Elsie Walker is chairman of the committee which has the party in charge.

On Thursday, May 19, the Newton Lodge, No. 92, will work the third degree. There will be candidates from the Governor Gore Lodge of Waltham and the Nonantum Lodge of Allston, the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, and the District Deputy Grand Master.

The Grand Master, S. A. Reed and his suite, representing Arthur L. Derbyshire, are expected to be present.

The Newton Lodge, No. 92, will go to Hingham on May 27th for the purpose of working the third degree.

The 102d anniversary of the Odd Fellows was celebrated by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs on Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows' Hall. A lobster salad supper was served by the committee: Mrs. Archie A. Wilson, Mrs. Howard Hatt and Mrs. A. C. Smith.

Mr. Roy C. Buck was in charge of the entertainment, which consisted of a moving picture show by the Tide Power Co., followed by whist and dancing. Hayes Orchestra furnished the music. About 250 were present and the occasion was a most enjoyable one.

Garden City Grange, P. of H., met Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows' Hall, Newtonville. A large number of applications were received. There was a long discussion on "Poultry" raising. At the next meeting, May 24, the subject for discussion will be "Birds."

Tonight a large delegation will visit "Holliston Grange," being "Pomona Night." Supper served at 7 P. M.

Wednesday evening, May 18th, "Garden City Grange" will visit "Needham Grange" and will furnish the entertainment.

NEW COMPTROLLER ELECTED

Board of Aldermen Choose Daniel A. White for This Important Position

The outstanding feature of the meeting of the aldermen on Monday night was the unanimous election of Mr. Daniel A. White of Newton as Comptroller of Accounts. This action came after Alderman Nichols had explained the manner in which the committee which nominated Mr. White had arrived at this result.

Aldermen Blake and Jewell were the only members absent from this meeting, which was opened as usual with a long list of hearings. A large number of residents appeared in favor of the laying out of Old Colony road, Mayflower road and Priscilla road at Chestnut Hill and a representative of the H. F. Stimpson estate spoke in opposition. A number of persons favored curbing on Chapel street and no one opposed.

Sidewalks on Brookside road were favored by Messrs. R. F. Gammons, P. N. Aborn and H. M. Kimball and opposed by John Cutler and Hon. Herbert S. Riley.

No one appeared at a hearing on Edison poles on Fairfax street and the order was subsequently adopted. No one appeared at the hearing on petition of Paul N. Doherty for an auto repair shop on Gambier street, Ward 4.

Mayor Childs' recommendations for $12,000 for furniture for the new Angier school at Waban, for appropriations for certain laborers' pensions and for a 1919 deficit of $33.75 were approved. His invitation to members of the board to serve on his staff as chief marshal of the Memorial Day parade was accepted, as was his invitation for the board to attend the exercises next Saturday on the Burr Playground. He also sent in the request of City Hall clerks for a three weeks' vacation, and of the school committee for $5000 for better lighting in the various school houses.

Auctioneer licenses were granted H. H. Read and Amato Pescosolido, a street musician license to Carmin Colalucia, common victualler licenses to Wm. H. Armstrong, Auburn street; Anderenia Beshong, Centre street; A. Shordone, Watertown street; taxi cab licenses to C. W. Keefe and Frank Bony; a truck license to W. H. McNaughton; sale of second-hand motor vehicles to the Evans Motor Car Co. and the Newton Used Car Co.; 3 pool tables to Nicholas Tucci, Oak street; permit to sell gasoline to Chas. Lecont, Lexington street, and private garage permits to G. H. Brown, Mill street; J. B. Watt, Winchester street; M. J. Norton, Adams street; W. H. Bixby, Lowell avenue; R. R. Merchant, Sewall street; R. M. Upson, Eliot avenue; Mary A. Madigan, Washington street; A. C. Dauphine, Quinobquin road; Geo. W. Sheridan, Beacon street; F. W. Allen, Highland avenue; J. W. Clark, Walnut street, and J. A. Senior, California street, and George V. Burns, 2 trucks. Third class liquor licenses were also granted to F. A. Hubbard Co., Alex. Fox, E. F. Quinlan, H. G. Tuttle, W. G. Colligan, H. E. Woodman, B. M. Burke, J. E. Crowlde and J. T. Waterhouse Co.

Other petitions were received from A. Marcoccio, California street; Andrew Mazzone, Chestnut street; Ernest Saras, Washington street, and A. M. Palmer, Winchester street, for common victualler licenses; Nanette Amia, Playstead road; Wm. J. Orr, Omar terrace; W. E. Jewell, Gilbert street, and D. O. Cornish, Judkins street, for private garages, for the laying out of Newland street, Gammons road and Byfield road and of J.

MAY FESTIVAL

At Channing Church A Success Despite Weather Conditions

Despite unfavorable weather conditions the Channing Church May Festival was an unqualified success, and a substantial sum was netted by the Sunshine Girls as a reward for their efforts. The parlors were filled with expectant children awaiting the grand procession, which was led by Patty Niles, Alice Scofield and Margaret Nichols. Following them came the May Queen, Adelaide Simpson, with canopy borne aloft by Elizabeth Scofield, Elizabeth Hollis and Eleanor Rackliffe. David Murray and Herbert Mellus were the train bearers and Malcolm Murray bore the crown. The dancers came next, while the clowns, Baldwin Pearson and Edward Mellus and the elephant, brought up the rear. All proceeded to the stage where the May Queen, now crowned, presided over the revels, which consisted of solo dances by Marjorie Shaw, Carolyn Hodgson, Iola Niles, Ruth Pearson, Mary McPherson, all being exceedingly well done. The dance around the May pole closed the formal program, after which all joined in informal dancing to the melodious strains of a hurdy-gurdy. Balloons and other time-honored noise-producing articles added to the festivities. Tea was served by the Sunshine Girls in Japanese costume in the Tea Garden, which was tastefully decorated with lanterns and cherry blossoms. (Continued on page 8)

THE NEW COMPTROLLER

A Few Facts About Mr. Daniel A. White

The important position of Comptroller of Accounts of this city was filled Monday night at the meeting of the aldermen by the unanimous election of Mr. Daniel A. White.

The office has been vacant some weeks following the resignation in March of Mr. John Daboll.

The salary for the present year is fixed at $3000.

Mr. White was born in Newton Highlands some 45 years ago and now resides on Park street, Newton. For the past 11 years he has been auditor and assistant treasurer of the Cambridge Electric Light Co. and previous to this was, for 6 years, employed by the Newton and Watertown Gas Light Co. He has served for some years on the Accounting Committee of the New England Branch of the National Electric Light Association and for two years was a member of the Accounting Committee of the National organization. He is treasurer of Grace Church, Newton, and of the Nonantum Co-operative Bank. Mr. White is married and has a family consisting of a wife and four children. It is expected that he will take charge of the office within a few days.

Leading Fruits.

The eight leading fruits consumed in New York city during the course of one year would fill 50,000 freight cars. This would make a train 370 miles long.

K. OF C. MINSTRELS

Newton Council Gives Four Performances at Strand Theatre, Watertown, with Mayor Childs as Interlocutor

Newton Council, Knights of Columbus, has held a gala week with four performances of its second annual minstrel show at the Strand Theatre, Watertown, which have been attended by large audiences on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights. The performance last night being for the benefit of Boston College.

The show was given under the direction of Mr. Louis J. Tabaldi and was in two parts, the first being the usual circle with Mayor Edwin O. Childs as interlocutor and the end men being in black face. The end men were: Samuel Longbottom, Edward F. Maguire, John J. Keefe, John E. Barwise, Joseph A. Delancy, M. Ambrose Doherty, Leonard E. Murphy and John L. Grant. Solos were contributed by John L. Grant, Edward F. Maguire, Miss Frances Mahar, Leonard Murphy, John Joyce, M. A. Doherty, John J. Keefe, Miss Agnes Dumas, Joseph A. Delancy, John E. Barwise, Joseph Antonelli and Samuel Longbottom. At intermission there were solos by Eddie King and Miss Mildred Doherty.

There were many clever jokes and tuneful songs and the repartee was much enjoyed.

The second part included a dancing specialty by William Phair and Miss Susie Sullivan, a musical burlesque by Madden and Kyllor, ballet by Catherine Walsh, assisted by Julia Quigley, Margaret Matthews, Mary Phair, Mildred Doherty, Lillian Shaughnessy and Alice Hurlihy; a specialty by John Higgins, the "sailor girls" by Bella Roberge, Catherine Mahon, Josephine Haley, Margaret Burr, Mary Morrison, Ethel Morrell, Lena Landry and Ethel DeWolfe; and the "hod carriers," by Samuel Longbottom, Thomas Joyce, James Maguire, Edward Keegan, James Couseneau, Leo Moran and Joseph Cullinan.

The feature of the second part was the clever and graceful dancing of little five year old Susie Sullivan.

Thomas Black was the stage manager and Henry Kinchla and Dominic McBride his assistants. Miss Kathleen Boyle was chief of the following ushers: Misses Veronica Clark, Eleanor Barry, Eleanor Coleman, Elizabeth McMinn, Louise Vachon and Marion King.

The committee of arrangements comprised Past Grand Knight John Hickey, honorary chairman; Samuel (Continued on Page 8)

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Burr School

The children of the Burr Kindergarten have been very busy getting ready for a May Party to entertain their mothers.

It was held in the Kindergarten Monday afternoon, May 16th. The program was varied and interesting. The first half-hour was given over to Kindergarten songs, arranged in groups—Spring Songs, Bird Songs, Flower Songs, Martial Songs, Mother Goose Songs, etc.

After that the children danced around the May Pole which Mr. Coleman kindly fixed for them and wound it with pink and blue streamers.

Then came a group of typical Kindergarten games and rhythms in which all the children took part.

Next on the program was a group of special dances: Minuet, danced by Barbara Ordway, Sylvia Wilkerson, Judith Mattison, Marion Ryan, Ronald Lamont, Clarence Bedient, Wilbur Small and Russell Nicholson; Sailors' Hop, by Clarence Bedient; Fairy Dance, by Evelyn Bowler; French Dolly, by Mary Feerick, and Sandman Dance, by Anna Shea.

The last number was a dramatization of one of the Kindergarten Songs—a Garden Game—taking in all the children as follows:—Flowers, Barbara Ordway, Sylvia Wilkerson, Geraldine Rose, Marion Ryan, Paul Jones, Edward Carey, Ronald Lamont, Frederick Ray, Marion Ryan, Albert Thayer, Nathaniel Groby, Albert Thayer, Mary Feerick, Evelyn Bowler, Barbara Kollmyer, Paul Kiley, Minnie Kane, Russell Nicholson, Louis Sallemme, Robert Adams, Betty Cary, Bees, Philip Murphy, Vittorio D'Urbano, Harry Udin, Marcel Orleans, Roy Paul, Everett Frost, Herbert Smith, Louis Russo, Harris Dorne, Sun, Joseph Manning, Wind, Louisa Pender, Clouds, Wilbur Small, Clarence Bedient, Rain-drops, Judith Mattison, Anna Shea.

The children were all in costume for the special dances, and for the garden game and were very sweet.

Mrs. Woodbury and Miss Wilson wish to take this opportunity to thank the mothers for their kindness and cooperation in this first year without Miss Aiken's guiding hand.

Hyde School

During the past week, a number of the seventh and eighth grade pupils chaperoned by their teachers, attended matinee performances of "The Merchant of Venice" at the Copley Theatre.

Miss Green's room, fifth grade, with Miss Ryder's fifth grade as their guests had an interesting lesson recently with lantern slides showing Washington and Niagara Falls.

Our star class in attendance is the first grade, Miss Lewis, teacher. Last month they had only one tardy mark.

Mrs. Joseph Allen on Thursday of last week entertained Miss Abbott's class in Geography class with a most interesting and instructive account of her tour through Japan. Mrs. Blakemore's and Miss Sampson's pupils were the guests of Miss Abbott's class on this occasion.

The bird club in Miss Ryder's room, fifth grade, has been named the "Hiawatha Club." Frederick Godsoe is president, and Marjorie Dow is secretary.

Miss Ryder's pupils won in a spelling match last week against the other fifth grade, Miss Green's room.

The seventh grades are greatly enjoying their history study at present. Under the direction of their teachers, Miss Abbott and Mrs. Blakemore, the lessons are being illustrated by lantern slides showing the history of America from the time of the landing of Columbus until the death of Montcalm.

We are very glad to welcome back to school Paul Norton of the eighth grade and Gardner Reynolds of the fifth grade, both of whom recently underwent serious operations.

The fifth grade baseball team has made quite a reputation for itself. Last week they won both sixth grade teams. The score of the game with Miss Grant's room was 15 to 5, and that with Miss Tabor's was 15 to 3.

The fourth grade, Miss Greene's pupils, entertained the fifth grade not long ago with an unique health play, entitled: "Little Vegetable Men."

Cliffin School

Our first league game was played with the Mason School, at Newton Centre Playground, on May 12th. The game resulted in a score of 5-2 in favor of the Horace Mann-Cliffin team.

The second league game of the Horace Mann-Cliffin baseball team was played at Burr Park, May 17 against the Bigelow School. The game resulted in a victory of 10 to 1 in favor of the Horace Mann-Cliffin team.

Mason School

The sixth grade of the Mason School played the Bowen School in baseball last Wednesday and won 13-6.

On Thursday the Horace Mann school defeated the Horace Mann school 5 to 2. Tuesday the 17th, the Mason won a 20 to 15 victory over the Pierce on the Newton grounds.

The girls of the seventh grade are arranging a tennis tournament to be run off on the playground.

Roger Wolcott School

By one run! That is the story of the Roger Wolcott, Hyde School league game. In the ninth the Wolcott spirit won, overpowering the splendid Hyde nine at the Roger Wolcott Playground. It was nip and tuck all the way, exciting and thrilling from the first ball pitched to the winning tally. Among the exciting rooters were Misses Wyman, Brown, and Goodhue of the Wolcott faculty and Principals Miller and Crowell were on their toes time after time. Both teams played well and it is difficult to pick out individual stars. The Wolcott lineup included: Manager Johnson, c; Captain Hill, p; Hayward Woolston, 1b; Robert Annable, 2b; Harry Thayer, s; Wesley Walton, 3b; Bob Marsh, cf; John Meissner, lf; and Earle Bourne, rf.

In the game with the Daddies of the boys, Saturday, the School team was easily outclassed. Malcolm Hill pitched a fine game and Frank Spain was a marvel at short.

Monday, the School nine easily defeated a Pierce School nine at the West Newton Playground, Thayer pitching perfect baseball.

Tuesday, Mr. Crowell, Misses Brown, Wyman and Goodhue took the upper grades to the Boston-Chicago big league game at Braves' Field, Boston.

Grade Eight again won the highest attendance percentage, but had a close second and third. Grades Two and Three with their teachers, Miss Wyman and Miss Goodhue are having a regular athletic meet during the physical training periods and it looks as if Grade Two might win in the finals.

The Field Day which could not be fully completed last Saturday on account of the rain, has been postponed until tomorrow.

Miss Kathrina P. Kimball, Kindergarten at the Roger Wolcott School for a term of many years, loved by children and parents alike, has received and accepted a call to a position in the Park Private School in Brookline. There she will have very much smaller classes and an extremely flattering increase in salary. She will be greatly missed, however, in the neighborhood and the love of all Waban is hers for past services nobly done and she is keenly wished by everyone marked success and joy in her new school.

Stearns School

The Mothers' Club annual banquet was held at Stearns School Centre on Monday evening, May 17th. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Kenelm Winslow, Mayor Edwin O. Childs, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. O. Holman, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Waterhouse, Mrs. Wm. E. Jones, Mrs. Wm. H. Lucas, Mrs. G. W. Auryansen, Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden, Miss Annie Weeks, and Miss Louise Lovett. The arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Harry B. Stebbins, Mrs. Eben H. Ellison, and Mrs. Loren D. Sibley who were ably assisted by the president, Mrs. F. Seward, the officers, and the social committee of the club.

Musical selections were given by Mr. Wm. Holman, Mrs. Andrew MacLachlan, and Mrs. Stebbins, and readings by Mrs. Binks and Mrs. Bessie McCarthy.

The school baseball team defeated the nine representing the Peirce School, 13-8 on Victory Field, Thursday afternoon. It was Stearns' second victory of the week. Coyne and Pass pitched for Stearns with Moran doing the catching. Leary was in the points for Peirce, with Hart receiving him. The features of the game were the home runs of Jimmie Butler and Jimmie Lawler. Both were sensational hits, the batsmen circling the bases before the ball was returned to the infield.

Miss Eddington's class took its annual trip to Concord and Lexington, Tuesday visiting Concord Bridge, Town Hall and Sleepy Hollow Cemetery.

On the way to Lexington they stopped at the Louisa M. Alcott house, the well where Washington drank and the tablet of interest along the road. While at Lexington they visited the Munroe Tavern, headquarters and hospital of Earl Percy; the granite cannon by the High School which marks the site of one of the field pieces placed by Earl Percy to cover the retreat of the British troops.

At the Common, the Hayes Memorial Fountain with an ideal statue of a Minute Man facing the line of approach of the British; the granite pulpit which marks the site of the old church where which Pitcairn led his men; a boulder locating the position of the Old Belfry where the alarm was sounded on its bell Apr. 19, 1775, afforded much interest.

The Buckman Tavern across the way from the Common was thrown open to the children for the first time Tuesday. It was the meeting place of the Minute Men. It is an object of historical interest. The Lexington Hancock Adams House was the last place visited. It is interesting for historical associations as well as for a valuable collection of relics.

Lasell

On Monday a large number of girls went on the school's annual trip to old Boston and Cambridge. Sight-seeing busses conveyed the party, and the students had a very pleasant morning and one filled with historic interest.

The parlors of the seminary was the scene of a most delightful reception on Wednesday evening given by Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Winslow.

Adding to the pleasure of the guests was the recital which took place at the close of the formal reception, when three seniors, Miss Dorothy Shove, Marshalltown, Iowa; Miss Alice Pope, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Miss Mary F. King of Haverhill, Mass., presented a very fine musical program.

Many out-of-town guests have arrived for the Glee Club concert which is to take place this evening under the leadership of Miss Marion Bodwell of Sanford, Maine.

River Day, when the inter-class races are to be held, will take place on next Thursday at 2.30. The crews have been chosen, but, as in years past, there will probably be shifting before the final list is given out.

Miss Riddle, Supt. of nurses at the Newton Hospital, is to be the speaker this morning at the lecture hour.

Sunday vespers will be in charge of Mr. Stanley High of Boston University.

The sight-seeing party on Monday morning will this week visit the Navy Yard.

Vocational High School

There will be an inspection of the work done by the pupils of the Newton Vocational High School on Thursday, May 26, at 8 P. M. All residents of the city are invited to attend this inspection and see for themselves just what the students have been doing during the past year and to examine the equipment with which they work. The Vocational High School is one of the best equipped in the country and all who wish to see the work will find plenty of interesting sights.

Newton Classical High School

The Senior dance at Bray Hall last Friday evening proved to be both a social and financial success. There were about 100 couples present. A little more than $100 has been added to the Senior Class treasury, as a result of this dance.

This afternoon in the gym a "Review" dance was given. If the financial returns are encouraging a special 32-page issue of the "Review" will be published next month.

Plans are under way for a concert which is to be given by the combined musical clubs of the school, namely: the orchestra, the mandolin club, and the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs. The exact date will be announced later.

Monday at Cliffin Field, Brookline tied things with Newton by defeating them 6 to 5. The score shows that the victory was a complete surprise to Newton. Wednesday afternoon at Cliffin Field, Newton defeated Malden 6 to 3. Tomorrow Newton meets Somerville at Newtonville.

During the first half hour on Wednesday the seniors had their first singing lesson in preparation for graduation. The fact that many of the seniors are members of the glee clubs ought to be a guarantee for some exceptional singing in June.

E. Sherman for transfer of license to sell second-hand motor vehicles to 9 Needham street.

A hearing was assigned on the proposed relocation of Ash and Auburn streets, Auburndale.

Petition of the Telephone Co. for attachments on Boylston street and of the Boston Elevated Railway Co. for a temporary track location on Tremont street were granted.

A pool table license for Giovanni Geraci was first opposed by Alderman Melcher, but he later withdrew his opposition and the license was granted at 6 Hartford street.

There was a long discussion over the majority report of the license committee favoring the granting of a permit to the Jenney Mfg. Co. to sell gasoline at the corner of Walnut and Beacon streets. Alderman Morse explained that the company had agreed to give the land to round the corner, to agree to give land enough in the future to widen Walnut street by 20 feet and to agree to a building line on Beacon street. The entrance and exit to the proposed filling station were to be satisfactory to the City Engineer.

Alderman Heathcote first quoted Alderman Blake as opposed to this permit and subsequently opposed the grant, as he considered this one of the most dangerous corners in the city. Alderman Heathcote's motion to table for a month was lost. The matter was favored by Aldermen Lloyd and Carter and was granted by a substantial vote.

Hammond street, from Beacon street to the Brookline line, was designated as the first street in which the Edison company was to begin placing its underground conduits under its agreement to expend $20,000 a year for this purpose during the next five years. A sewer was also ordered placed in Hammond street, near Ward street.

Favorable reports of the license committee on petitions of Peter Durant for a pool license and a common victualer license on Bridge street and unfavorable reports on petitions of Henley Bros. to sell gasoline at 2099 Commonwealth avenue and Edward Hines to sell gasoline at 9 Needham street were recommended.

Land damages of $600.48 were awarded on account of Algonquin road and $43,244 appropriated for the construction of Morton road, Morton street, Royce road, Victoria Circle, Canterbury road, Mason road and Eastbourne road under the betterment act. Three hundred and eighty dollars was authorized for a box stall at the Willow street stable, and the Mayor authorized to make agreement with the B. &amp; A. R. Co. relative to surface drainage from Canterbury road.

Two amendments to the building code were approved, one to allow buildings of second class construction to be located nearer the lot line than at present and the other to allow the erection of buildings in amusement parks under special regulations. A proposed ordinance relative to temporary buildings for ice houses was dismissed.

The Building Committee reported it was inadvisable to use the old Lower Falls fire station for a branch library. The same committee recommended that specific recommendations should be made by the Mayor for the use of the old church building at West Newton for the branch library and for additional room for the city treasurer and also for a proposed garage for use of the Library automobile.

Alderman Whidden rather resented the facetious remark of one of the board that his committee was "passing the buck" in recommending reference to the committee on education of several matters regarding additional school accommodations. Mr. Whidden believed these matters had an important bearing on the question of the junior high school.

Soldiers' relief was granted to Giuseppe Forto, Andrew Farrell and Carl J. Davis and claim of Mrs. Dennis Foley for personal injuries was refused.

The board adjourned at 9.50.

THE PLAYERS

The Players presented the three-act comedy, "Nothing But the Truth," at Players Hall, West Newton, before capacity audiences.

The cast consisted of Mrs. Francis Newhall, Miss Marguerite Ayres, Miss Phyllis Combs, Miss Mary Newhall, Miss Margaret E. Daniels, Miss Eleanor Leighton and Messrs. J. de Vere Simmons, E. Irving Locke, Arthur W. Hollis, Philip Gardner and Waldo Glidden.

The Acting Manager was Mr. Frank E. Powle, stage manager was W. V. Marsh, and he was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weston.

The ushers were Messrs. Arthur T. Lovett, Stearns Poor, G. Edwin Peters, Amos R. Bancroft, Lawrence Ames, and Hon. Chas. E. Hatfield.

The play was given on Tuesday and Thursday nights and will be repeated tonight and tomorrow night.

DOG SHOW

The annual Ladies' Kennel Show will be held in Auburndale on June 10th and it is expected that the display of former years will be eclipsed by the entries of the coming show. Cash prizes amounting to $1,000 will be offered and several features of a novel nature will be introduced for the first time. Entries will close on May 15, the entrance fee being $2.00. All entering between that date and May 31 will be required to pay an entrance fee of $3.00. The officers of the club are Mrs. W. N. G. Clark, president; Mrs. F. Gerry Snow, Jr., and Mrs. John Russell, vice presidents; Mrs. Winana Burnett, treasurer; Mrs. C. A. Orcutt, secretary; Mrs. Watson Coleman, Mrs. Meyer S. Sternburg, Mrs. P. L. Norton, Miss Elizabeth Harding and Mrs. A. E. Tukey, executive committee; Mrs. Mayer S. Sternburg and Miss Elizabeth Harding, chief ring stewards; Mrs. Elbridge Gerry Snow, Jr., delegate; Dr. E. T. Ryan, and Dr. C. A. Boutell, veterinarians.

NEWTON W. C. T. U.

The May meeting of the Newton W. C. T. U. was held Thursday, May 5, at the home of Mrs. Irving N. Towne, 57 Bellevue street, Newton, Mass. Ella A. Gleason, State President, was the speaker of the afternoon.

Mrs. Gleason, in her usual enthusiastic manner, spoke of her experiences, in London, last summer, at the World Conference. Throughout her address, she held the audience enthralled, now chuckling with merriment, now on the point of tears. The message she brought to the Union was the cry of the representatives at the World Conference, "Women of America, we look to you, we look to you!"

A social hour followed and the meeting was adjourned to meet in June with Mrs. George Agry, 47 Park street, Newton.

The Central Middlesex Convention will be held at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Cambridge, Tuesday, May 24, from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M.

Large Audience Applauds Pupils of Miss Grace C. Kerivan

More than 900 people attended the second May Festival given recently by pupils of Miss Grace C. Kerivan in Bray Hall, Newton Centre. This festival was the largest of its kind ever held in Newton, and great credit is due to Miss Kerivan for the unusual program presented.

The costumes designed by Miss Kerivan for the occasion were most effective. Many novelties appeared on the program, such as Miss Mildred MacDonald as "East Side," Miss Margaret Curley as a "Boothblack," Miss Helen Reay as "Love," Miss Dorothy Thornton as the "Spirit of Fire," and Miss Gladys Stevens as "Evening."

Miss Audrey White in a white ballet costume, danced "The Swan," one of Pavlova's famous dances, in a most effective and pleasing manner. Among the most popular numbers was the Calendar dance. This included the celebration of one day representative of each month.

The "Awakening of the Flowers," a ballet taken from one of the oldest fairy tales, with accompanying music by Dirigo, was also very effective. The program concluded with a May-pole ensemble that pleased everybody.

Mr. Frank E. Maher had charge of the spotlight and electrical effects. Those taking part follow:

Muriel Anderson, Alice Babbitt, Eleanor Babbitt, Daisey Bernier, Frances Gotshall, Catherine Hodges, Ruth Howlett, Mary Macpherson, Miriam Marshall, Paula Melanson, Eola Niles, Patricia Niles, Evelyn Messer, Helen Nagel, Edith Pearson, Ruth Pearson, Elizabeth Rees, Barbara King, Mary Burns, Mildred Burns, Mary Louise Burns, Ella Beecher, Mildred Connelley, Margaret Curley, Helen Coakley, Marguerite Burke, Martha Bolger, Margaret Coleman, Gertrude English, Marjorie Mallaney, Mildred McDonald, Alice Murphy, Ethel Murphy, Helen Reay, Marian Shaughnessy, Gladys Stevens, Margaret Morrison, Florence McEllan, Helen Tierney, Ruth Turley, Priscilla White, Marguerite Bernier, Dorothy Woods, Margaret Miller, Margaret Kerivan, Dorothy Thornton, Audrey White, Mae Burke, Florence Burke, Eleanor Carey, Mary Mullin, Pauline McMinn, Catherine Mutch, Eleanor Murphy, Catherine Mallaney, Barbara McDonald, Grace G. O'Malley, Marion Sculley, Margaret Tierney, Dagmar Wilson, Florence Coakley, Mary Waters, Gertrude Morrison, Gertrude Hannigan, Alice McConville, Geraldine Miller, Sylvia Sheldon, Elizabeth Massey, Catherine Bouzan, Doris McMullin, Dorothy A. Mattson, Mary Jordan.

The ushers were: Mr. Fred A. Cahill, Mr. Raymond Cunningham, Mr. Albert DeLorey, Mr. George E. Kerivan, Mr. Thomas L. Kilmain, Mr. Charles D. O'Malley, Mr. Louis O'Malley.

A FAITHFUL WITNESS

A sweet, courageous life left our sight on Thursday of last week (May 5). In the passing of Miss Anne E. Baker of Newton, not only friends, but the community at large will miss the beneficent activity of a gentlewoman bent on doing good. All who personally knew Miss Baker and the wider circle of those who were touched by her unselfish devotion, as sharers in her work and as its beneficiaries, will be glad to read something about her at this time.

Many years ago Miss Baker's attention was called to the need of certain individuals and families shut in, or shut off, from the most ordinary comforts and good things of life by remoteness or poverty or more especially by some barrier of loneliness. She desired to bring a bit of sunshine to all such deprived ones, and to insure that the sun would keep on shining for them, even though perhaps just a little glint through a very clouded window pane, and she seemed to be guided to many of those who needed the wholesome ministrations of neighbors by some sickness of body or of heart. She wished to do something for the lame, the ignorant, the ill-tempered perhaps, who had thus become imprisoned in the miserable cells of limitation. To these she was a personal friend who cared and who cared for them. There was in her nature a passion of unselfishness and of desire to serve, and she applied herself in sending magazines, notes and little gifts to her "shut-ins" and "shut-outs" here and there all through the year and in special and larger ministrations at Christmas-tide and on other occasions. The work grew in scope and became a life work added to the cares of her own household and sweetening her home by the precious sense of sharing everything regardless of her own leisure. It was the expression of unselfish devotion, calling for courage, patience and honesty of purpose. Of recent years and as other benevolent individuals learned of her work and that it was indeed a real work of practical helpfulness, aid was offered to her, and she found it expedient to turn over to those who had kindled at the light she herself reflected names and addresses so that they might "carry on."

The consistent, faithful service of this true witness to the mind of Christ was of the kind that by its very report among us blessed the entire community. It is safe to say that such an example of pure love for unfortunates and of triumph over their mortal discouragement has a vitality and an influence for the advancement of Christianity that mere institutional activity could never attain. Without the spontaneity and grace of truly self-forgetful work the elaborate system and vast disbursements of organized charity are useless. Such lives follow the faith of the Master in demonstration of all conquering love, and illustrate the "more excellent way," the way which hath hope and faith for its ministers in the task.

MISS GRACE C. KERIVAN

THIRD MUSICAL FESTIVAL

The third annual Musical Festival of the Norumbega District Sunday School Association, held last Sunday afternoon in the Eliot Church, Newton, was the most successful yet conducted, judging by the numbers present and the quality of the singing.

The attendance was close to 1700. The older departments of the Sunday Schools of the District—i. e., the Junior, Intermediate and Senior departments, met in the auditorium of the church. Mr. G. L. Foster of Belmont presided, Rev. Earl E. Harper of Auburndale directed the singing and Dr. C. N. Arbuckle of Newton Centre gave much pleasure by the telling of a story as a part of the program.

An interesting feature was the rendering of an anthem, "Lift up your Heads, O Ye Gates," by six Junior choirs, totalling nearly 200 voices, under local leaders, but at 3 o'clock on Sunday, by one joint rehearsal. Mr. Harper welded these separate choirs into one splendid chorus.

Posters to advertise the Festival have been made in a number of churches. Those who made the two best posters will receive a prize, but will be equally pleased to learn that Mr. Harper is to have lantern slides made of these two posters, for use when he lectures on the subject of music in the church school.

The Primary department section of the Festival was held in the chapel of the church, where Rev. C. W. Brashares of Newton presided. The Belmont Street Baptist Primary department sang alone an opening song. The Eliot Church Primary department sang a missionary song called "The Whisper Song." Other hymns were splendidly sung by all the children present. Stories were told by Miss Persis Richardson of Belmont, Mrs. H. W. Fitts of Newton and Mrs. Mary M. Russell of Boston.

GARDEN NEWS

The success of the potato crop depends very largely upon two important things that must be done at this season of the year. The first of these is the selection and preparation of the seed bed. Where it is possible to make a selection and quite often this can be done even in a very limited area, it is well to select the deep and well drained soil for the potato patch. It is important that this shall not be shaded or located on a gravelly knoll that will later dry out. A very thorough preparation of the soil at this time of the year will save much labor later in the season. It will also give the young plants a much better opportunity to get well established.

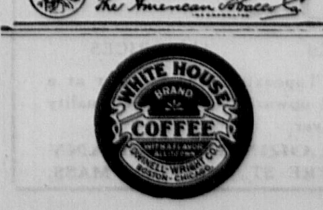

The second requisite which should not be neglected is the selection and treatment of the seed. Where one is compelled to go to the local store to get the seed stock, about the only thing that can be done is to see to it that it is vigorous and of the right variety. The vigor can be determined by the size of the sprouts as they now show. It is very unwise to plant potatoes with small, puny sprouts.

MAY FESTIVAL AT THE FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH

In spite of unpropitious skies, the annual May Festival of the First Unitarian Church was held on Saturday afternoon, a large number of mothers, children and friends being present.

The program opened with a May-pole dance, with little Mary Rich as the Queen of the May, escorted to her throne in an oxcart drawn by Bradford Bachrach. The Maypole was decorated with green and white streamers, and the boys wore green sashes, while the girls were dressed in white. The dance, which was directed by Miss Mary Sprague, included a number of interesting and unusual figures. The following took part: Lucy Ogden, Jean Bachrach, Priscilla Ballou, Elizabeth Kershaw, Ann Felton, Virginia Hatch, Eleanor Bingham, Barbara Webster, Edward Robert, and Richard Harrington.
George Hutchinson, Bradford Bach-rach, Donald Wright, Frederick Kershaw and Clifton Leatherbee.

Following the Maypole dance, Kathleen Andrews, in a pink dress with blue balloons attached to her arms, danced a very dainty and artistic dance, which was greatly applauded.

The last dance was an English Folk Dance, "Gathering Pease Pods," which was typical of the dances on the green, which have always formed so attractive a part of English country life. The following took part in this dance: Marguerite T. Hatch, Elvira Ogden, Nancy Mandell, Virginia Hatch, Marian Hutchinson, Allison Hartwell, Elfrida Rich, Betty Dwinnell, Bradford Bachrach, Elliot
Rogers, Nathaniel Padd, Herman
Hoyt, Ivan Hoyt, Howard Cooper,
Everett Upham and Carl Pickhardt.

The Kindergarten Department, in charge of Miss Marion Drew Bassett, then gave a series of Tableaux representing the months of the year, as follows: January, Barbara Thayer as a Snow Sprite; February, Betty Cotter and Richard Mandell as George and Martha Washington; March (17), Betty Rogers and Lucy
Ogden in an Irish Dance; April, Jeanne Fisher representing an April Day, one-half of her costume representing a rainy day and the other half a day of sunshine; May, Mary Rich as May Queen, accompanied by Frances Lee Weeks and Ned Ogden as flowers; June, a wedding, with Dorothy Beas as the bride and Charles Carpenter as the groom; July, Elizabeth Richards as Columbia, with Charles Lauriat and Robert Holmes as sailor and soldier; August, Barbara Thayer and William Baker, playing in the sand; September, Elizabeth Kershaw in a red and yellow costume, representing Autumn leaves; October, Mary Bingham as a witch on a broom; November, Jeanne Bachrach as Priscilla weaving, with Edward Harrington as John Alden; December, George Lauriat as Santa Claus.

The youthful participants did their parts remarkably well and with evident enjoyment. Ice cream, candy, grabs, etc., concluded the program for the afternoon.

GARDEN NEWS STORY

Planting Root Crops

Leaves and blossoms of trees and shrubs indicate that this season is fully two weeks in advance of last year.
Almost any vegetable except squashes, cucumbers, pumpkins, and melons should be planted before the end of this week. Root crops in particular which require a long season for maturity ought to be started now.

Every gardener who wants to be well supplied with roots throughout the season and in the fall for winter storage. Several plantings can be made up to the first of July to provide eating roots through the summer season.
While this vegetable will grow in any reasonably fertile soil, it will develop much more rapidly and be sweeter and more tender in ground that is free from acidity. Beets respond more rapidly to the use of lime than any other garden vegetable. All the fertilizer in the world will not take its place if the soil is acid. Some of the best varieties of garden beets are Crosby's Egyptian, Detroit Dark Red and Eclipse.

Seeds should be sown in drills 14 to 18 inches apart and covered to a depth not exceeding one inch. The young beets make most delicious greens. For this reason it is an excellent practice to sow the seed two or three to the inch. This assures a good thick stand and when the plants are three or four inches high, they should be thinned to one every four inches and the plants removed cooked for greens. If a stand of beets is not even, it is a good plan to do the thinning on a rainy day and set in the plants where there are long skips.

Parsnips require a whole season for growth. They do best in a rich soil, and must have frequent cultivation.
The roots can be allowed to remain in the ground all winter, as their flavor is much improved by freezing.
Hollow Crown is the most popular variety. Sow seeds in drills 18 inches apart and cover to a depth not exceeding one inch. Thin to three inches apart in the rows when plants are three inches high.

Carrots require the same culture as parsnips except that they do not require much thinning, and can be grown as close as one to the inch.
Best varieties are Danvers Half Long and Chantenay.

REAL ESTATE

The well known Dana Estes farm on Dedham, Greenwood and Nahant streets, comprising 90 acres of land and farm buildings, assessed for $27,000, has been sold by the trustee,
F. R. Estes, to Arnold Hartmann.

About 36 acres of the parcel on the corner of Dedham and Nahant streets goes to the new Charles River Country Club, and will be used for golf links in connection with the rest of the land which the club has acquired. This transaction and all the land and buildings, comprising about 213 acres now under contract to the new club, have been negotiated through the office of Alvord Bros.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

The exercises held last Sunday on Boston Common to commemorate the life of Benjamin Franklin were unique.
This year marks the 200th anniversary of Franklin's literary career. It was in 1721 that he contributed anonymously to the "New England Courant," a paper which had been founded during that year by his brother James.
Many will be interested to re-read the life of Franklin and especially his "Autobiography" (E-F854-F). His works are in 10 volumes (H-F85), while his "Sayings of Poor Richard," prefaces, proverbs, and poems of Franklin, as originally printed, in the "Poor Richard's Almanac" from 1733-58 is numbered (BQT-F85).

There have been many books on Franklin which are of more than unusual interest. Some of these are listed hereafter:

MISS WELLS SPEAKING FOR PINE MT. SCHOOL

Miss Evelyn Wells, formerly of Newton, who recently returned to Pine Mountain Settlement School, Pine Mountain, Ky., where she has taught for a number of years, has been released from her duties at the school for two or three months to go on a speaking tour in its interests.
She kept several engagements in Washington, D. C., in April, and has others in different parts of Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Through their interest in Miss Wells, the members of Channing Sewing Circle have made considerable clothing for the children. The latest printed appeal from the school shows a picture of some of the boys wearing rompers and blouses made by the Newton women.
One paragraph from the appeal gives a bit of an insight into the sort of children who are profiting from the training they are receiving:

"This Easter Monday Pine Mountain has been proudly giving for the children of the Near East and the Far. Our children could not stop thinking of the needs of the pitiful countries, so they asked for famine rations one day each week in March, that they might send the difference. We could not resist their appeal for just a little chance to help, even though it meant giving up necessities. Rice and water cocoa it was then for four Friday dinners, and never was giving more graciously done. So at the rate of seventeen cents each meal, we have sent away $82.00 today."

N. H. S.

As things are now the "Newtonian" will be ready to go to print about the end of next week. Providing that the books are not delayed in the printing and the binding, they will be ready for distribution early during the last week of school. Because of the earnest support of the staff and the aid and advice of Mr. Underwood, the 1921 book will equal both in quality and contents that of last year's. It was only through the careful and attentive management of Norton and his assistants that the editor succeeded in making this possible. Only a few extra copies will be available, and these at a higher price.

It will be of interest to the many friends of Myron Jonsberg, former Newton High School student, now wintering in St. Petersburg, Florida, to know that he has broken the state record for distance plunge at the in-terscholastic aquatic meet given at Rollins College, Winter Park, Florida, on April 30, 1921.

Jonsberg's plunge was 20 1/2 ft. 8 1/2
ft. greater than the former record plunge. Authorities state that it will probably stand undefeated for several years. He is the captain of the St.
Petersburg High School swimming team and is showing remarkable ability as a swimmer.

10. Morse signalling.
11. Bugling Contest.

Some of the above competitions will be run off together under the charge of different directors.

Reserve this date NOW. The Point System will apply.

THE NEWTON VACATION WEEK

The work of the Newton Vacation Week will begin June 1. Owing to the multiplicity of calls for money and the scarcity of that commodity, few personal appeals will be made this year, but any sums, large or small, received from those whose purses are inclined to remember quiet people among us who are in need of summer cheer, will be carefully bestowed where they will yield a full harvest of happiness. Four hundred dollars is needed for the curtailed work of the year. Thirteen dollars has already been received. Any suggestions regarding the work of the year will be gladly received by Elizabeth Spear, chairman, 89 Walnut park, Newton 58.

TYPHOID IN WALTHAM

If Waltham's milk consumers had been users of properly pasteurized milk, instead of the raw product, the city would not now be in the throes of an epidemic of typhoid fever of a serious nature, and of unlimited possibilities before it can be said to have been stamped out in its entirety.

This is the dictum not only of the State Department of Public Health, but of Dr. C. B. Fuller, city physician of Waltham, and of Dr. Francis G. Curtis, chairman of the Board of Health of Newton, on the borders of which city some cases of the dreaded malady have been discovered.

Dr. Eugene A. Kelley, State Commissioner of Public Health, and his corps of assistants both in the office and in the field, are a unit as to the value of pasteurization. The position the state department takes on the question is that, as a general principle, milk should be pasteurized under all conditions. It is something that is generally demanded. But, even pasteurized milk must be handled in a careful and clean manner to be a safe milk. This position is endorsed by all the leading milk authorities of the world.

Just how many cases will develop from Waltham's present typhoid fever epidemic is conjectural, although the health authorities are hopeful that the progress of the infection has been stayed and that new cases will be confined to the families of those where there are members already afflicted. The total cases already has reached well toward 100 mark and the ability to cope with the increasing number each day has taxed the endurance of the health authorities of the city. It is difficult at this time to figure whether the peak of the epidemic has been reached. The first case was reported to the state board on May 9 and, figuring 10 days as the period of incubation, the peak of the initial case has been reached. It is possible, however, that many other cases were developing during that time that would tend to extend this incubation period, and that much damage was done before the supply of impure milk was shut off.

Late last week the authorities decided to adopt drastic methods and this man was ordered to cease business, and his customers were turned over to another dealer. This apparently has had a salutary effect for there has been a decided lessening of cases along his former route, except in families already afflicted.

The authorities report that the shutting off of the raw milk and the substitution of the pasteurized product has had a decidedly clearing effect upon the situation and they are hopeful that the disease will be stamped out shortly.

Dr. Milton J. Rosenau, professor of preventive medicine at Harvard Medical School and a nationally recognized milk expert formerly with the United States Health Service, declares that it requires not only intelligence, but a high degree of technical training as well as constant vigilance, to produce a clean and safe milk. He believes that preventive methods are better than corrective ones and that milk should be produced clean and kept clean. "But," he says, "so long as we cannot keep the product pure and clean it is necessary to purify what we get. We must guard against the germ enemies as long as they exist. As the average milk is apt to contain these insidious germ foes, the only protection is to destroy them by heat, by the modern method of perfect pasteurization."

BOY SCOUTS

The regular meeting of the Norumbega Council, Boy Scouts of America, met last Tuesday evening, at the Newton Club, Newtonville. Reports from the Commissioner, Mr. John Benbow of Newton; Deputy Commissioner, Mr. LeRoy W. Leland, of Newtonville, for the Court of Honor; Deputy Commissioner, E. W. Varney, of Newton; and Scoutmaster, Mr. Sharratt, all showed signs of great progress since the last meeting of the Council held in December.

At the present time there are 363 scouts registered in the Council, all of whom have taken the Scout pledge of service to their country, and have passed the prescribed tests. There are also enough candidates for Tenderfoot rank to carry our numbers over the 400 mark. It has been estimated that long before the close of the year there will be over five hundred (500) scouts under the jurisdiction of this Council.

Special arrangements have been made with the Boy Scout Camp located at Manomet, Mass., for the Summer Camp of Norumbega Council. It is claimed that there is no better camp in New England than this and Scouts who are lucky to get the chance to go will reap a fine harvest of experience. All applications should be made through the Executive at Headquarters Office.

Col. White of the Newton Constabulary has donated to the Boy Scouts of Newton all the surplus equipment of the Newton Constabulary, this equipment to be used by the troops of Newton who have cabins in the "Ohio District." The equipment consists of silverware, crockery, glassware, kitchenware, and a miscellaneous assortment of necessary articles for any camp. The Scouts of Newton are delighted with this gift of the Newton Constabulary, and every effort will be made to make the Camp in the "Ohio" worthy of such contributions.

Troop 1 greatly appreciates the work done for them by Mr. Herbert Ripley of Newtonville, who drew up all the working plans of their camp which is to be built in the Ohio District. Westwood. A fine cabin is to be erected with all modern improvements. It will be an ideal spot to which to hike during the Winter months. Troop 1 to date has 55 registered scouts, out of this number, 48 were present last Tuesday evening. Enthusiasm runs high, and Scoutmaster Cotton, with his Corps of fine assistants has the respect of each scout in the Troop.

POMROY HOME

The public are cordially invited to an "at home" next Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when tea will be served. Come and see this beautiful home for homeless girls here in our midst.

A ROSE OF LOVE

(Dedicated to the Mothers of Mass.)

By Augustus Edward White

June 16th, 1920

I wore a red red rose one day
When all the world was song and play
A rose of love for Mother dear
The sweetest name a child can hear
And Daddy took me on his knee
And kissed me oh so tenderly
And said we'll promise, you and I
As swift the years go rushing by We'll wear a rose in May each year
A rose of love, for Mother dear.

I wore a red red rose one day
A year and more had passed away
And now I know a Mother's care
A Mother's love, a Mother's prayer
Her words of gentle sympathy
Her joy, when fortune smiled on me
Her worries, hopes, her griefs, her fears
Her guiding hand, through smiles and tears
No social emblem, nor trophy of power
Would I wear with more pride
Than that sweet little flower.

I wore a white white rose one day
The reaper, grim had passed our way
The gentle voice, the dear sweet face,
Is missing now, and in her place,
Of the truest friend I ever had
And now a child sits on my knee
And claps her hands quite merrily
A rose of red is in her hair
She said her brother placed it there
A rose of love for Mother dear
The sweetest name a child can hear.

I wore a white white rose one day
When time had touched my hair with gray
My bride of twenty years ago
Now wears a flower as white as snow
And so we comfort one another
On this sweet day, the day of Mother
For all you did, for all you gave Some day we'll know, beyond the grave.

Wife and daughter, father and son
We honor the day with hearts as one
Two roses white, two roses red
For you the living, for you the dead.

TROOP 7, BOY SCOUTS

Honorary Commissioner James C. Irwin paid a high tribute to Troop 7 at its last meeting. He said emphatically and frankly that it was far and away the best troop in the entire Norumbega Council. Commissioner Irwin made the presentation address to the ten successful boys who passed their Court of Honor tests and pinned the scout badges to their coats.

The Court of Honor examining these boys consisted of Deputy Commissioner L. R. W. Leland, Everett W. Varney, Scout Executive William B. Sharratt, Honorary Commissioner Irwin, and Scoutmaster "Bob" Irwin.

There were nine applicants to the troop and all were successful, making the troop enrollment easily the largest in the district. There are now five applicants, thirty-four, tenderfeet, seventeen, second class, three, first class, three merit badge, and one life and star scout. These, together with five scoutmasters and five troop committee men, make a grand total of seventy-three men and boys in the Troop.

The successful boys at the Court of Honor were: Second Class Scout Charles Millar, and Tenderfeet Ralph Kenyon, Roland Patrick, Kenneth Speer, Horace Rounds, Clifford Snow, Charles Benson, Robert Fisher, and Warren Lane.

Acting Senior Patrol Leader "Phil" Hoyt called the Troop together and assigned First Class Scouts Dewing, Shepler, Patrick, and Crosby to different tasks. The Pine Tree Patrol scouts are serving as the junior scoutmasters of the troop, and the scoutmasters serve only as they are called by these scouts.

Scoutmaster Harlan D. Crowell is on the job everywhere; Scoutmaster C. M. Smith has the drill and records as his fort; Scoutmaster Quincy W. Wales clearly features in the games' period and during instruction; Scoutmaster Allan W. Cooke has charge of the applicants and passes many in their outdoor tests; and Scoutmaster Ernest F. Dow, our west and splendid addition, has started a course of training in the manual of arms.

Next Tuesday the entire troop will be in attendance at Braves' Field at the Boston Nationals' big-league game. Next week, also, the final game of the best two-out-of-three with the Roger Wolcott School is to be determined and Troop 7 is out to win. The Troop will attend Memorial Day services in the Second Church and Mr. Park is to preach a special patriotic and scout sermon at this time. The troop will march in a body presenting and saluting the National and State Flags.

Certainly Troop 7 is on the map!

CHURCH NOTICE

First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Newton, Players' Hall, Washington street, West Newton, Sunday service 10.45 A. M. Subject of lesson-sermon: "Soul and Body." Sunday School 10.45 A. M. Testimonial meeting Wednesday at 8 P. M.

The public is cordially invited to attend the services and to use the Reading Room at 297 Walnut street, Newtonville, which is open daily from 2 to 6 in the afternoon, and on Tuesday and Saturday evenings from 7.30 until 9.

THE SCHICK TEST

The Medical Liberty League of Boston is distributing notices this week to parents in the Newtons urging them to investigate the results elsewhere of diphtheria inoculation which is being introduced in the schools here, all parents having been circularized in its favor by notices given the children. The League has information that severe reactions and even deaths have followed the injection of antitoxin against diphtheria, following the Schick test.

NEWTON POST, A. L.

Plans for the observance of Memorial Day furnished the main topic of discussion at the meeting of Newton Post, American Legion, held in Legion Hall, West Newton, on Thursday night of last week. Members were detailed by Commander Cabot to visit the schools in the city, accompanying members of Charles Ward Post of the Grand Army. These men will talk on the meaning of Memorial Day and will tell of its added significance in the World War.

It was voted to appropriate $10 out of the Post treasury to be added to the fund being raised by the Legion to decorate graves of men who died on foreign soil during the war, and the sum of $45 was appropriated for the use of the Bugle and Drum Corps in purchasing additional equipment.

Commander Cabot announced that a battery of artillery would be in line for the parade on Memorial Day. Further announcement was made that the veterans of Battery B, 101st Artillery, would again be at the head of the parade. Both of these units comprised the first volunteers to leave the city at the time the National Guard was called into service and they were given a place at the head of the column last year. He appealed to every member of the Post to participate in the exercises, if possible.

On Sunday, May 29th, the annual Legion memorial services, will be held at Trinity Church, Newton Centre. The invitation of Rev. Edward Sullivan of the church was accepted at the meeting of the Executive Committee, held two weeks ago, and the matter was placed before the members. The services will commence at 7.30 in the evening, and it is expected that the members will turn out in uniform, if possible.

At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments were served by the Entertainment Committee.

HOWE-HANNUM

Last Saturday noon Miss Elizabeth Platt Hannum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Hannum, of Warren street, Newton Centre, became the bride of Mr. Julian Cheever Howe of Cohasset, Mass. The ceremony was performed in the First Church, Newton Centre, by her father, Rev. Henry O. Hannum, and her sister, Miss Margaret Hannum, acted as maid of honor.

The church was decorated with Spring flowers and greens with a profusion of lighted candles, Professor Carl F. Pfattheicher of Phillips Andover being the organist.

The bride wore a gown of white taffeta with a court train and veil which belonged to her mother. The bride is a graduate of Wellesley College and the bridesmaids were all classmates. They were Miss Harriet Webber of Holyoke, Miss Ruth Hornsey of Summit, New Jersey, Miss Ruth Ellen Dow of Exeter, N. H., and Miss Helen Goodwin of Greensburg, Pa.

The best man was Mr. Paul Howe and the head usher was Mr. Richard Howe, brothers of the groom. The other ushers were Mr. John Bell, Mr. Erling Stocking, Mr. Reginald Smith, and the classmate of the groom at the Institute of Technology, and Mr. Robert Hannum.

An informal reception at the church was followed by a reception at the home of the bride for the immediate family and friends.

After a wedding trip to Norfolk and Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Howe are to live in Wallaston.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Woman's Benevolent and Church Aid Society of the First Church, Newton Centre, was held last week Tuesday, with more than 100 women in attendance. During the morning the sewing was for home missions and local charities with routine business. A luncheon was served at noon, Mrs. George C. Ewing being chairman of the luncheon committee.

At one o'clock annual reports were presented from the different departments of the Society's work, foreign missions, home missions, church aid, entertainment, hospitality, and relief. These reports showed increased usefulness in every direction.

The election of officers was as follows: President, Mrs. W. E. Shedd; first vice president, Mrs. C. Peter Clark; second vice president, Mrs. Charles P. Noyes; general secretary, Mrs. Robert F. Hayden; general treasurer, Mrs. Morton E. Cobb; auditor, Mrs. George A. Holmes.

Home Missionary Department—Chairman, Mrs. Newell L. Cutler; secretary, Mrs. Matt. B. Jones.

Foreign Missionary Department—Chairman, Mrs. H. W. Gates; secretary, Mrs. Charles Wood Bond.

Church Aid Department—Chairman, Mrs. George C. Ewing; secretary, Mrs. Edward M. Noyes.

Entertainment Committee—Chairman, Mrs. Edward C. Sands.

Hospitality Committee—Chairman, Mrs. Cyrus S. Chapin.

Relief Committee—Chairman, Mrs. Sylvanus G. Morse.

FORMER RESIDENT DEAD

A former resident of Newton, Mr. Fred W. Daggett, has recently died in Trenton, N. J., from an accident resulting from a fall from the second story window of his home, where he was adjusting a screen on the outside. He sustained a compound fracture of the elbow and arm, blood poisoning developed. Hoping to check this, his arm was amputated at the shoulder, but this did not save his life. He was the only son of Mrs. W. H. Daggett, a long time resident of Newton, whose husband passed away three years ago. Besides his mother, he leaves a wife and son. Burial was in Trenton, N. J. Mr. Daggett held a very responsible position in Trenton, being the superintendent of a large filtration plant.

CITY HALL NOTES

Street Commissioner George E. Stuart has awarded the crushed stone, sand and gravel contracts to the lowest bidders, as follow: Riverside Sand and Gravel Co., Newton; Thomas J. McCue, Watertown.

ENTERTAINMENT AT THE SECOND CHURCH

A very pretty entertainment was held on Tuesday evening at the Second Church by the children of the Red Bank Society under the direction of Mrs. Walton S. Redfield.

The Red Bank Society has been in existence for 42 years, and is at present in charge of Mrs. Andreas and Mrs. Bacon.

The opening number was a Chinese Greeting in costume by the following children: Barbara Reed, Judith Andreas, Julia Bacon, Melvin Welsh, Everett Putnam and Jeanette Rambe. A marching song followed in which the following took part: Caroline Lyman, Frank Batstone, Dorothy Jones, Robert Braun, Jeanne Wolley, Kingston Smith, Elinor Webster, Everett Putnam, Judith Andreas, Curtis Church, and Anson Albrece.

The children were assisted by Mrs. Louise Sprague Eaton of Boston who gave an original dramatization of "T. Tembarom" by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett. Mrs. Eaton's delineation of character was very well done and she held the attention of the audience from beginning to end.

A very pleasing feature of the program was the singing by Priscilla Bacon of Stevens' verses, and their presentation in pantomime form by the children. "Kitty," with Melvin Welsh as "Kitty" was presented in this way, as were "Shadows" with Julia Bacon and Elsie Woodward as actors. "Lilac Tree" with Charlotte Andreas, and Anson Albrece as actors; "Swing Song," Alice Jack and Marshall Glazier taking part; and "Owl" with James Albrece as the owl.

These were all charmingly done, and the little soloists sang very accurately and sweetly.

At the conclusion of the program, Ruth Larned presented a bouquet of flowers to Mrs. Eaton.

The following acted as ushers: Benjamin Bowen, Horace Rounds, Allan Campbell, Walter Sheafe, Elmer Stimets and Robert Perry took tickets.

AQUINAS DEBATING SOCIETY

The eleventh annual prize debate of the Aquinas Debating Society of the high school of Our Lady was held last Wednesday evening in the school hall before an appreciative audience. The subject debated was: "Resolved, that Japanese Immigration to the United States should be Prohibited." Mr. Charles P. York, A. B., was chairman.

The high standard set by members of the Society of former years was fully attained by the youthful debaters of Wednesday evening.

The affirmative side, Joseph L. Crandall, '23; Joseph P. Murphy and Thomas V. Geagan, '22, won the debate as to the arguments, but Lawrence A. Lombardi, '21, won the gold medal which was donated by Rev. Joseph V. Nevins, S. S., an alumnus of the school, for his delivery and diction. The other debaters for the negative were John A. Miskella, '21, and James A. Murnaghan, '22. The judges were Rev. Lawrence W. Slattery, Rev. Walter J. Roche, and Rev. Conrad Quirbach.

CO. C VETERAN CORPS

At the meeting of the veterans of Company C of Newton held in the State Armory, West Newton, on Tuesday night, plans for the observance of Memorial Day were discussed. The veterans will decorate the graves of members of the Company buried on this side of the water, in addition to placing a wreath on the Soldiers' Monument in Newton Cemetery and at the tablet erected to the memory of the Company in the Armory. The organization will lead the veterans' division in the Memorial Day parade. Commander Thomas Hickey presided at the meeting. Considerable discussion followed the suggestion to join forces with the other veteran organizations of Company C, but no definite action was taken on this matter. The annual election of officers will be held on May 30th prior to the parade.

BODY FOUND IN RIVER

The body of an unidentified man, apparently between 30 and 40 years of age, was found Wednesday afternoon floating in the Charles River, just above Newton Lower Falls. It had been in the water for months.

The body was noticed by Woodford Taylor of 61 Cornell street, who notified the Metropolitan Park Police. Sgt. Haisson of the Metropolitan Police went upstream from Auburn-dale and recovered the body.

The body is that of a man about 5 feet 5 inches tall, weighing 135 pounds, with dark brown hair and a dark brown moustache. It is dressed in a blue-black coat, a dark blue-black vest and trousers, a double-breasted dark brown overcoat, a wine-colored four-in-hand tie, a light-colored soft collar, light brown baggy under-wear, pointed-toe brown low shoes with red rubber heels. The dead man wore a gold signet ring with the initials "R.W." in script, and had a key-ring with three keys attached.

ALLEN SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

Governor Cox to Award Cadet Commissions at Commencement

Governor Channing H. Cox will award the cadet commissions at the Allen Military School Commencement. The baccalaureate sermon for this school will be delivered next Sunday morning at 10.45 o'clock, at the Second Church, West Newton. The preacher will be Dr. Thomas Chalmers, director of the school.

Commencement exercises proper at Allen will be in the following order: Thursday, June 2, at 6 P. M., Commencement dinner to the battalion. Friday, June 3, at 9 A. M., seniors' last chapel; 10 A. M., Commencement address by Dr. H. A. Bridgeman, editor of The Congregationalist; award of diplomas by Dr. Chalmers, director; 10.45 A. M., drill parade and review; award of cadet commissions, Governor Channing H. Cox; award of decorations and prizes, Dr. Chalmers; retreat, 8 P. M., senior dance.

EDITORIAL

The aldermen have acted wisely in granting a permit for a gasoline filling station at the corner of Beacon and Walnut streets. The location of such a station at this place will eliminate at least one fourth of the present danger and will relieve the city from considerable expense in an ultimately widening at this congested intersection.

In this connection it is well to call attention to the rapid increase in applications for permits to sell gasoline and the apparent indifference of the petitioners to the desirability of the location from a civic point of view. We strongly urge the city government to refuse any further locations on the line of Commonwealth avenue and to be extremely careful of any or all other locations which may be sought.

The proposed curbing on Chapel street and all other expenses which can be reasonably postponed ought to be deferred until the times are more favorable to things which are not absolute necessities.

UNDER THE GILDED DOME

With the session about drawing to a close, the Legislature is taking action on some of the most important business of the year.

The bill to increase the fees paid for motor vehicles, although favorably reported by the ways and means committee was badly beaten in the House by a vote of 61 in favor to 109 in opposition. This result was largely due to the fact that the members were afraid of the political influence of the automobilists and cared but little for the revenues of the state.

The bill for a state constabulary, which came from Representative Early's committee on State Administration with provision for a troop of 75 men, was cut down by the ways and means committee. It was fought hard both on its second and third readings, but passed with a good majority, the roll call showing 132 in favor and but 85 opposed.

A resolve is passing through both branches this week to return to Mr. Charles F. Avery the sum of $2,273.31, which was erroneously paid by him in income taxes in 1917.

The Legislature has revived the commission to care for the graves of the American dead on foreign soil, of which Mr. Robert Irwin of Newtonville has been the efficient secretary. There was another hot fight on the bill to harmonize the laws of Massachusetts with the Volstead act and which really meant that liquor violations could be handled by the police force of our cities and towns and the cases tried in the local courts, instead of only in Federal courts, as at present. The bill was finally passed by the House by a vote of 139 to 80.

The county jail proposition will go over to the next session with a special committee to investigate further during the summer. In this connection it is interesting to note that the Commissioner of Welfare is evidently in favor of a concentration of local almshouses and poor farms under some form of county or district control.

A hearing was given Wednesday afternoon before Register of Motor Vehicles Frank A. Goodwin on the order of the aldermen of Newton to limit the rate of speed on Walnut Hill road, Chestnut Hill to 15 miles an hour. Alderman A. H. McAuslan, City Solicitor Bartlett, City Engineer Rogers and Messrs. G. D. Strachan, W. C. Collett, W. F. Brennan and others appeared in favor of the order and opposition was represented from all the Dealers' Associations by letter. Mr. Goodwin subsequently approved the order.

W. C. T. U.

The West Newton W. C. T. U. held a very enjoyable meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Lillian Howard of Eliot avenue. Miss Grace M. Hamilton, County President of the W. C. T. U., gave a very interesting and instructive talk on "The Need of Workers in the Cause of Prohibition." A social hour and refreshments followed the business of the day, the hostesses being Mrs. Lillian Howard assisted by Mrs. G. G. Jenkins.

INTERCHURCH ATHLETIC MEET

On Thursday afternoon the Older Boys Council of Newton Centre conducted an Inter-Church athletic meet on the Newton Centre Playground. One hundred and twenty-five boys and girls took part in the various events which included dashes, relay races, and field sports. The meet was won by the First Baptist Church with a total of 64½ points. The First Congregational Church was second with 51½ points, the Newton Centre Methodist Church third with 21 points. St. Paul's Episcopal of Newton Highlands fourth with 16 points, and Trinity Church fifth with 15 points.

Much interest was shown in all the events, especially the girls and the Junior Boys events. The officials were: Clerks of course, Anson T. Leary; Tracey A. Rudd, starter; E. W. ## MEMORIAL FLAGSTAFF

A Memorial flagstaff in honor of five former pupils and one former master of the Country Day School was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies yesterday afternoon on the grounds of the school, and was the chief feature of the annual alumni field day. The exercises were very short and simple and were conducted in the main by graduates who are overseas veterans and classmates of the men to whom the staff is a memorial. They began with a brief address by Headmaster Shirley K. Kerns. Prayer was then offered by Rev. Abbot Peterson, and then the school sang "America." Graduates next unveiled the inscription and it was read by Theodore L. Storer, '14. After a moment of silent tribute, Charles Sprague, Jr., '24, sounded "taps." The new flag was then raised and the school sang "The Star-Spangled Banner." Dr. Peterson offered benediction.

The new flagstaff stands on one of the highest points on the school grounds on a terrace near the entrance to the gymnasium. The pole rises 75 feet in the air and is set in a granite base which is capped by a copper plate bearing the following inscription:

These young men lost their lives in the Great War. They fought for their country as they had worked for their school—loyally, earnestly, courageously.

Phillips Quincy Muirhead, ex '13, first Lieutenant British Army, born 1896, died 1916. Roger Sherman Dix, Jr., '14, second Lieutenant, U. S. A., born 1896, died 1918.

Charles Henry Fiske, 3rd, '14, second Lieutenant U. S. A., born 1896, died 1918.

Langdon Muirhead, ex '14, second Lieutenant, British Army, born 1898, died 1918.

Eugene Dorr Morse, '15, second Lieutenant U. S. A., born 1895, died 1918.

David Edward Henry, master C. D. S. 1914-1916, first Lieutenant U. S. A., born 1890, died 1919.

The memorial was made possible by subscriptions from the graduates, the boys of the school and the faculty.

During the latter part of the afternoon the graduates played a baseball game between the even and the odd classes. The annual meeting of the Alumni Association was held in the evening.

BURR PARK DEDICATION

Burr Park, the wonderful gift to this village by the Burr family, will be dedicated on Saturday afternoon. The Playground Commission will superintend an exhibition by the children, and the Newton Improvement Association has arranged for a Band Concert, a Flag Raising and a suitable Memorial Tablet. Every family in the village should be represented at this Dedication and show in a whole-hearted way our appreciation of the generous benefaction which has been made to us.

CITY OF NEWTON

Newtonville, Mass.,
April 13, 1921.

To the Honorable Board of Aldermen of the City of Newton:—

Your petitioner, the Middlesex and Boston Street Railway Company, respectfully represents that public convenience and necessity require that it be granted a relocation for tracks in Washington street, Newton, from Centre street to Lincoln park, in accordance with plan on file at the office of the City Clerk, marked:—

"Middlesex and Boston Street Railway Company. Relocation for Tracks, Washington Street, Centre Street to Lincoln Park, Newton, Mass. Scale 1"=40' dated March 31, 1920. Ephraim Harrington, Civil Engineer, Boston, Mass."

It is proposed to use 70-pound rail and finish the street from the curb to 18 inches beyond our track with bituminous top.

Your petitioner also requests the right to make such overhead and underground alterations as may be made necessary by the above relocation of tracks.

Respectfully submitted,
Middlesex & Boston St. Rwy. Co.
(Signed) H. H. Hanson,
General Manager.

LODGES

A very large delegation from Garden City Grange, No. 364, visited Holliston Grange on Friday evening. After a bountiful supper and the Grange business had been transacted an excellent program of entertainment of speaking, readings and music was furnished by Needham, Sherborn, Framingham and Garden City Granges.

The lecturer of Garden City Grange, Samuel Thurber, gave an instructive, practical talk on the agricultural condition of New England today.

Newton is certainly fortunate in having as an instructor, in its schools one so thoroughly imbued with a spirit of agricultural pursuits.

On Wednesday, May 18th Garden City Grange paid a neighborly call upon Needham Grange. After wide-awake business meeting Garden City and Sherborn Granges furnished an interesting program. Garden City Grange members, Frank W. Chase (Chaplain), Elizabeth Chase, Edith Saunders as a trio, rendered several vocal selections. Edith Saunders, soprano soloist; Ruth Benson, readings. Ernest Cobb, Newton's "Garden Expert" gave a most interesting and instructive talk upon school instructions in agriculture.

The lecturer, Samuel Thurber, had charge of the entertainment. After the entertainment refreshments were served to about 150.

LODGES

The May Party of the Rebekahs and the Odd Fellows held in Odd Fellows Hall, West Newton, on Tuesday was a very great success. The May baskets were of all colors and sizes. One of the prettiest belonged to Mrs. Alvery J. Baker, and another to Mrs. Dora McGuire. These baskets contained a lunch for two. Mr. Charles Potter acting as auctioneer had many lively bids, and there was great laughter and fun. Dancing followed the supper. About 100 were present. Miss Elsie Walker of Newton was chairman of the affair.

NEWTON BOARD OF TRADE

The monthly meeting of the Newton Board of Trade to be held next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Newton Club, Newtonville, is open to every business and professional man in the city who is interested in civic improvement. The Board will discuss the matter of becoming a Chamber of Commerce and the addresses will be made by former President Henry I. Harriman of the Boston Chamber of Commerce and Mr. John T. ## WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURT, Editor.

Plans for the Plymouth meeting of the Massachusetts State Federation are now complete, and by all appearances this annual meeting will be one of the largest in the history of the Federation. The official train leaves Boston Tuesday afternoon at 2:35 P.M. daylight saving time. Delegates going by train should notify Mrs. W. E. Rowe, Wollaston, at once in order that sufficient coaches may be attached. Reservations for the Wednesday luncheon should be made with Mrs. F. J. Heavens, 20 Chilton street, Plymouth, by sending check for $1 and a self-addressed stamped envelope for return of same. All delegates should register at Hotel Samoset immediately upon arrival, after which Girl Scouts will escort them to their lodgings. Credentials committee will be on duty from 6:45 to 7:45 Tuesday evening and again the next forenoon.

Wednesday evening will be the gala night with a lecture by Sir Paul Dukes and a reception to all visiting club women at Hotel Samoset tendered by the hostess, the Plymouth Woman's Club. Other pleasant features are being arranged.

Local Announcements

On Monday evening, May 23, at 7:30, the Woman's Club of Newton Upper Falls will hold a special meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Mills. The purpose of the meeting is to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of one of the directors.

Newton Federation

At the first meeting of the executive board for the new season on Monday morning, May 16, these chairmen of committees were appointed and confirmed: Education, Mrs. B. Walter Goddard; Civics and Social Service, Miss Edith Jamieson; Legislative, Mrs. Abbott Rice; social, Mrs. John F. Capron; Conservation, Mrs. Fred H. Tucker. It was voted to make the committee on Conservation of Natural Resources one of the standing committees, it having been created one year ago as a special committee. It was also voted that a chairman of Home Economics be appointed, in order to co-ordinate and make effective the work being done through some of the local clubs. It was also decided to invite the Home Economics department of the State Federation to hold one of its conferences and exhibits in Newton as the program for the fall meeting of the local Federation.

The matter of licenses for gunning in Newton and the amount of shooting of native birds was presented by Mrs. Lewis of Waban. It was voted to send a petition to the Board of Aldermen asking that the present city ordinance be replaced by one forbidding shooting, that Newton may be made a bird reservation as has been done in Arlington and Winchester and other suburbs of Boston.

In response to an appeal from the Boston Dispensary for assistance in the present drive for funds a committee on publicity was appointed.

The Newton Centre Woman's Club, Inc. is at work once more raising money for a club building through the issuing of notes for $10, $25, $50, or multiples thereof, bearing 4 percent interest payable annually. They can be purchased from members of the building committee, who are as follows: Mrs. E. A. Andrews, chairman; Mrs. W. B. Neal, assistant treasurer; Mrs. John F. Capron, Mrs. Leonard W. Grant, Mrs. Harold R. Keller, Mrs. S. W. Wilder, Mrs. Ralph Peavey, Mrs. Walter Webber, Mrs. William S. Radway, Mrs. E. B. Bishop, Mrs. Sherman B. Ward, Mrs. E. W. Cobb, Mrs. F. M. Burditt, Mrs. Frank A. Schinner, Mrs. George A. Holmes, Mrs. George L. Osmond, Jr., Mrs. E. W. Brigham, Mrs. Ralph M. McLellan, Mrs. John J. Harmon, Mrs. Albert M. Fowle, Mrs. Morgan L. Copley, Mrs. H. Wilson Ross, Mrs. Thomas P. Booth, Mrs. Albert W. Muther, Miss Anne S. Watters.

Keep Boston Dispensary Open

The Newton Federation of Women's Clubs at the meeting of the Executive Board on Monday morning last received the appeal from the Boston Dispensary for its campaign for $217,800, in order to keep its doors open to the 5,000 people of Boston and the suburbs who need its services each year. It was voted to recommend the call to the favorable consideration of Newton citizens, especially the Boston business men residing in Newton, whose employees benefit by the Dispensary.

N. H. S.

The class of '96 at the Newton High School is to hold its twenty-fifth reunion on June eleventh at the High School in Newtonville. At four o'clock there is to be a reception in the Library of the Classical High School for the members of the class and their husbands and wives. Following this there is to be a display of the pictures of the class as they were twenty-five years ago and today. Miss Marion Bassett has this in charge and will give a short history as the picture is shown. The school lantern is to be used. The program for the evening includes a dinner at the Newton Club, toasts, musical numbers and dancing.

GIVE A GARMENT WEEK

All American Red Cross Chapter and Branch Workers are summoned to mobilize in a great campaign to provide garments for destitute children abroad. This work is in addition to the nursing and medical care assigned to the Red Cross by the European Relief Council directed by Mr. Hoover.

These little children are not appealing for money or new clothes but for made-over or used garments and only for children from one to fourteen years of age. Everything is acceptable, provided it is in good condition and clean.

We urgently appeal to every Mother in Newton to donate every garment not needed by her own children. Your children are well-nourished and happy. These children are under-nourished, some are starving, and are practically without clothing of any kind. Why not be a fairy godmother to them?

Reports from careful observers who have recently returned from the Near East are heart rending.

DR. LIVINGSTON FARRAND, Chairman of the American Red Cross says:

"Children are the last reserve of civilization.

"To try to save the children of Central and Eastern Europe is a paramount duty if civilization in those regions is to survive.

"Food and medical care will be rendered largely inefficient unless these children are provided with adequate clothing. There are no local supplies which can be obtained for them,—either for garments or for children.

"It is an emergency as great as ever confronted us and calls for the loyal and enthusiastic co-operation of every Chapter in the land."

COLONEL ROBERT E. OLDS, American Red Cross Commissioner for Europe says:

"We have immediate need of two million garments to aid in the work for the children of Europe. I appeal to the women in Red Cross Chapters to stimulate production to the utmost of their ability. We cannot stand aside and permit children to perish for want of things we can supply."

HERBERT HOOVER says:

"This is indeed a splendid and most essential service. The children as well as the adult population of Central and Eastern Europe are daily suffering from exposure and from the diseases that follow and whatever America can do to alleviate this condition will be but another splendid example of her desire to relieve real suffering wherever it may be found."

MRS. AUGUST BELMONT of the Executive Committee of the Red Cross says:

"Our Red Cross is faced with a definite share due to the tragic need in Europe. We are receiving beseeching calls from our representatives for the vital need of layettes and children's garments.

"Once more we must bend our energies to carrying our quota over the top."

ROSE WILDER LANE, magazine writer of more than National reputation is in Europe as a Volunteer to aid the American Red Cross in its work,—she writes:

"In Hungary every fifth baby dies.

"In Vienna tuberculosis alone kills every seventh child.

"From the Baltic States to Egypt the situation is the same.

"The only way to save the life of Europe is to restore to the children the right to live, which was taken from them by the War.

"Vienna is a City condemned to death and dying slowly of starvation.

"In Vienna alone the Red Cross found 160,000 children so badly undernourished as to be in constant jeopardy of their lives. Most of them were cold as well as hungry. None of them were clothed in sufficiency against the weather.

"In Hungary half the deaths are those of little children.

"Seven in every ten of the Budapest children under three years old are deformed by rickets."

"There is almost no fuel, no soap, no medicines and only rags and paper for clothing. Babies are born and wrapped in paper. There are American layettes in every hospital, but not as many needed garments as there are babies.

"In the Railroad yards there are long sidings on which are strung the box cars that are the only homes for refugees suffering from scarlet fever. Here the children of the 'box dwellers' are lying covered with newspapers.

"On the other side of the City there are 2500 freight cars that are the only homes of 10,000 refugees. The children cry. There are no blankets for the babies who are kept from freezing by the warmth of their mothers' half starved bodies.

"These things merely belong to the daily report that comes to the American Red Cross as part of its daily routine.

"In Poland a large portion of the children of the Country have been refugees since the time of their birth and have never known what it was to have a permanent home.

"Colonel Chesley, recently American Red Cross Commissioner, estimated the number of orphans in Poland to be 800,000 and was certain twice that number were in serious need of clothing, food and medical attendance.

"Throughout the Balkans the great difficulty has been that half of all the living children were orphans, with absolutely no one to provide for them.

"The American Relief Administration throughout all this wide expanse of misery has been feeding the children and will be able to save at least part of them.

"In addition to feeding and medical care, the great challenge to the American Red Cross is to furnish clothing for the destitute, the ragged, and the unprotected."

After describing numerous other distressing conditions, Mrs. Lane finishes by saying:

"There are one million women in America who could each make a complete layette. It seems from here such a simple thing to do—just as simple as it would seem for the women at home to find something warm and comfortable for the naked baby if it were on her doorstep. But perhaps it seems so because here in Ragusa the baby is on our doorstep and in Jugo-Slavia there is no thread and only a few sewing machines."

THE NEWTON CHAPTER'S PART

It must be appreciated that unless the destitute child population of Central and Eastern Europe is provided for with substantial garments to replace the rags and tatters which are now giving very little protection to their little bodies, the medical attention which has been undertaken by the Red Cross will fall short of accomplishing its end.

There is only one answer: THE NEWTON CHAPTER MUST DO ITS SHARE.

During the week of May 23-28, the Newton Slogan will be:

"ONE OR MORE GARMENTS FROM EVERY FAMILY"

For further information consult the Chairman of your Branch and send clothing to the following places:

Auburndale, with Miss Helen Balch, 347 Central Street; West Newton, Congregational Church; Newtonville, Temple Hall, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 24th and 25th; Newton, Miss Rose Loring, 115 Shornecliffe Road; Newton Centre, Mrs. G. W. Jackson, 34 Ballard Street; Newton Highlands, Mrs. L. H. Marshall, 10 Hartford Street; Newton Upper Falls, Mrs. J. A. Gould, 1206 Boylston Street; Waban, Miss Blood's store.

If you cannot deliver there, mail your bundle by parcel post to the Chapter Headquarters, 306 Walnut Street, Newtonville, Mass.

On May 15, 1921, a cable dispatch from Col. Robert E. Olds, American Red Cross Commissioner for Europe, gives the following list of child welfare stations with the estimated clothing needs for each:
Station	Needs	Layette Clothing
Athens	1,000
Salonique	Needs	500	5,000
Albania	Needs	500	2,000
Elbasan	Needs	500	2,000
Scutari	Needs	500	2,000
Tirana	Needs	500	2,000
Montenegro	Needs	1,200	2,000
Vienna	Needs	20,000	100,000
Budapest	Needs	15,000	100,000
Prague	Needs	10,000	50,000
Czecho-Slovakia	Needs	2,000	8,000
Poland-Warsaw	Needs	20,000	150,000
Krakow	Needs	5,000	100,000
Lwow	Needs	10,000	150,000
Brest-Litovsk	Needs	5,000	50,000
Baltic States, Riga	Needs	5,000	50,000
Reval	Needs	5,000	50,000
Kovno	Needs	5,000	50,000
Total		106,700	923,000

This merely covers stations already organized. Two or three times this number of garments are asked for to take care of the new Stations rapidly being established.

LAYETTES

Instead of knitting sweaters and embroidering doilies this Summer, make one or two layettes. We want 1000 by September 1.

Your Branch Chairman will furnish material all cut ready to make up.

Newton has always done and always will do more than her share.

No. 8199. Commonwealth of Massachusetts. LAND COURT.

To Charles F. Ward, Frederick A. Ward, David A. Ward, Sophie P. Ward, Ellen T. Kennedy, Gertrude B. Martin and John W. Proctor, of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, and said Commonwealth; Tomas Dambrosie, of Everett, in said County of Middlesex; Florence A. Proctor, of Aromas, and Caroline R. Ward, of Los Angeles, in the State of California; and to all whom it may concern:

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court by William H. Rice and Irving C. Paul, of said Newton, to register and confirm their title in the following described land:

A certain parcel of land situate in said Newton bounded and described as follows:

Northeasterly by land of Waugh, Dambrosie and John Ward Estate one hundred seventy four and 9/100 (174.09) feet; Southeasterly by land of Annie W. Proctor four hundred fifteen and 76/100 (415.76) feet; Southwesterly by land of Martin and of Kennedy one hundred fifty three and 64/100 (153.64) feet; and Northwesterly by Nobscot Road as shown on a plan hereinafter mentioned by two lines eighty seven and 50/100 (87.50) feet and three hundred fifty and 67/100 (350.67) feet.

The above described land is shown on a plan filed with said petition and all boundary lines are claimed to be located on the ground as shown on said plan.

You are hereby cited to appear at the Land Court to be held at Boston, in the County of Suffolk, on the thirtieth day of June A. D. 1921, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted. And unless you appear at said Court at the time and place aforesaid your default will be recorded, and the said petition will be taken as confessed, and you will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any decree entered thereon.

Witness, Charles Thornton Davis, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this seventh day of May in the year nineteen hundred and twenty one.

THE OUTLINE OF HISTORY

The demand at the Newton Free Library for the above title by Mr. H. G. Wells has been exceedingly great. Though the library has a number of sets, it is totally unable to meet reservations for these volumes. It is thought likely that anyone having interest in Wells' book will want to read the books to which he refers in his notes throughout the two volumes, that they may gain the background of the knowledge of history which Mr. Wells shows himself to have. The reading of these books first would make the "Outline of History" more enjoyable later when it is obtainable. There are in all references made to 241 different books, of these the public library has 122 titles, a little more than half. Those titles listed in Vol. 1 are printed herewith; the second group of titles will follow next week.

PANETT—WESCOTT

Miss Mary Goodall Wescott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Parsons Wescott, Jr., of Commonwealth avenue, Newton Centre, was married last Saturday at the home of the bride, Mr. Chauncey Gildersleeve Panett of Denver, Colorado.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin, combined with chiffon brocade in silver with a train of satin and chiffon. The maid of honor, Miss Frances Moses of Andover, wore a gown of gold cloth, combined with gold lace. The bridesmaids, Miss Helen Beede of Orleans, Vermont; Miss Lillian Pierce and Miss Hope Parker of Newton and Miss Frances Mallen of Montclair, New Jersey, wore gowns of Harding blue taffeta, trimmed with gold net.

The best man was Mr. Hugh Cunan of Pelham, N. Y., and the ushers were Messrs. Harry Stearns of Melrose, Morton Thomas of Flushing, N. Y.; Adolph Berle of New York and Merlin Aylesworth of Pelham, N. Y.

A reception at the home of the bride followed the wedding ceremony, the house being tastefully decorated with roses, sweet peas, baby's breath, etc. The parents of the bride and groom and the maid of honor and bridesmaids assisted Mr. and Mrs. Panett in receiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Panett are to make their home in Denver, Colorado.

JOINT ANNUAL MEETING

Held by Newton Hospital Aid Association and Social Service League

The joint annual meeting of the Newton Hospital Aid Association and the Newton Hospital Social Service League was held in the parish house of the New Church, Newtonville, Tuesday, May 10th, with a good attendance.

The president, Mrs. George H. Talbot, opened the meeting with an expression of her appreciation of the splendid work of the hospital and opportunity for service.

The annual reports were read by Mrs. F. E. Anderson, secretary, and Miss Rose Loring, treasurer.

Miss Constantia W. Smith proposed the following nominations, which were unanimously accepted: President, Mrs. George H. Talbot; vice presidents, Mrs. Joseph N. Lovell, Mrs. W. M. Flanders, Mrs. George W. St. Amant; recording secretary, Mrs. Frank E. Anderson; corresponding secretary, Miss Marguerite Flanders; treasurer, Miss Rose Loring; auditor, Mr. Alonzo L. Weed.

The list of directors remains the same as last year, with the exception of one resignation and one removal by death.

It may not be amiss to mention the hospital sale which was held in West Newton last October and which netted the hospital aid $377.50. With these funds the aid purchased for the hospital a first class equipment for the X-Ray room, thus placing our Newton Hospital on a par with the best equipped hospitals in the country.

Miss Tower spoke briefly of the work of the District Nursing Association, showing most convincingly the importance of the work and its distinct place in our city.

The hospital aid has voted to establish a scholarship, to be awarded to pupils in the Training School, and also a Students' Loan Fund, to assist those who desire to enter the Training School, but find serious obstacles which may be overcome by assistance of its nature. In these ways and in the furtherance of other plans for future work the hospital aid will continue its beneficent work. We also support a free bed.

Two important amendments to the constitution of the hospital aid were presented for action, both of which were accepted.

The meeting of the Social Service League followed and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Harold B. Sherman; vice president, Miss Marguerite Flanders; secretary, Mrs. Charles B. Jones; assistant secretary, Mrs. Mervin Allen; treasurer, Mrs. F. W. Webster, Jr.; assistant treasurer, Miss Mary L. Rolfe.

Mrs. MacMannan, the Social Service worker, gave many interesting incidents of her work.

Mrs. Talbot then introduced the speaker, Dr. W. R. MacCausland, who gave a most interesting and instructive lecture on "Posture and its relation to Health," with slide illustrations.

Dr. MacCausland said some people thought this a hobby, but there was an intricate intimacy of posture to our health. Erect posture spells success and poor posture failure. No greater movement had ever taken place in our country than the physical training and development of our young men during the World War. As much attention should be given to the physical development of our boys and girls who are to work in our various industries and take their places as heads of families later, as to their academic training.

We shall never make any progress in fighting tuberculosis in Massachusetts unless we can get to the children and establish a system of physical examination which shall be carried on through school years along with the academic chart. Dr. MacCausland answered many questions at the close of his lecture and most surely impressed his interested audience with the importance of posture in childhood and adults.

A delicious luncheon under the direction of Mrs. F. S. Webster and social hour followed the lecture and brought to a close the day's program.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Preparations are going forward for the 1921 season at the Frank A. Day Camp. Mr. Leslie Atwood is superintending the new improvements which are now being made. Forty-seven boys have already enrolled. Mr. C. C. Noble of Williams College will be the camp director. Associated with him will be Mr. F. E. Doubleday, who will have charge of the activities at the camp, and Mr. C. T. Smith of the Harvard Medical School, who will be the camp "doctor." Mr. R. S. Jackson, a student at the Harvard Engineering School, is to be the cook.

The tent leaders will be Mr. John Wilson, captain-elect of the basketball team of Williams College, and Mr. Henry B. Wightman, athlete and varsity basketball player, also of Williams, who will have sharp nature study; Donald Cunningham, who has been at the camp for the past four years; Dwight Colburn, also a Newton High student and who has been a camper for a number of years. The Camp Bugler will be Phillips Hoyt, and Sidney Usher will be dining-room steward. There remains one or two positions as tent leaders which have not yet been filled.

A special committee on building and grounds has planted six beautiful trees in front of the building and shrubs on the front lawn. This has added greatly to the appearance of the building as viewed from the street.

A GOOD ENTERTAINMENT

The Young Women's Missionary Society of the New Methodist Church gave a most enjoyable entertainment in the church vestry last week Thursday evening. The program included the farce, "The Widow Wood," and the parts were well taken by Marguerite W. Greene, Hazel M. Chivers, Doris E. Hubbard, Flora G. Hubbard, Doris Cutler, Margaret R. Walker, Margaret Donaldson, Gladys L. Holland, Ruth M. Barbee, Emily J. Day, Lucy H. Mackintosh, Marie Walker, Fred A. Hawkins and Ethel M. Hutchinson.

Louise MacLeod, a Spanish dance by Miss Irene Fogg and a Nymph dance
by Miss K. Holmes.

BOY SCOUTS

The number of scouts under the council is rapidly reaching the 400 mark. With such a large number of boys pledged to the scout oath and law, and with the scouting spirit permeating the life of Newton's boys and young men, is it any wonder that the scout movement is finding a real place in the many claims for public interest and encouragement?

Scouting is a movement existing for the purpose of making real men out of real boys by a real living program of interest and practicability. First aid, life saving, wireless, automobiling, camp life, cooking, handicraft and many other fundamental and necessary matters of interest come to the boy who becomes a scout.

Local scout headquarters is 277
Washington street, Newton. For further information about scouting or scout work apply to Scout Executive Wm. B. Sharratt.

DEATH OF MR. KILBURN

Mr. Joseph Grey Kilburn died at his home on Chaske avenue on Monday after an illness of several months.
Mr. Kilburn was a druggist in Nonantum for nearly 40 years, but had retired from business at the time of his death.

Mr. Kilburn was born in Boston and was 74 years of age.
He leaves a widow, Amelia Kilburn, a son, Albert R. Kilburn, who is a druggist in Boston, and a married daughter, Mrs. George Mills of Newtonville.

Services were held at his late residence on Wednesday, the Rev. George S. Butters, formerly of Auburndale, officiating. There was also a service by the Waban Lodge of Odd Fellows, of which Mr. Kilburn was a member.
The burial was in Newton Cemetery.

Waverly avenue land sold. Mabel K. Ricker, conveys to Florence Wilhelmina Heard, a valuable lot of land on Waverly avenue. The lot contains about 7,000 feet. The land adjoins the present estate of Mrs. Heard who purchases to extend her present holdings.
The purchase price was far in excess of the tax value.

The Thorndike estate conveyed to Russell W. Viles, the 7-room and bath cottage house, with 10,300 feet of land, located at the corner of St.
James and Orchards Sts., numbering 6 Orchard street. The purchase price was far in excess of the tax value.
After extensive improvements, Mr.
Viles, with his family, will occupy as a permanent home.

Both sales were by M. O'Connor, 277
Washington street, Newton, Mass.

NORTHGATE CLUB

The entertainment at the Northgate Club last week Thursday evening consisted of a series of guessing contests.
Mrs. Willard Church won the first prize for ladies and Mr. Chester Reed the first men's prize.

Mrs. W. A. Thompson won the ladies' consolation prize, and Dr.
Clarence Glazier the men's consolation prize.

On Wednesday, May 25, there will be a Poverty Party at the Club. Lin-ton's orchestra will furnish the music.

NEWTON WOMEN HONORING
PRESIDENT WOOLLEY

Mrs. Herbert S. Kimball, chairman in Waban for the Mt. Holyoke Campaign and a member of the class of 1901, which was the first class to graduate under President Woolley, is asking her classmates in this vicinity to allow their quotas of $305 each, to be applied towards the Mary E. Woolley Foundation of $100,000, which was started by the faculty of the college in honor of her twenty years' administration of the college. Mrs. Wilbur D.
Gilpatrick, chairman for Auburndale, and Mrs. W. M. Timble, chairman for Newton Centre, are also members of that same class.

The Twentieth Anniversary of Miss Woolley's inauguration will be observed at Mount Holyoke College tomorrow with appropriate ceremonies.
The morning exercises will be preceded by an academic procession of 500.
Greetings will be extended by members from the board of trustees, from the faculty from the alumnae, and from the student body. A commemoration ode in Latin, the work written by the associate professor of Latin, Dr. Margaret C. Waites, and the music by Albert M. Tucker, associate professor of music, will be sung by the college vested choir of 200 voices. There will be addresses by President Nelson, of Smith College, Dean Marion Park of Simmons College, and Professor John Erskine of Columbia University.

In the afternoon a pageant based upon the first book of Spenser's "Fair-ie Queen", which has been arranged by two members of the senior class, will be presented upon the pageant field. Three hundred students will take part. The performance will be one of spectacular effects and dramatic pantomime, dancing being one of the most striking features, all the dances dramatic in nature and interpretive of the story.

DEATH OF MR. HOWLAND

Mr. Charles F. Howland, a resident of this city for over forty years, died suddenly on Wednesday in Boston.

Mr. Howland collapsed while in the Massachusetts subway station and died while on his way to the City Hospital.

Mr. Howland was born in Boston,
May 24, 1841, the son of David and Rebecca (Crocker) Howland. He received his education in the Boston Public Schools and private schools in West Newton. His first association with the paint business was when he entered the employ of M. & N. Crocker & Co. of Boston in 1858. He worked in various departments of the business and became a member of the firm of Crocker, Wadsworth & Co., which subsequently became Wadsworth, Howland & Co. This concern was incorporated in 1893 with Mr. Howland as president. The head offices of this house are at 139 Federal street, and branch stores are maintained in Boston and Cambridge.

Mr. Howland was a member of the Boston Chamber of Commerce and the Paint and Oil Club of New England, of which he had been president; and the Neighborhood Club of West Newton.

On Oct. 9, 1883, Mr. Howland married Nannie J. White of Roxbury. She and several children survive, these being a son, Arthur Howland, and four daughters, Mrs. Frederick K. Leatherbee of Springfield, Mrs. F. W. Rennie of West Newton, Mrs. Adolph Amend of Highwood, N. J., and Miss Ethel Howland. Mr. Howland lived at 129 Chestnut street, West Newton, but he had been spending the winter at the Hotel Ericson at 373 Commonwealth avenue, Boston.

Funeral services will be held from his late home on Chestnut street, West Newton, at 2.45 tomorrow afternoon.

NORUMBEGA OPEN

Norumbega Park, the great playground for Bostonians for the past 24 years, opens its 25th season in a blaze of glory. Thousands of flags unfurled to the breeze, highly polished brass bands and an up-to-date stage show, scheduled for the big theatre of steel, this combined with a score of other forms of amusement opens another page in the history of this well-known park.

Mr. Carl Alberte will be the manager this season again, as he has been in most of the seasons gone by. A new policy will be inaugurated in the theatre of steel, where Keith vaudeville and the very latest super-feature photo-plays, which will change twice weekly, will offer the many thousands of patrons the most varied of programs.

From now on until Labor Day, special street car service will be inaugurated; all cars leaving the Park and Boylston street subways, or any car marked Lake street connect with cars direct into the Park.

For the week beginning May 23rd, an extraordinary vaudeville bill is being staged, with Roy Stewart in the big feature motion picture, "The Devil to Pay," and for the last three days, Lewis Tracy will be seen in the "Silent Barrier."

LEGION SMOKER

On Friday night, in Legion Hall, West Newton, the second big smoker and entertainment of the season will be conducted by Newton Post of the American Legion.

The fund procured from the smoker will be used to defray the expenses of a baseball team. A fast team is being prepared to represent the Post and when the committee has sufficient funds available, the team will be fully equipped and the schedule will be announced.

The smoker will bring out some star athletes, in addition to singers and dancers of ability. The entertainment committee of the Post is in charge of the affair.

POLICE NEWS

The members of the Newton Police Department drew for their summer vacations on Thursday. The night men will start the vacation period on June 6, while the day men will not begin until June 20. The customary appointment of special officers to do vacation work will be forthcoming before June 6. It is probable that many of the men who served in this capacity last year will again be available this summer.

THE SCHICK TEST

Editor of the Newton Graphic:

As there seems to be some misunderstanding in regard to the Schick test which the Board of Health is doing, the following explanation may not be out of place.

It has been shown that certain persons have a natural immunity to diphttheria; that is, they do not take it when exposed to infection, while others can and do take it.

The Schick test shows to which class a person belongs and consists in injecting into the skin of one of the very minute quantity of a test solution; a control solution being injected into the other arm.

If the person is susceptible, a slight red blush appears on the skin of the test arm on the fourth day, while if he is immune nothing happens. There is no constitutional reaction.

The parents of susceptible children are notified of the result and urged to have their children immunized by their own physicians. This artificial immunization is similar to the immunization for typhoid and is known to last for at least five years.

The sole reason that the Board of Health does the testing is because it is easier to do a large number at the same time, as the test solution must be made fresh, in amounts sufficient for fifty tests, and the unused portion thrown away.

The testing is entirely voluntary and no one is compelled to take it, and the immunization is done by the family physician.

The Board of Health simply reports that the test shows that the child can take diphtheria and leaves the rest to the parents.

FRANCIS GEORGE CURTIS, M.D.,
Chairman, Board of Health.

DEATH OF MR. L'AFRICAIN

Mr. Edward N. L'African of Grove street, Auburndale, died in the Malden Hospital on Sunday in his 70th year.

Mr. L'African was born in Montreal, and lived most of his life in Medford, having come to Auburndale a year ago.

Before the war, Mr. L'African was bandmaster of the Mass. Naval Brigade and traveled extensively in this country with this band. He was also a trumpeter for seventeen years with the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

During the war he served overseas as bandmaster of the 101st Regiment, and was said to have been the oldest bandmaster in active service in the war.

He leaves a widow, Ella F. L'African, and six daughters, the Misses Marion, Edith, Ruth, Amy, Lillian, L'African, and Mrs. Theodore Zitz, of Malden.

Services were held on Wednesday at the home of his daughter, Miss Marion L'African, in Medford, the Rev. Mr. Edward, officiating, and the burial was in Medford.

THE BURR PLAYGROUND

Informally Dedicated with Reception to Mr. and Mrs. Allston Burr

The Burr Playground was thronged with hundreds of happy children and their parents and friends last Saturday afternoon, eager to pay a tribute of gratitude and pleasure to Mr. and Mrs. Allston Burr, who had made possible this wonderful addition to the playgrounds of the city.

All of the activities of the playground were utilized to the limit all the afternoon which gave the visitors a splendid opportunity to see for themselves the value of supervised play.

At 2.30 the children of the Bigelow School gathered at the far end of the playground and marched two by two to a reserved area in front of the playground building where they faced Mr. and Mrs. Burr. The marching of the pupils was very impressive. They were competing by classes for the school banner which headed the procession. The winning classes were Miss Searle's 7th and Miss Dyer's and Mr. Lane's 8th grade girls.

Julian Hutcheson representing the graduating class spoke for the school as follows: "This is a great day for the boys and girls of this section of Newton. At last we look into the face of the Magician who waved his magic wand and, behold, a great and beautiful playground came into existence.

The boys and girls of the Bigelow School rejoice in this opportunity to say to Mr. Burr, "Thank you for our share in this wonderful gift."

The class of 1921 is happy in being the spokesman today for the good old Bigelow, and for the countless numbers whose shouts of joy will ring from this playground in the years to come.

Bigelow 1921 has voted Mr. Allston Burr an honorary member of our class. We hope that you will honor us by accepting this our class pin, that we may count Mr. Burr not only a member of a former Bigelow class, but also a member of our class of 1921." He then presented Mr. Burr with a class pin.

Mr. Burr made a clever speech in reply remarking that he had been voted out of a class but this was the (Continued on Page 2)

LAWN FETE

For Benefit of Simmons College Endowment Fund

See yourself as others see you! Have your silhouette cut at the Simmons Garden Fete, Saturday, June 4th, on the Harriman estate, 825 Centre street. The fete includes amusements for all the family. The children under 10 years will want to hear Miss Emilie Poulsson tell stories at 2.30 and 4 o'clock. Miss Poulsson has had seven kindergartens in Norway named after her and is the writer of the finger plays used in kindergartens all over the world. Bring the children to see the juggler, Marionettes, clowns, pony and goat rides, the African dodger and the hurdy-gurdy with a real monkey.

Entries to the dog show, under the management of Mrs. C. E. Jeffrey, Jr., are solicited from Greater Boston dog owners. This show is sanctioned by the American Kennel Club and lasts from 2 to 5.30 o'clock. It will be an unusual show as there will be a special class and parade of a great many champions, judged by Mr. George S. Thomas of Hamilton. Other classes in which champions are not allowed, will give people a chance to enter their pets. All dogs will be judged by some of the best known judges in the country, the list including Mrs. A. B. Carmichael, Mr. William H. Young, Mr. George West, Mr. Thomas Hunter, Jr., and Mr. George S. Thomas. The charge for entry includes admission of the owner to the grounds. Entry blanks may be obtained from Mrs. Jeffrey, 971 Commonwealth avenue or Mrs. F. Marsena Butts of Newton.

Miss Marion Zinderstein, a former Newton girl will be one of the players in the tennis match at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Wightman and Mrs. Godfrey will play with Miss Zinderstein, all (Continued on Page 9)

AT HOME

Rebecca Pomroy Home Entertains Its Friends

With every room filled with beautiful flowers, the Pomroy Home presented a charming appearance last Tuesday, when it was "at home" to its friends. About seventy-five were present.

Miss Clara H. Hayes, matron of the Home, received, assisted by Mr. Charles A. Haskell and Mr. O. M. Fisher.

Refreshments were served in the dining room, Miss Lucy Allen and Mrs. A. C. Walworth at the tea table, and Mrs. George Angier and Mrs. David E. Baker serving punch. Three of the older girls acted as waitresses.

Among those present were Mrs. E. H. Byington, Mrs. Wolcott Calkins, Mrs. Grosvenor Calkins, Mrs. George W. Bush, Mrs. F. F. Lamson, Mrs. J. L. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Fisher, Rev. and Mrs. Charles N. Arbuckle, Mrs. Gardner C. Walworth, Miss Abbie A. Miller, Mrs. Henry Kendall, Rev. and Mrs. Newton A. Merritt, Mrs. H. G. Safford, Mrs. Loren Towle, Mrs. Frank A. ## MEMORIAL DAY

Plans for the Usual Observance by Charles Ward Post, G. A. R.

Charles Ward Post 62, Grand Army of the Republic will once more, with thinning ranks, take charge of the observance of Memorial Day in this city.

Mayor Edwin O. Childs will serve as Chief Marshal and has appointed Major C. Raymond Cabot, commander of Newton Post American Legion, as his adjutant general and Wilfred A. Wetherbee as chief of staff.

In the morning the veterans, assisted by the Spanish War Veterans and members of the Legion will decorate the graves in the various cemeteries the principal feature being the service at St. Mary's church yard, Newton Lower Falls, followed by the impressive service of casting flowers in the adjoining river in honor of the sailor dead.

Luncheon will be served in Bray Hall as guests of the Newton Centre Improvement Association.

At 1.30 o'clock the usual Memorial

Day parade will form at Centre Green and in the following order will march thru Beacon and Walnut streets to the Newton Cemetery.

Checking Accounts

Checking accounts and good borrowing accounts invited. Interest allowed on daily balances of $300.00 or more and credited to your account about the 25th of each month. Some suburban Banks still adhere to the $500 minimum balance and credit any interest due quarterly. Under this rule you receive no interest whatever if your balance runs below $500.00. For example, if your balance averaged $450.00 you get nothing but SERVICE and that Bank derives a gross income on your money at 6% or $27.00 annually on each account of this class. Many banks can do more in their respective communities but never do. The Waltham Trust Company serves Waltham, Newton and adjoining towns. Our Boston patrons may use any of our three correspondents.

MEMORIAL DAY

John Benbow, Scout Commissioner. At the cemetery the services will be held at the Soldiers' Monument. The line will then form and march thru Walnut and Washington streets to the State Armory, making a detour at Newtonville to pass by the John A. Andrew Home on Washington park. The chief marshal will review the line at the Truck house on Washington street. The usual dinner for the post and invited guests will be held at the State Armory. The post has accepted an invitation to attend a Memorial service on Sunday morning at Channing Church, Newton.

LECTURE AT NONANTUM

A lecture by John A. Knowlton of the Universal Tide Power Co. and inventor of the Knowlton Hydraulic Air Motor, which will generate light, heat and power from the tides, was given in the hall of the Nonantum Boys' Club, on Tuesday evening. The lecture was illustrated by moving pictures showing the operation of the motor, and work now going on at East Saugus on the demonstration plant which the Universal Tide Power Co. is now building. This is the first plant of its kind in the world ever to be built, and will generate electricity from the tides thus doing away with the need of coal. Ex-Senator Arthur L. Nason presided, and told of the growth and development of the Universal Tide Power Co. comparing Mr. Knowlton's invention to these great blessings to humanity the telephone and wireless.

Mayor Childs spoke enthusiastically of the enterprise and said that while the final proof of what the motor would do would come with the operation of the demonstration plant now under construction at East Saugus, he believed in Mr. Knowlton, and felt he had a wonderful invention. "It is much better and far safer," he said "to invest in propositions such as this here at home where we can investigate, than to place our money far away where we have no such opportunity." A group of songs were charmingly rendered by the Misses Viola and Florence O'Donnell of Dorchester. There was a large attendance and much interest in the proposition was manifested.

BURR PLAYGROUND

first time that he had ever been voted in. He expressed his pleasure at the honor paid him and his appreciation of the extent to which the playground was being used. Rose were then presented to Mrs. Burr by Kathleen Doherty in the name of the graduating class. Cheers followed for the Burr family, and for Mr. Allston Burr.

At a signal from Principal Frank W. Chase of the Bigelow School, the Boy Scouts raised the flag presented by the Newton Improvement Association, the children gave the flag salute, and the band played the "Star Spangled Banner."

The events of the afternoon were as follows: Story-telling for the little children by Miss Cameron; Captain-Ball between Mason and Bigelow Schools under the supervision of Miss Dyer, Miss Grace Garcelon as referee, Bigelow winning with a score of 2-1. The Bigelow girls on the team were Margaret Hatch, Edith Boothby, Mary Switzer, Kathleen Doherty, Kathleen Dargon, Catherine Shea, and Eleanor Hains; First Ball—the Burr Playground girls defeating the Newton Centre girls 2 out of 3. The winning team included Eileen Herlihy, Alice Smith, Alice Randall, Florence Herlihy, Elizabeth Deagle, Florence Melroe.

MR. ALLSTON BURR

Boy Scout activities including drill and first aid, and Girl Scout activities including semaphoring and folk dancing. There were also knot-tying contests between Boy and Girl Scouts.

A very attractive May Festival was held on the children's playground, under the direction of Miss Ruth Allen. The Queen, Thelma Cotton, came riding on a pony and took her place on the throne prepared for her under the trees. She was surrounded by the following attendants: Charlotte Stickle, Helen Ray, Doris Mason, Louise Maguire, Evelyn Whittemore and Betty Bound.

Among the special features was a Rose Dance by Frances Gotshall; A dance of old-fashioned costumes by Virginia Stokes and Miriam Hayes; Peter Pan Dance by Mary McPherson; a group of three representing roses, Doris Mason, Louise Maguire, and Florence Stickle; a rose-bud dance by Ruth Pearson; Yankee Doodle Dance by Evelyn and Rosamond Leblanc; and an American Dance in which Florence Doucette represented the American flag. This part of the festivities concluded with a Maypole Dance, the Maypole being tastefully decorated with pink and blue streamers, and the dancers wearing pink and blue sashes. The following took part in this dance; Marjorie Briggs, Ann Ray, Katherine Bridges, Barbara Goodrich, Ruth Turner, Mary Cole, Virginia Spurrier, Priscilla

Moore, Ethel Stomont, Mildred Ferry, Dorothy Howe, Dorothy Neal, Marion Delaney, Elizabeth Pitts, Marie Boudrot, and Katherine Sprague.

In another part of the field a number of Relay races were held. The winning teams follow: Girls' Relay Race—Dor Barba, Elizabeth Scofield, Louise Maguire, Eve Whittemore, Ethel Stomont, May Volpe, Mary McDonald, and Virginia Spurrier. Boys' Senior Relay Race—William Duly, Francis Menahan, Edwin Barney, and Ralph Feola; Junior Relay Race—Owen Barter, Joshua Barter, Graham Scott, Russell Taylor, and Preston Barba.

Prizes of blue, red and white ribbon badges were awarded to the following: Running Broad Jump—William Duly, Arthur Foster and William Olander; Running High Jump—John Clark, William Duly, Wallace McPherson; 75 yd. (Senior Boys)—William Duly, Arthur Foster, and Robert Schliephake; 75 yd. (Senior Girls)—Marguerite Barba, Florence Doucette, and Katherine Dargon; 50 yd. (Junior Boys) Frank Perry, Doc McLean, and Preston Barba; 50 yd. (Junior Girls) Dorothy Barba, Evelyn Whittemore, and Virginia Spurrier.

A fist ball game between Bigelow and Mason Boys resulted in Bigelow winning two games. The members of the winning team were Francis Monahan, Robert Schliephake, Walter Schliephake, Alan Shaw, Timothy Finn, and Horace Benyon. An interesting feature of the afternoon was the inspection of the bronze tablet placed on the "Shelter" by the Newton Improvement Association. It reads as follows:

BURR PLAYGROUND
For more than fifty years
The Homestead of Isaac Tucker and Ann Frances Burr Given by their seven children for a Public Playground Prepared for use and equipped by their son ALLSTON BURR
January 27, 1920

Demonstrations of shower baths by Mr. Ernst Hermann, Superintendent of the Playground, an inventor of this type of shower bath, assisted by Miss Anderson were held during the afternoon in "The Shelter."

Among those who were present to greet Mr. and Mrs. Burr were Mayor Childs, Mr. Brewer, Mr. Tucker, and other members of the Playground Commission. The Newton Improvement Association was represented by its chairman, Mr. Bickmore. Dr. Sargent of Harvard University was also present.

Everything passed off very smoothly under the able direction of Mr. J. J. Lane, Director of the Burr Playground, assisted by Mr. Edgar (Doc) Doubleday of the Y. M. C. A., and Mr. Brainard, and Mr. Hisco of the Playground Department.

TROOP 7, BOY SCOUTS

There were fifty-one boys present at the roll call of Troop 7 at its last meeting. Senior Patrol Leader "Billie" Phelps assumed the junior scoutmaster's role of the troop and the Pine Tree Patrol took charge of the entire program, which Scoutmaster Crowell had planned. First Class Scout Shepler looked after the drill. First Class Scout Hoyt helped the Court of Honor men in signaling; First Class Scout Smith took charge of the records.

John Bond successfully passed his tenderfoot tests and is now a scout of Troop 7. Three new second class scouts also appeared for troop appreciation at the close of the Court of Honor tests. They were Scouts Francis Rogers, Harold Millar, and Paul Kenyon. And last of all, two new first class scouts were made, making a total of nine first class scouts in the troop. Prolonged cheering was theirs as the scouts heard their names: Franklin or rather "Jimmie" Hoyt, the son of Troop Committeeman Franklin S. Hoyt, and Edwin J. Ovington, the son of a member of the Norumbega Council, E. J. Ovington.

These boys were examined and passed by the Council Court of Honor; Deputy Commissioner L. R. W. Leland in charge, Deputy Commissioner Everett W. Varney, C. H. Woodworth, E. J. Ovington, and H. C. Flovendon.

Scoutmaster Harlan D. Crowell, Allen W. Cooke, and Charles M. Smith were kept busy with the greater part of the evening with an inter-patrol ball game, the issuing of the new registration cards, and in making plans for the troop outing to see the Braves-St. Louis game; for the attendance of the troop at Memorial Day services in Mr. Park's church Sunday, and in making arrangements for participation in the Memorial Day parade.

CLAFIN CLUB

The Clafin Club of the Methodist Church held its annual Ladies' Night last Friday evening. After a bountiful supper, the members and their guests listened to the Pipers, who gave a number of clever impersonations.

The club has been much interested in bowling during the winter, and the prizes for the tournament were awarded during the evening as follows:

High average, George G. Jenkins; high single, Dr. C. M. Haskell; high three string, Herbert Smith; first team prize, Henry H. Farnham, Clifford W. Rust, Herbert Smith, Edward R. Bailey, Leon Bellamy; second team prize, Edwin F. Quinlan, Thomas B. Wales, J. A. McCarthy, Norman M. Appleyard, Willis M. Bell.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, A. A. Alexander; vice president, H. J. Goodyear; secretary, H. E. Dupuy; treasurer, Leon Bellamy; executive committee, (chairman) J. F. Currier, R. E. Bruce, Geo. W. Lockwood, R. V. Spencer, and W. H. Purdy.

REAL ESTATE

Agreements have been signed whereby Mrs. Charles E. Durgin transfers her beautiful estate, No. 715 Commonwealth avenue, to Mr. Homer A. Burnelle of Brookline. The estate comprises a practically new three-story brick house, containing nine rooms and three baths, together with a solid brick two-car heated garage and about 10,000 feet of land. The assessed valuation of the property is about $20,000. The purchase price being far in excess of the valuation. The estate is one of the most complete and handsomely located on the avenue. The sale indicates that the public are willing to purchase and pay a good price for a really desirable property. M. O'Connor, 277 Washington street, Newton, Mass., N. N. 1446.

NORUMBEGA PARK

Norumbega Park's 25th season's opening of last Saturday and for the first week, has broken all previous records for attendance. Men, women and children thronged the gates for admission, afternoons and evenings, and were loud in their praise of the amusement offered this season, and for the beauty and grandeur of the gardens and other places of decoration.

The new policy in the theatre of steel, which is of the Keith vaudeville variety, and the special super-feature photo-plays, together with other novelties, has proven to be just what the public demand. This policy will be in vogue all season, as it is without question very popular with the people. Another excellent vaudeville bill will be presented next week, including the "City of Silent Men," featuring Thomas Meighan, for the first part of the week, and that prime favorite of Western characters, William S. Hart in "O'Malley of the Mounted."

On Monday, Decoration Day, a special added attraction will be offered in the special engagement of the Tenth Army Band. This will make the first time in the history of the Park that such a large musical organization has been engaged for any special event.

AUTO ACCIDENT

Saturday afternoon two automobiles crashed together in Winchester street, Newton Highlands, and swerving toward the sidewalk struck Henry Miller, 50, a negro, living at 117 Winchester street, breaking his right leg. ## SCHOOL NOTES

Edited by Dorothy Drake

Cliffin School

The fourth league game of the Horace Mann-Cliffin baseball team was played Tuesday, May 24th, against the Pierce school in West Newton.

The first few innings resulted in a tie score, then Pierce shot way ahead. In the eighth inning the score of Pierce was 5, Horace Mann-Cliffin 3. The latter succeeded in catching up and winning, the result being 8 to 5. Tom Pillion and Robert Andres played especially well. There was quite a crowd of cheering spectators, the cheers being of the children's originality.

The Misses Allen School

The closing festivities of the Misses Allen School began last Saturday with a picnic and all-day trip. On Wednesday the young ladies gave a dance at the school, at which about eighty were present.

Thursday a class supper and reunion of this and last year's graduating class and a few from the older classes was held at the Prae Burn Country Club.

Today the regular exercises of the school were held. Ray Fallick, Perkins of Boston addressed the eleven young ladies of the graduating class and their friends. Seven of the class expect to enter college, while the others will study art and music in this country and in Europe.

Miss Lucy Allen, the Principal, presented diplomas to the following: Miss Esther Bassett of Montclair, N. J.; Miss Jan Edmunds of Wellesley; Miss Louise Featherstone of Iowa; Miss Katherine Jordan of Minneapolis; Miss Rosemary Norcross of Worcester; Miss Anita Padelinitti of New York; Miss Dorothy Schier of Missouri; Miss Kathryn Speckman of Ohio; Miss Virginia Swan of Illinois; Miss Isabel Sproull of Connecticut; Miss Linda Woodworth of Arlington. A reception was then given to the seniors by their friends.

A special feature of the commencement exercises was the exhibition of the picture of Miss Fannie Bassett Allen, painted by Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor Watson, and presented to Miss Lucy Allen by Mrs. Harry Taylor and Miss Sarah Taylor.

Mount Ida School

The program of senior week at Mount Ida school is as follows:

May 28, senior dance, 8 P. M.
May 29, baccalaureate sermon, Rev. Henry H. Crane, 4 P. M.
May 30, alumnae day, annual meeting, 10 A. M.; alumnae luncheon, 1 P. M.; junior class play, 8 P. M.
May 31, class day exercises, 3 P. M.; senior play, "Twelfth Night," 8 P. M.
June 1, final recital, 3 P. M.; commencement exercises, 8 P. M.; address by John Calvin Ferguson, Ph. D., senior reception, 9 P. M.

Burr School

The trip of the fifth and sixth grades of the Burr School to the Navy Yard and Bunker Hill Monument was one which will not soon be forgotten by them.

The eighth grade has been looking up the birthdays of great men who were born in May. Among those studied were Horace Mann, John J. Audubon, Florence Nightingale, Patrick Henry, Walt Whitman, and Ralph Waldo Emerson.

The June "Echo" will be in the form of a class book to be given only to graduates. The board of editors wish to thank the people of Auburndale for their help and co-operation in making this the first school paper of Auburndale, a success.

A Junior Audubon Class is being formed to study birds and learn all about them.

Adams School

The entertainment given by the pupils of the Adams School on Friday afternoon and evening was most interesting. The little children marched into the kindergarten room in perfect order, each one dressed in his or her particular costume, and it was with some difficulty that the parents and friends recognized the little ones, so greatly had their costumes changed them.

Grade I presented their little play first, which was entitled "Spring's Awakening."

One could not have wished for a more fitting spring day and as the children hopped about and chirped, one could almost see the flowers and trees blossoming and hear the little birds singing.

Grade II was next on the program, depicting a lovely little mother kitty with her little ones in a story play called "The Little Mouse-Pie."

The "mew" of the kittens and the industrious mother kitty were most realistic, and particularly bright were the kittens' eyes when they saw a "real" mouse-pie.

The last event of the afternoon was a play in three acts given by Grades III and IV entitled "The Talking Saddle."

Act I—The conference of an old father with his sons was briefly but clearly presented. The old man with his gray beard and wrinkled brows and lame gait were splendidly represented.

Act II—A street scene with the presence of a man carrying upon his head a saddle, and a genuine appearing "Hand-organ Man" caused many a murmur among the audience.

The little girls dressed as young ladies and their comments upon the saddle-man were extraordinarily well done. The contributions to the monkey and the faint but audible music of the hand-organ made even the children smile.

Act III—The office of the mayor. The interrogating of the saddle-man by the mayor was excellently done. The action of the servants and the threatening look of the burly policeman caused much applause.

The whole affair lasted only forty-five minutes and nothing could have been more beneficial for the children. It slowed serious thought and hard work on the part of the teachers, a keen interest and pride in the pupils, and a hearty co-operation on the part of the parents. This is the second entertainment of its kind given this year by the Adams School, the first being "John Eliot Preaching to the Indians" and we hope that in the future their method may be more freely used to teach the children self-control and ability of presentation. Many thanks are due all those who helped make this affair so successful.

Stearns School

On Tuesday the two sixth grades under the chaperonage of their teachers, Misses Welch and McLaughlin, made an interesting trip by motor trucks to Lexington and Concord. They stopped at the following historical spots: Lexington Green, Buckman Tavern, so replete with historical objects; the Hancock-Clark house, Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, and the battlefield, "by the rude bridge that arched the flood." Our trips well pay for their undertaking in the rich understanding that comes to the children by actual contact with historical associations.

The Girls' Club of Newton entertained the Mothers' Club at a "Stunt Party" at Stearns School Center on Tuesday evening, May 24th. Six officers of the Massachusetts League of Girls' Clubs were among the guests. The program included a Fashion Show, directed by Miss Grace Stubbett; a farce, entitled "Miss Prim's Kindergarten," coached by Miss Mary Delaney; solo dance with masked group dancing, directed by Bella Roberge; and a skit depicting "The Brides of the 18th and 20th Centuries." Punch and sandwiches were served to the guests after the program.

Tuesday Mrs. Goddard took her third grade to Franklin Park. It was an ideal day for a trip and quite an experience for some of the children, who had never been in the subway. We saw all of the animals. The children seemed to enjoy the birds as much as any. One of the keepers very kindly had some of the birds do the tricks he had taught them.

The children in Miss Walker's fourth grade took a geography trip through the Newtons. Stops were made at Eliot Memorial, Waban Hill Reservoir, and other places of interest.

The boys' baseball team had its hardest baseball game of the season Tuesday afternoon, when it defeated the Mason School team by the score of 7-6. The game was closely contested throughout. Stearns is now leading the league with five victories and no defeats.

Ralph Waldo Emerson School

The baseball team lost its first game last week. The game was at Auburndale with the Burr team. The score was 7 to 6. Against the same team the Emerson team won at the Upper Falls the week before by the score of 6 to 3.

Teachers from Somerville visited several classes on Wednesday.

Memorial Day exercises were held in the Hall on Friday at 10.30 o'clock. Delegations from the Newton Post and the American Legion were present.

Mrs. Frank Fanning visited the fifth grade on Tuesday forenoon. She gave a talk to the children on the subject, "Education of the Southern Negro." Pictures were shown and letters were read coming from the colored children in the South.

Mason School

The history and nature drive to Concord and Lexington, scheduled for Wednesday, May 25, was postponed because of illness of some of the members in room fifteen. They hope to go next week.

Each pupil in grade eight, room ten, has drawn a picture of a fire alarm box and has copied directions to be followed in case of fire.

CHURCH NOTICE

Miss Florence May, formerly of Newton, and Mr. Edwin Greenwood of Boston were married on Tuesday, May 17, at the home of the bride's brother Dr. John B. May at Cohasset, Mass.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fred V. Stanley, pastor of the Cohasset Congregational Church, and the bride was given away by her brother, Mr. William Rogers May.

After the wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood will make their home in the Ashmont section of Dorchester.

EDITORIAL

The need of immediate action in the matter of a zoning ordinance in this city has been shown this week in the proposed erection of a woolen factory dyehouse and powerhouse on the edge of such a fine residential district as Mt. Ida. With a proper zoning ordinance buildings of this class would be barred from districts of this nature. The need of a zoning ordinance is also shown in the demand for locations for public garages and gas filling stations all over the city. It is too much to expect unorganized bodies of citizens or even individual citizens to keep forever on the watch to prevent an invasion of residential districts by undesirable classes of business and it should be safeguarded by an adequate zoning ordinance.

Newton residents need have no fear of a typhoid epidemic, as there are but three cases in the city at the present time, and the board of health is keeping careful watch of the situation.

UNDER THE GILDED DOME

Attorney General J. Weston Allen of this city has been upheld this week by the decision of the Supreme Court in his right to be represented at sessions of the grand jury, and in consequence part of the controversy which has been centered in the committee on judiciary between Mr. Allen and District Attorney Pelletier and District Attorney Tufts has been settled in Mr. Allen's favor.

Mr. Allen has rendered an opinion to the Senate that the bill recently passed the House virtually making a state law of the provisions of the Volstead act is unconstitutional in that portion which makes the proposed new law dependent upon possible changes in the Volstead act by Congress. It is possible that this opinion may send the whole matter over to next year.

The judiciary committee has reported adversely on Mr. Allen's proposal to require district attorneys to obtain the assent of a presiding judge on cases not proscribed.

Mr. Allen's recommendations that the attorney general should be given the right to summon the grand jury in special session and to compel attendance of witnesses at any investigation under his direction were adversely reported upon by the Committee on Judiciary but Senator Napier, who, by the way has represented Newton in splendid fashion in the upper branch was able to substitute the bills in the Senate on Wednesday afternoon. The next day, however, the Senate reversed itself under circumstances which do not reflect credit upon that body. President Allen went so far as to vote with the minority in upholding these bills—the first time he has voted this year. When the matter came into the House on Thursday afternoon Speaker Young, by a most unfortunate ruling, prevented the House from taking action on these two matters, the point of order being raised by a Democrat. The situation was peculiar in that the House had before it the report of the Judiciary Committee on all the various recommendations made by Attorney General Allen, and on which the Senate as above stated had, at first substituted two bills. Speaker Young ruled that only the remainder of the report was before the House for action. This ruling as will be seen absolutely prevents the House from entertaining the report of the committee on the two matters killed in the Senate—a narrow construction of the rules. It is most unfortunate, from a political standpoint, that this situation has been created as it will certainly make political capital for the Democratic party.

The Legislature held three sessions yesterday and will hold three sessions today in an effort to prorogue this week.

Newton is the same grade as the regular family milk furnished to 80 percent of the company's customers seems evident from information recently obtained by The Graphic. The children in the schools have been paying less for their milk than their parents have at home, and on this account some were led to believe that the Hood Company was putting a cheaper grade of milk into the schools. It seems, however, that the Hood Company is merely giving the school children the benefit of whatever saving can be made by delivery in large quantities.

When questioned on the subject, H. P. Hood 2nd, who has recently become manager of the Newton branch, said: "The milk that we are putting into the schools is the same as our regular Jersey Brand milk that we are supplying to 80 percent of our customers. The reason that we are charging the children less is because we are giving to them the benefit of the economy that arises by delivery in large quantities."

Throughout Greater Boston we are supplying most of the schools using milk, and the majority of them are taking this same grade of product. Belmont is at present using Grade A milk. This gives the children a milk slightly richer in butter fat but at a cost of three or four cents more a week. Both grades are pasteurized in the same manner, and one is exactly as safe as the other.

In view of the recent typhoid epidemic traced to raw milk, I might add that our method of pasteurization is that recommended by the American Public Health Association and now made compulsory in most of the leading cities of United States and Canada. I believe it will not be long before Boston and Newton will also compel all dealers to pasteurize their milk and cream scientifically in this same manner and thus eliminate milk as a possible source of disease."

34TH ANNIVERSARY

Newton Lodge, No. 92, I. O. O. F., will observe its 34th anniversary on Wednesday, June 15, with special ceremonies in the lodge rooms in West Newton. A committee composed of the Past Grands and the general committee is making extensive plans for this affair and it is planned to make it the biggest event in the history of Newton Lodge. A number of distinguished citizens will be invited to participate in the celebration and the Hon. Edwin O. Childs, Mayor of Newton, will deliver the address of the evening.

The program of the evening follows: Opening address, Mayor Childs; roll call of living members; reading list of members who have died in the past 34 years; offering by quartette; reading, "Youth and Old Age"; selection by quartette; crayon artist; magic artist; selection by quartette; reading letters of regret. This will be followed by a collation, served by the ladies, after which the singing of "America" by the audience will follow.

The affair will also serve as a reunion between the older and more recent members of the lodge, as well as for many of the members who have moved from the city or who are absent at long periods on business.

BOY SCOUTS HIKE FORESTRY WEEK—May 22-28

In keeping with the Proclamations both of the President and the Governor of Massachusetts, the Boy Scouts of Norumbega Council intend to finish up the work of the week by hiking to Tower No. 30, Prospect Hill, Waltham, tomorrow, Saturday, May 28. Here they will be addressed by Mr. George L. Johnson, Forest Warden of Waltham, and Mr. Harry E. Lowe of West Boylston. It is expected that a large number of Troops will participate in this hike, coming from Lexington, Weston, Needham, Watertown, Newton, Wellesley, Concord and other towns within a radius of ten miles or thereabouts from the tower. The speakers will deal with the subjects of Forestry, and Fire Prevention.

Boy Scouts are trained to care for the Forests and to build the right kind of fires. They are instructed to prevent the spread of fire, and also trained in the best methods of fire extinguishing. Forestry Week is very close to the aims of Scouting and this hike will be a fitting culmination to a week of national importance.

EDISON EMPLOYEES LOYALTY COMMITTEE

Employees of the Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Boston with their friends and as many Edison customers as desire to attend will hold a courtesy and good-will meeting in the Rex Theatre on Moody street, Waltham, Wednesday evening, June 1.

Every employee of the company living in Belmont, Concord, Lincoln, Newton, Weymouth, Waverly, Watertown, Waltham, Weston and Sudbury is expected to attend and bring a guest.

This is the third of a series of these meetings being held under the direction of an Employees' Loyalty Committee of the Boston Edison Company, at which entertaining talks, illustrated with stereoscopic pictures are given explaining how coal is supplied, electricity generated at the big station in South Boston and distributed throughout the territory served by the company, how the different departments handle the company's business, and the careful planning done to insure prompt and courteous service. The talk will be in general an explanation of the company's service to the public.

Short Cuts to Wealth

Far too many people want diamonds, décollete gowns, tailored suits and silk shirts without first being willing to use alarm clocks, aprons, overalls, and flannel shirts.

There is too much envy of wealth and too little willingness to work for it.

Those who spend freely usually end chained to their jobs. Those who regularly put money away in the bank win final freedom.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

GRACE M. BURT, Editor.
Plymouth, Wednesday P. M. (May 25.)

Club women to the number of 1000 are in attendance upon the annual meeting of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, which opened last evening. A full quota came by train from Boston yesterday and countless visitors were arriving all during the afternoon, bringing additional delegates. Chilling winds, right from the ocean, penetrating even to the marrow of one's bones, served as a slight suggestion of what our Pilgrim Mothers endured during that almost fatal first winter. Cloudless skies, however, cheered the women on their way to Monument Hill at five o'clock, where men and women in Pilgrim garb brought back forcibly the olden time in the singing of ancient songs and appropriate hymns, in which the assembled company joined. Hon. Arthur Lord of Plymouth in a simple and impressive address recalled the labors and sufferings of the little company of men and women who laid the foundation of our free country. Thus were the delegates welcomed and the convention ushered in.

Sobered and uplifted this little band of pilgrims retraced its steps to the town and returned to the practical things of life—lodgings and supper! Hotel Samoset is the official headquarters and is filled with the members of the executive board and standing committees. Common delegates are comfortably housed in neighboring homes, while a goodly number are located at the Pilgrim Hotel, several miles away, with still others occupying summer cottages along the shore.

The Old Colony Theatre was filled last evening for the opening session and has been crowded today. There were the customary features of greetings from the hostess president and the local Chamber of Commerce, the response from Mrs. George Minot Baker, the Federation president, and reports from officers and committee chairmen, but it is not my purpose to go into them in this letter.

Constance and Henry Gideon of Boston gave a delightful half-hour of folk-songs, which were greatly enjoyed and served as a happy intermission between the heavier reports. This morning dawned bright and beautiful, so unwary delegates were taken by surprise when rain was discovered upon adjournment for luncheon and has continued through the afternoon, interfering somewhat with sightseeing plans. It has not, however, dampened the enthusiasm of the club women, who are cheerful and good-natured under all sorts of conditions.

Luncheon was served in the different churches and friends were discovered at every turn. The club editor has run across delegates from nearly every club in Newton. In fact, they are so numerous it would be impossible to attempt to list them for a new one appears upon every corner. The election has been going on this afternoon, being carried out in true official manner with real booths and actual ballot box—a vast improvement over the improvised ones of former days. Strict silence was observed, something men hardly believe, I fancy.

The reports are full of interest and well given, but as yet there has been little out of the ordinary and cannot be considered so far as a "great" convention. Yet we are all glad we came and feel that it is truly good to be here. Why, I shall try to tell you next week.

At the special meeting of the Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club on Monday evening, Miss Alice Jones was elected a director for two years, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Mary Leary.

Upper Falls

A miscellaneous shower was given Miss Mabel Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones of Cottage street last Monday night, at which Mrs. Lyons and Mrs. McNealley were hostesses to forty-five young ladies. Miss Jones received linen, silver, cut glass and silver. The feature of the occasion was a mock wedding. Those taking part were, Ruth Jones as bride; Ruth Doane, groom; Edith Bennett, bridesmaid; Alice Duval, best man; Mrs. Sawyer, clergyman; Olive Duval and Margaret Barry, flower girls, and Mary Barry, ring bearer. Mrs. Doane played the wedding march. Miss Jones is to be married June 4 to Mr. Elliott Tucker Hutchinson of Peabody.

No. 8199. Commonwealth of Massachusetts. LAND COURT.

To Charles F. Ward, Frederick A. Ward, David A. Waugh, Sophie P. Waugh, Ellen T. Kennedy, Gertrude B. Martin and Annie W. Proctor, of Newton, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth; Tomasi Dambrosio, of Everett, in said County of Middlesex; Florence A. Proctor, of Aromas, and Caroline R. Ward, of Los Angeles, in the State of California; and to all whom it may concern:

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court by William H. Rice and Irving C. Paul, of said Newton, to register and confirm their title in the following described land:

A certain parcel of land situate in said Newton bounded and described as follows:

Northeasterly by land of Waugh, Dambrosio and John Ward Estate one hundred seventy four and 9/100 (174.09) feet; Southeasterly by land of Annie W. Proctor four hundred fifteen and 76/100 (415.76) feet; Southwesterly by land of Martin and of Kennedy one hundred fifty three and 64/100 (153.64) feet; and Northwesterly by Nobscot Road as shown on a plan hereinafter mentioned by two lines eighty seven and 50/100 (87.50) feet and three hundred fifty and 67/100 (350.67) feet.

The above described land is shown on a plan filed with said petition and all boundary lines are claimed to be located on the ground as shown on said plan.

You are hereby cited to appear at the Land Court to be held at Boston, in the County of Suffolk, on the thirtieth day of June A. D. 1921, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted. And unless you appear at said Court at the time and place aforesaid your default will be recorded, and the said petition will be taken as confessed, and you will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any decree entered thereon.

Witness, Charles Thornton Davis, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this seventh day of May in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-one.

Attest with Seal of said Court.
CLARENCE C. SMITH, Recorder.

GARDEN NEWS

It is fairly safe to set tomato plants this week. They can be protected from any light frosts that are likely to occur by covering them with papers, held down by stones so that they will not blow away. Gardeners should watch the thermometer and play safe by covering the plants if the temperature goes below 40.

Ninety per cent of the plants sold at retail by stores are Dwarf Stone. They are very attractive as young plants because of very early sturdy growth, but they are poor yielders and it is much better for backyard gardeners to set Bonny Best, Chalk's Early Jewel or Matchless, all of which are well known standard varieties that yield large quantities of smooth, high quality fruit.

The first enemy that attacks the young tomato plant is the cut worm. If the stalk is wound loosely with heavy paper and then set so that the paper extends an inch below the surface of the ground and two inches above, cut worms will come in contact with the paper and leave the plant alone. When cut worms appear in large numbers it is wisest to make what is called a poison bait. It is made by mixing two quarts of dry bran and one ounce of white arsenic or Paris green with two quarts of water. Into this is stirred one pint of molasses. After the mash has stood several hours it should be scattered in lumps the size of marbles over the garden near the plants that are being injured. This mash should be applied late in the day so that it will remain moist into the night when the cut worms come to the surface to do their feeding. It is often necessary to make a second and third application of the poison because it is not good after it becomes dry.

Flea beetles frequently attack young plants and do considerable damage. Dipping them in lead arsenate solution before setting will protect them at the start and if they are damaged as they grow larger, spraying with Bordeaux Mixture will act as a deterrent.

The large green tomato worms which sometimes appear later in the season and eat the foliage can easily be seen and as they never appear in great numbers, can be picked from the vines and destroyed.

A NEWTON ARTIST

From the seventh annual exhibition of the Detroit Institute of Art, the painting entitled "A Woman Sewing," by William McGregor Paxton of Newton Centre, has been purchased for the permanent collection of the museum with funds from the Merrill Fund of the Museum of Art Founders Society. This fund is intended for the purchase of works of art by living Americans. It will be remembered that Mr. Paxton's picture was the popular favorite in the recent voting contest in Detroit, having received nearly three times as many votes as its nearest competitor in the balloting.

The picture is described as a conservative, quiet and highly finished canvas. The light which comes through the window of the interior at the left warms the room, casting sunshine on the figure of the seated woman. It is definite, bright and cheerful, and strong in tactile quality, which characteristics are enough to explain its appeal to the popular taste.

Mr. Paxton is already represented by works in the collections of five or six of the leading art museums of the country, including the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, Philadelphia, the Corcoran Gallery of Art, Washington, and the Cincinnati Museum of Art. He began his training under Dennis M. Bunker at the Cowles Art School in Boston, and continued it at the Ecole des Beaux Arts in Paris, under Gerome, and at the Julian Academy. He has received many honors and prizes.

MR. HOWLAND BURIED

Funeral services for Charles F. Howland, chairman of the board of directors of Wadsworth, Howland & Co., and a former president of the concern, were held Saturday afternoon at his late residence, 129 Chestnut street, West Newton. Rev. Julian C. Jaynes was the officiating clergyman. The services were without music.

The pallbearers were Mr. Howland's son, Arthur Howland, and three sons-in-law, Frederick K. Leatherbee of Springfield, Frank W. Renick of West Newton and Adolph Amend of Highwood, N. J. The body was taken to New Cemetery for burial in the family lot.

The services at the house were attended by representatives of many of the Boston and New England paint houses, as well as by officers and members of the trade and social organizations to which Mr. Howland belonged.

MEMORIAL SUNDAY

The Memorial Exercises of Newton Post 48, American Legion, will be held in Trinity Church, Homer and Centre street, Newton Centre, next Sunday at 7.15. Rev. Mr. Sullivan will have charge of the service and everyone is invited.

FARLEY-PARKER

Miss Virginia Bartlett Parker, and Mr. Leon Baker Farley of Newton Centre were united in marriage last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anselm L. Bacon of Montvale road.

Miss Parker is the daughter of Mrs. Bacon and of the late William E. Parker. She is the graduate of Miss May's School in Boston, and during the war went overseas with those in charge of the American Fund for the French Wounded. The bridegroom is a Dartmouth graduate class of 1909. He was first lieutenant in the war service, and overseas for eighteen months.

The bride wore a gown of Ivory satin and lace trimmed with orange blossoms, a veil of tulle, and carried the prayer book carried by her mother at her wedding.

The attendants of the bride were her sister, Miss Katherine Parker of Newton Centre, maid-of-honor, Mrs. Samuel Hoar, Jr., of Concord, and Mrs. Charles B. Estabrook of Newton Centre. The maid of honor wore a gown of changeable peach taffeta trimmed with silver lace, and carried a bouquet of blue larkspur, while the other attendants wore changeable blue taffeta with old-fashioned neck and shoulder flounces of lace, and carried bouquets of Ward roses.

The best man was Mr. Ralph E. Sexton of Winchester, and the ushers Messrs. Irving J. French, Allen T. Wheeler, and William E. Parker of Newton Centre, William J. Fearing of Newton, and William B. Bacon of Brookline.

The reception at the house was followed by a reception at the Country Club in Brookline.

After the wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Farley are to live at 27 Clafin road, Brookline.

TUTTLE-MERCER

Among the notable weddings of May was that of Miss Emily Hall Mercer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Mercer of Erie avenue, Newton Highlands, to Mr. Edward Gerry Tuttle, of New York City.

The wedding took place last Saturday at the home of the bride, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. John J. Walker of Newton Highlands. Miss Mercer, who is an accomplished musician and a former student at the Longy School of Music, was dressed in a gown of white satin trimmed with rose point lace, and carried white orchids and lilies of the valley.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Lawrence Dowling of New York, wore a silver-embroidered white crepe gown, combined with pink tulle, and her bouquet was of pink roses.

The two bridesmaids, Miss Elizabeth Walker of Newton Highlands, and Miss Marion E. Gray of Port Huron, Michigan, wore orchid-colored organdie, with trimmings of lace, and for flowers carried sweet peas in orchid and pink shades.

The best man, Mr. Kenneth M. Bouve of Newton Highlands, and the ushers, Messrs. Glenn F. Card and Henry B. Kennedy of Cortland, N. Y., Mr. Alvah E. Davidson, Jr., of Brooklyn, and Mr. William H. Farwell of Montpelier, Vt., were classmates of the groom, Amherst, 1920, and members of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

A reception followed the ceremony, the house being decorated with laurel and sweet peas.

After a wedding trip to Montreal and Quebec Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle will make their home in New York City.

REAL ESTATE

Edmonds & Byfield report the sale of the property Nos. 44-46 Walker street, Newtonville, for Fannie M. Higgins of Newtonville, to Mary K. Koch of Watertown. Property consists of a modern two-family dwelling, and lot of about 7000 square feet, all valued at $10,000. Miss Koch buys for a home and investment.

Edmonds & Byfield report the sale of a lot of land on Phillips lane, Newtonville, to Russell G. Wyde of Newton. Lot contains 7300 sq. ft. of land, and is valued at $1000. It is the intention of Mr. Wyde to erect a dwelling for his own occupancy.

The same brokers report the sale of a lot of land on Cabot street, Newtonville, for the Phillips Lane Syndicate, to Minnie F. Hartshorne. Lot contains about 13,000 square feet, and is valued at $2000. Mrs. Hartshorne buys for investment.

Property consists of modern dwelling, and lot of about 10,000 square feet of land; all valued at $16,000. It is the purchaser's intention to occupy the premises at once.

DEATH OF MRS. HALE

Mrs. Mary Greenleaf Hale, widow of Thomas Kent Hale, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Percy Rolfe Ziegler, on Mill street, last Sunday. Mrs. Hale was born in Kirby, Vermont, eighty-six years ago. She was educated in Boston where she married Thomas Kent Hale, who was connected with the American Express Co. Mr. and Mrs. Hale lived in Cambridge until the death of Mr. Hale in 1899, when Mrs. Hale came to live with Mrs. Ziegler.

Besides Mrs. Ziegler, Mrs. Hale leaves another daughter, Mrs. William S. Burrage of Middlebury, Vermont.

Services were held at the home of Mrs. Ziegler on Tuesday, the Rev. William B. Campbell of the Highland Ave. Congregational Church, Roxbury, officiating, and the burial was in Mt. Auburn.

PORTRAIT OF MISS ALLEN

Mrs. Elizabeth V. Taylor Watson has just completed a portrait of the late Miss Fanny Bassett Allen, the eldest daughter of Nathaniel T. Allen, the founder of the Allen School in West Newton. After the retirement of Mr. Allen his two daughters established a school for girls in the old homestead in West Newton. Miss Fanny B. Allen, who died in 1913, was a descendant of Elder Brewster of the D. A. R. in Newton in 1896, where she was regent for nine years. The artist has made an excellent likeness, showing the dignified personality and character of a remarkable woman.

MINSTREL SHOW

Much interest was taken in the Minstrel Show given by the Christian Endeavor Society of the Auburndale Congregational Church in the Lasell tent on Tuesday evening.

The interlocutor was Allen Dunlop, and the end men John Perkins, Fred Coulson, Theodore Grant, Robert
Savoy; the end women being Isabel Eaton and Dorothy Drew. The minstrel show was preceded by an introduction by Maida Cardwell and Hamilton Bissell.

The program included, besides the songs of the chorus, a solo by Mr.
Ralph Keyes, one by Katherine Knapp, other solos by Isabel Eaton and Barbara Smith, while Muriel Conn gave a solo-dance, and John Perkins and Robert Savoy sang together.

In addition, a monologue by Mr.
Harold Cook was much enjoyed, and a "Japanese Sand Man" sung by the following: Harland Fisk, William Henrick, Roger Case, James Clark, and Richard Walter.

Another interesting feature was a one-act comedy by Mrs. Champion and Dorothy Drew, and a song and dance in which the following took part:
Mildred Sweet, Marjorie Scott, Ruth Bliss, Marjorie Fowler, Julia Middleton, Carol Duncan. The final number was a Dixie song by Dorothy Grant, Katherine Knapp, Dorothy Hays, and Winslow Howland.

The minstrel show was under the management of Ruth Perkins, assisted by Robert Savoy, Mrs. Alice Champion, Dorothy Case, Hilda Lawrence, Muriel Howland, and Alton Lamont.
The ushers were Gertrude Selloy, Mildred Hatch, Dorothy Dixon, and Gladys Lawrence.

During the intermission, Miss Perkins was presented with a pin by Isabelle Eaton, representing the Christian Endeavor Society, and at the close of the performance, a bou-quet of flowers was also presented to her by Gertrude Selloy in recognition of her services to the society.

The annual party of the Sunshine
Society of the First Church, Newton Centre, took place at the church on Tuesday afternoon. This society has been in existence about fifteen years, and numbers forty members. Mrs.
Edward M. Noyes is the director.

The girls of the Newton Centre Band of Mercy repeated two plays which they had given earlier in the season at the Playground House.
"Tom Sawyer" and "Little Miss Van Winkle," while the Sunshine Society provided "grabs," candy, ice-cream, etc.

Those who took part in "Little Miss Van Winkle" were Elinore Young, Mildred McKay, Martha Petersham, Constance Hosack, Elizabeth McKey, Virginia Beatty. The cast of "Tom Sawyer" included Dorothea Tichnor,
Helen Titus, Elinore Young, Mildred
McKey, Clara Bell, and Elizabeth McKey.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, and all other persons interested in the estate of Edward H. Hay, late of Newton in said County, deceased.
WHEREAS, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court for probate, by George E. Adams, who prays that letters of administration with the will annexed may be issued to him without giving a surety on his bond, or to some other suitable person, the executrix named in said will having declined to accept the trust.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the fourteenth day of June, A. D. 1921, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, postpaid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days, at least, before said Court.
Witness, George E. Layton, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twenty-fourth day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one. F. M. ESTY, Register.

BAKER-LENFEST

Miss E. Gertrude Lenfest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Lenfest of Chelsea, was married on Tuesday evening to Roland H. Baker of Newton by Rev. Dr. John H. Quast, D. D., pastor of the First Congregational Church, Chelsea. The ceremony was in the church and was followed by a reception in the church parlor. Leon Stewart of Brookline was best man and the bride's attendants were Miss Arline Hill of Franklin, N. H.; Mrs. Evelyn L. Hope of Chelsea; Miss Frances Dennison of Chelsea, and Mrs. Marion Wiseman of Melrose.

Miss Helen Lenfest, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridegroom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Baker of Newton, is a chief engineer for the United States Shipping Board.

Lasell

The Annual River Day festivities were held on Thursday afternoon on the Charles River. The sun shone brightly, and the canoes with their merry cargoes, and the spectators in their light dresses made a scene of particular attractiveness.

There were five races, the course covering 600 yards. The shortest time made by the winning crew was 3 minutes and 23 seconds.

Luck seemed to be with the Juniors this year, that class winning both first and second places. The names of the winning crew follow: Junior First: Genevieve Tiernan (Capt.), Helen Lewis, Louise Jackson, Cecile Loomis, Fanny Brown, Vera Clauser, Estelle Cleale, Catherine Howe, Henrietta Leicht.

Second Junior Crew: Marie E. Washburn, Adele Busher, Caroline Bidley, Marion Crawford, Josephine Holbrook, Constance Migs, Marjorie Lewis, Selma Ullman, Barbara Smith.

Vespers next Sunday will be led by Dr. Laurens MacLure of Newton.

All those interested in having our government call a conference of the powers for this purpose should be present to join in the action of this meeting.

NEWTON POST, A. L.

On Friday night, June 3, there will be a Hurdy Gurdy party in Legion Hall, West Newton, under the auspices of Newton Post, American Legion. A genuine hand-organ with its operator has been engaged for that evening and many other novel features are "on tap" for the evening. The entertainment committee is in charge of the affair and to judge from the success of this committee on past occasions this season, patrons of the party are assured plenty of fun. Dancing will start at 8 o'clock and will last until midnight. William Greene is chairman of the committee in charge.

The Post gave a four hour entertainment at the big smoker held on Friday night. The program was cut short and it was exactly midnight when the final number was finished. Dancers, singers, comedians, acrobats and athletes figured on the list, and each person who appeared was selected with extreme care, in order to have a well balanced array of talent.
